Nothing in P.L.2003, c.310 (C.39:4-97.3 et seq.) shall apply to the use of a citizen's band radio or two-way radio by an operator of a moving commercial motor vehicle or authorized emergency vehicle on a public road or highway.

A hand-held wireless telephone user's telephone records or the testimony or written statements from appropriate authorities receiving such calls shall be deemed sufficient evidence of the existence of all lawful calls made under this paragraph.

g. Whenever this section is used as an alternative offense in a plea agreement to any other offense in Title 39 of the Revised Statutes that would result in the assessment of motor vehicle points, the penalty shall be the same as the penalty for a violation of section 1 of P.L.2000, c.75 (C.39:4-97.2), including the surcharge imposed pursuant to subsection f. of that section, and a conviction under this section shall be considered a conviction under section 1 of P.L.2000, c.75 (C.39:4-97.2) for the purpose of determining subsequent enhanced penalties under that section. (cf: P.L.2013, c.70, s.1)

STATEMENT

This bill increases the penalties for first, second and subsequent offenses of talking on a hand-held wireless telephone or texting a message with a hand-held wireless electronic communication device while driving. The fines and driver’s license suspension periods imposed under this bill are the same as those imposed for driving while intoxicated (DWI).

P.L.2013, c.70 increased fines for first, second and subsequent offenses of talking on a hand-held wireless telephone or texting a message with a hand-held wireless electronic communication device while driving. Under current law, the fine for this offense is $200 to $400 for a first offense, $400 to $600 for a second offense, and $600 to $800 for third and subsequent offenses. Current law also permits the court, at its discretion, to impose a 90-day driver’s license suspension for persons convicted of the offense for a third or subsequent time. In addition, third and subsequent offenders receive three motor vehicle penalty points.
Under the provisions of this bill, the following penalties would be imposed: (1) for a first offense, a fine of $250 to $400, and suspension of the person’s driver’s license for 90 days; (2) for a second offense, a fine of $500 to $1,000 and suspension of the person’s driver’s license for two years; and (3) for a third or subsequent offense, a fine of $1,000 and suspension of the person’s driver’s license for 10 years.

The bill also removes language from current law providing that violators are not assessed motor vehicle points or insurance eligibility points.
