4

5 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
6 of New Jersey:
7

8 1. N.J.S.2C:16-1 is amended to read as follows:
9 2C:16-1. Bias Intimidation.

10 a. Bias Intimidation. A person is guilty of the crime of bias 11 intimidation if he commits, attempts to commit, conspires with 12 another to commit, or threatens the immediate commission of an 13 offense specified in chapters 11 through 18 of Title 2C of the New 14 Jersey Statutes; N.J.S.2C:33-4; N.J.S.2C:39-3; N.J.S.2C:39-4 or 15 N.J.S.2C:39-5,

16 (1) with a purpose to intimidate an individual or group of 17 individuals because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap]
18 disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national 19 origin, or ethnicity; or

20 (2) knowing that the conduct constituting the offense would 21 cause an individual or group of individuals to be intimidated 22 because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, 23 sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or 24 ethnicity; or

25 (3) under circumstances that caused any victim of the 26 underlying offense to be intimidated and the victim, considering the 27 manner in which the offense was committed, reasonably believed 28 either that (a) the offense was committed with a purpose to 29 intimidate the victim or any person or entity in whose welfare the 30 victim is interested because of race, color, religion, gender, 31 [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or 32 expression, national origin, or ethnicity, or (b) the victim or the 33 victim's property was selected to be the target of the offense 34 because of the victim's race, color, religion, gender, [handicap]
35 disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national 36 origin, or ethnicity.

37 b. Permissive inference concerning selection of targeted person 38 or property. Proof that the target of the underlying offense was 39 selected by the defendant, or by another acting in concert with the 40 defendant, because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap]
41 disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national 42 origin, or ethnicity shall give rise to a permissive inference by the 43 trier of fact that the defendant acted with a purpose to intimidate an 44 individual or group of individuals because of race, color, religion,

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.

- 1 gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or 2 expression, national origin, or ethnicity.
- 3 c. Grading. Bias intimidation is a crime of the fourth degree if 4 the underlying offense referred to in subsection a. is a disorderly
5 persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense. Otherwise, 6 bias intimidation is a crime one degree higher than the most serious 7 underlying crime referred to in subsection a., except that where the 8 underlying crime is a crime of the first degree, bias intimidation is a 9 first-degree crime and the defendant upon conviction thereof may, 10 notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection a. of 11 N.J.S.2C:43-6, be sentenced to an ordinary term of imprisonment
12 between 15 years and 30 years, with a presumptive term of 20 13 years.
- 14 d. Gender exemption in sexual offense prosecutions. It shall 15 not be a violation of subsection a. if the underlying criminal offense
16 is a violation of chapter 14 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes 17 and the circumstance specified in paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of 18 subsection a. of this section is based solely upon the gender of the 19 victim.
- 20 e. Merger. Notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S.2C:1-8 or 21 any other provision of law, a conviction for bias intimidation shall 22 not merge with a conviction of any of the underlying offenses
23 referred to in subsection a. of this section, nor shall any conviction 24 for such underlying offense merge with a conviction for bias
25 intimidation. The court shall impose separate sentences upon a 26 conviction for bias intimidation and a conviction of any underlying 27 offense.
- 28 f. Additional Penalties. In addition to any fine imposed 29 pursuant to N.J.S.2C:43-3 or any term of imprisonment imposed 30 pursuant to N.J.S.2C:43-6, a court may order a person convicted of 31 bias intimidation to one or more of the following:
- 32 (1) complete a class or program on sensitivity to diverse 33 communities, or other similar training in the area of civil rights; 34 (2) complete a counseling program intended to reduce the 35 tendency toward violent and antisocial behavior; and 36 (3) make payments or other compensation to a community-based 37 program or local agency that provides services to victims of bias 38 intimidation.
- 39 g. As used in this section “gender identity or expression” means 40 having or being perceived as having a gender related identity or 41 expression whether or not stereotypically associated with a person's 42 assigned sex at birth.
- 43 h. It shall not be a defense to a prosecution for a crime under 44 this section that the defendant was mistaken as to the race, color, 45 religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or 46 expression, national origin, or ethnicity of the victim.
47 (cf: P.L.2001, c.443, s.1)

4 or group of individuals because of race, color, religion, gender, 5 [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or 6 expression, national origin, or ethnicity, who engages in conduct 7 that is an offense under the provisions of the "New Jersey Code of 8 Criminal Justice," Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes, commits a 9 civil offense.

10       b. Any person who sustains injury to person or property as a 11 result of a violation of subsection a. shall have a cause of action 12 against the person or persons who committed the civil offense 13 resulting in the injury. In the case of a homicide committed in 14 violation of subsection a., the estate of the deceased shall have a 15 cause of action. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to 16 preclude the parent or legal guardian of a person who has sustained 17 injury as a result of a violation of subsection a. from initiating a 18 civil action on behalf of a minor child or ward.

19       c. The Attorney General, as parens patriae, may initiate a cause 20 of action against any person who violates subsection a. of this 21 section on behalf of any person or persons who have sustained 22 injury to person or property as a result of the commission of the 23 civil offense.

24       d. Upon proof, by a preponderance of the evidence, of a 25 defendant's violation of subsection a. of this section and of resulting 26 damages, the defendant shall be liable as follows:

27       (1) To the person or persons injured, for an award in the 28 amount of damages incurred as a result of the commission of the 29 civil offense, including damages for any emotional distress suffered 30 as a result of the civil offense, such punitive damages as may be 31 assessed, and any reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit 32 incurred;

33       (2) To the State, in any case in which the Attorney General has 34 participated, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of investigation 35 and suit;

36       (3) Such injunctive relief as the court may deem necessary to 37 avoid the defendant's continued violation of subsection a.; and

38       (4) Any additional appropriate equitable relief, including 39 restraints to avoid repeated violation.

40       e. An award entered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection d.
41 of this section shall be reduced by the amount of any restitution that 42 has been awarded for the same injury following criminal conviction 43 or juvenile adjudication, and, notwithstanding the provisions of 44 paragraph (1) of subsection d., damages awarded for injuries that 45 have previously been compensated by the Violent Crimes 46 Compensation Board shall be paid to the board for deposit in the 47 Violent Crimes Compensation Board Account.

1 f. All fees and costs assessed for the benefit of the State 2 pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection d. of this section shall be 3 paid to the State Treasurer for deposit in the Civil Rights
4 Enforcement Fund established pursuant to section 2 of this act.

5 g. The parent or guardian of a juvenile against whom an award 6 has been entered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection d. of this 7 section shall be liable for payment only if the parent has been 8 named as a defendant and it has been established, by a 9 preponderance of the evidence, that the parent or guardian's conduct 10 was a significant contributing factor in the juvenile's commission of 11 the offense.

STATEMENT

7 This bill substantially revises the current hate crimes and 8 bullying law.

9 Section 1 of the bill amends the law concerning the crime of 10 bias intimidation to specifically provide that “gender identity or 11 expression” and “national origin” are within the protected classes 12 set forth in the statute. Current law enumerates the protected 13 classes of “race, color, religion, gender, handicap, sexual 14 orientation, or ethnicity.” Although a bias crime based on gender 15 identity or expression or national origin can be prosecuted using the 16 protected classes currently enumerated in the law, this amendment 17 makes clear that these classes are intended to fall within provisions 18 of the statute. In addition, the bill replaces the outdated term 19 “handicap” with the more contemporary term “disability.” This 20 change is not intended to change substantive law. Under the 21 provisions of this section, a person may be guilty of the crime of 22 bias intimidation if he commits, attempts, conspires, or threatens the 23 immediate commission of certain specified offenses with a purpose 24 to intimidate an individual or group because of race, color, religion, 25 gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, 26 national origin, or ethnicity or knowing that the conduct would 27 cause an individual or group to be intimidated on that basis or under 28 circumstances in which the victim believes he was targeted on that 29 basis. The amendment further clarifies the law by specifying that it 30 is not a defense to a bias intimidation crime prosecution that the 31 defendant was mistaken as to the race, color, religion, gender, 32 disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national 33 origin, or ethnicity of the victim.

34 In addition, section 1 adds a new subsection f. to N.J.S.A.2C:16-35 1 to provide for additional penalties for the crime of bias
36 intimidation. Under this subsection, a court may order a person 37 convicted of bias intimidation to: complete a class or program on 38 sensitivity to diverse communities, or other similar training in the 39 area of civil rights; complete a counseling program intended to 40 reduce the tendency toward violent and antisocial behavior; or make 41 payments or other compensation to a community-based program or 42 local agency that provides services to victims of bias intimidation.
43 These penalties would be in addition to any other penalties required 44 by the State’s sentencing laws.

45 Section 2 of the bill amends N.J.S.A.2A:53A-21 to include a 46 purpose to intimidate because of “gender identity or expression” or 47 “national origin” in the existing civil cause of action for bias crime

1 victims. In addition, the bill replaces the outdated term “handicap”
2 used in N.J.S.A.2A:53A-21 with the more contemporary term
3 “disability.” This change is not intended to change substantive law.
4 Under the provisions of this section of the bill, a person, acting with 5 purpose to intimidate an individual or group because of race, color, 6 religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or 7 expression, national origin, or ethnicity, who engages in conduct
8 that is an offense under the provisions of the New Jersey criminal 9 code, commits a civil offense and may be liable for damages, 10 including punitive damages.

11 Section 3 of the bill amends N.J.S.A.52:4B-11 to add the crime
12 of bias intimidation to the list of crimes for which the Victims 13 Crimes Compensation Agency may order the payment of 14 compensation for personal injury or death. Including victims of 15 bias intimidation specifically in N.J.S.A.52:4B-11 will enable them
16 to be the beneficiaries of the services the Victims Crimes
17 Compensation Agency offers.

18 Section 4 of the bill would require local and county police to 19 include information about bias crimes in their quarterly reports of 20 crime to the Attorney General. This information would then be
