1 AN ACT establishing the Office of the Ombudsman for Individuals
2 with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and their 3 Families and supplementing Title 30 of the Revised Statutes.

4
5 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
6 of New Jersey:

7
8 1. a. There is established in but not of the Department of the 9 Treasury the Office of the Ombudsman for Individuals with 10 Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and their Families. For 11 the purpose of complying with the provisions of Article V, Section 12 IV, paragraph 1 of the New Jersey Constitution, the Office of the 13 Ombudsman for Individuals with Intellectual or Developmental 14 Disabilities and their Families is hereby allocated within the 15 Department of the Treasury, but notwithstanding this allocation, the 16 office shall be independent of any supervision or control by the 17 department or any board or officer thereof, or any other cabinet-18 level department, board, or officer thereof. The purpose of the 19 ombudsman is to serve as a resource to provide information and 20 support to individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities 21 and their families.

22 b. The Governor shall appoint an Ombudsman for Individuals
23 with Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and their Families, 24 who shall be qualified by training and experience to perform the 25 duties of the office. The ombudsman shall be a person of 26 recognized judgment, integrity, and objectivity, and shall be skilled 27 in communication, conflict resolution, and professionalism.

28 c. The ombudsman shall organize and direct the work of the 29 office, including the work of such professional and clerical staff as 30 may be necessary to carry out the ombudsman's duties.

31

32 2. a. The duties of the Ombudsman for Individuals with 33 Intellectual or Developmental Disabilities and their Families shall 34 include, but not be limited to, the following:

35 (1) to serve as a source of information for individuals with 36 intellectual or developmental disabilities and their families and 37 interested members of the public, to help them better understand 38 State and federal laws and regulations governing individuals with 39 intellectual or developmental disabilities;

40 (2) to provide, in coordination with the State Council on 41 Developmental Disabilities:

42 (a) information and support to individuals with intellectual or 43 developmental disabilities and their families in navigating and 44 understanding the process for obtaining services and supports from 45 the Division of Developmental Disabilities in the Department of 46 Human Services and the Division of Children's System of Care in 47 the Department of Children and Families, including information and 48 support regarding individuals who transition from receiving

1 services and supports from the Division of Children's System of 2 Care to receiving services and supports from the Division of 3 Developmental Disabilities; and

4 (b) assistance to individuals with intellectual or developmental 5 disabilities in obtaining from the Division of Children's System of 6 Care or the Division of Developmental Disabilities, as appropriate,
7 services, supports, and opportunities that focus on personal goals
8 and help those goals become a reality;

9 (3) to provide information and communication strategies to 10 individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities and their 11 families for resolving a disagreement with the Division of 12 Children's System of Care, the Division of Developmental 13 Disabilities, the Department of Children and Families, or the 14 Department of Human Services regarding the evaluation,
15 placement, or provision of services and supports to an individual 16 with an intellectual or developmental disability; and to educate
17 individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities and their 18 families on the available options for resolving such disputes;

19 (4) to work neutrally and objectively with all parties to help
20 ensure that a fair process is followed in the resolution of disputes
21 concerning the provision of services and supports to individuals
22 with intellectual or developmental disabilities receiving services
23 from the Division of Children's System of Care or the Division of 24 Developmental Disabilities, as appropriate;

25 (5) to identify any patterns of complaints that emerge regarding 26 rights and services of individuals with intellectual or developmental 27 disabilities, and to recommend strategies for improvement to the 28 Division of Children's System of Care and the Division of 29 Developmental Disabilities or the Department of Children and 30 Families and the Department of Human Services; and

31 (6) to assist the Division of Children's System of Care and the 32 Division of Developmental Disabilities in creating public
33 information programs designed to acquaint and educate individuals 34 with intellectual or developmental disabilities, their families, and 35 the public about the duties of the ombudsman.

36 b. The ombudsman shall treat communications received in the 37 course of the ombudsman's duties, including personally identifiable 38 information regarding individuals with intellectual or 39 developmental disabilities and their families, and others from whom 40 information is acquired, as confidential, except when disclosure is 41 necessary to enable the ombudsman to perform the duties of the 42 office and consent for disclosure is obtained. Upon receipt of 43 information that by law is confidential or privileged, the 44 ombudsman shall maintain the confidentiality of the information 45 and shall not disclose or disseminate the information except as 46 provided by applicable State or federal law.

1 personal goals and help those goals become a reality; 3) to provide
2 information and communication strategies with regard to resolution
3 of a disagreement with CSOC, DDD, DCF, or DHS regarding the 4 evaluation, placement, or provision of services and supports to an 5 individual with an intellectual or developmental disability; and to 6 educate individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities
7 and their families on the available options for resolving these 8 disputes; 4) to work neutrally and objectively to help ensure that a 9 fair process is followed in the resolution of disputes concerning the 10 provision of supports and services to individuals with intellectual or 11 developmental disabilities receiving services from CSOC or DDD; 12 5) to identify patterns of complaints regarding rights and services of 13 individuals with intellectual or developmental disabilities, and to 14 recommend strategies for improvements; and 6) to assist CSOC and 15 DDD in creating public information programs designed to acquaint 16 and educate individuals with intellectual or developmental 17 disabilities, their families, and the public about the duties of the 18 ombudsman.

19 Communications received in the course of the ombudsman's 20 duties are to be kept confidential, except when disclosure is 21 necessary to enable the ombudsman to perform the duties of the 22 office and consent for disclosure is obtained.

23 The bill requires the ombudsman to issue a written report
24 annually to the Commissioner of Human Services and the 25 Commissioner of Children and Families. The report would include 26 a summary of the services the ombudsman provided during the year, 27 and any specific recommendations the ombudsman deems 28 appropriate and necessary concerning the implementation of 29 procedures with respect to providing individuals with intellectual or 30 developmental disabilities with services and supports. This report
31 would also be issued to the Governor and the Legislature.
