CURRENT VERSION OF TEXT

SR115 CARDINALE, KYRILLOS

2

1 A SENATE RESOLUTION designating April 24, 2008 as “Armenian
2 Martyrs’ Day.”

3

4 WHEREAS, On April 24, 1915, under the leadership of the Young
5 Turk Party of the Ottoman Empire, about 300 Armenian leaders, 6 writers, thinkers, and professionals were rounded up, deported, and 7 killed in Constantinople or present-day Istanbul, Turkey; and

8 WHEREAS, On that same day, about 5,000 of the poorest Armenians 9 were butchered by battalions in their homes and in the streets; and

10 WHEREAS, These events are emblematic of what is today recognized 11 by scholars, governments, and civil society all over the world as the 12 Armenian Genocide of World War I, when from 1915 through 13 1923, the Young Turk leadership of the Ottoman Empire
14 orchestrated the persecution and death of approximately 1.5 million
15 of the 2.5 million Armenians then living in Anatolia or present-day
16 Turkey; and

17 WHEREAS, In the face of so much evidence to the contrary it is 18 dangerous to deny, as the government of Turkey does today, that 19 the Armenian Genocide ever happened; and

20 WHEREAS, The danger of denial manifested itself as early as the 21 1920s when, on the eve of sending his troops into Poland in World
22 War II, Hitler himself said: “Go, kill without mercy... Who today 23 remembers the annihilation of the Armenians?”; and

24 WHEREAS, We shall commemorate with the Armenian community in 25 New Jersey, the United States, Armenia, and the world these events
26 that today call upon us to ensure that such history does not repeat 27 itself; now, therefore,

28

29 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the State of New Jersey:

30

31 1. This House designates April 24, 2008 as “Armenian Martyrs’ 32 Day,” and urges Governor Jon S. Corzine to memorialize this day in 33 recognition that the tragic events of 1915 and the following years
34 should be remembered by those of us living today.

35

36 2. Duly authenticated copies of this resolution, signed by the 37 Senate President and attested by the Secretary thereof, shall be 38 transmitted to Governor Jon S. Corzine.
