AN ACT concerning hate crimes and bullying, establishing a commission, amending various parts of the statutory law, and supplementing Title 52 of the Revised Statutes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. N.J.S.2C:16-1 is amended to read as follows:
   a. Bias Intimidation. A person is guilty of the crime of bias intimidation if he commits, attempts to commit, conspires with another to commit, or threatens the immediate commission of an offense specified in chapters 11 through 18 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes; N.J.S.2C:33-4; N.J.S.2C:39-3; N.J.S.2C:39-4 or N.J.S.2C:39-5,
      (1) with a purpose to intimidate an individual or group of individuals because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity; or
      (2) knowing that the conduct constituting the offense would cause an individual or group of individuals to be intimidated because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity; or
      (3) under circumstances that caused any victim of the underlying offense to be intimidated and the victim, considering the manner in which the offense was committed, reasonably believed either that (a) the offense was committed with a purpose to intimidate the victim or any person or entity in whose welfare the victim is interested because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity, or (b) the victim or the victim's property was selected to be the target of the offense because of the victim's race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity.
   b. Permissive inference concerning selection of targeted person or property. Proof that the target of the underlying offense was selected by the defendant, or by another acting in concert with the defendant, because of race, color, religion, gender, [handicap] disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity shall give rise to a permissive inference by the trier of fact that the defendant acted with a purpose to intimidate an individual or group of individuals because of race, color, religion,
c. Grading. Bias intimidation is a crime of the fourth degree if the underlying offense referred to in subsection a. is a disorderly persons offense or petty disorderly persons offense. Otherwise, bias intimidation is a crime one degree higher than the most serious underlying crime referred to in subsection a., except that where the underlying crime is a crime of the first degree, bias intimidation is a first-degree crime and the defendant upon conviction thereof may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection a. of N.J.S.2C:43-6, be sentenced to an ordinary term of imprisonment between 15 years and 30 years, with a presumptive term of 20 years.

d. Gender exemption in sexual offense prosecutions. It shall not be a violation of subsection a. if the underlying criminal offense is a violation of chapter 14 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes and the circumstance specified in paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of subsection a. of this section is based solely upon the gender of the victim.

e. Merger. Notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S.2C:1-8 or any other provision of law, a conviction for bias intimidation shall not merge with a conviction of any of the underlying offenses referred to in subsection a. of this section, nor shall any conviction for such underlying offense merge with a conviction for bias intimidation. The court shall impose separate sentences upon a conviction for bias intimidation and a conviction of any underlying offense.

f. Additional Penalties. In addition to any fine imposed pursuant to N.J.S.2C:43-3 or any term of imprisonment imposed pursuant to N.J.S.2C:43-6, a court may order a person convicted of bias intimidation to one or more of the following:

(1) complete a class or program on sensitivity to diverse communities, or other similar training in the area of civil rights;

(2) complete a counseling program intended to reduce the tendency toward violent and antisocial behavior; and

(3) make payments or other compensation to a community-based program or local agency that provides services to victims of bias intimidation.

g. As used in this section “gender identity or expression” means having or being perceived as having a gender related identity or expression whether or not stereotypically associated with a person’s assigned sex at birth.

h. It shall not be a defense to a prosecution for a crime under this section that the defendant was mistaken as to the race, color, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity of the victim.

2. Section 1 of P.L.1993, c.137 (C.2A:53A-21) is amended to read as follows:

b. Any person who sustains injury to person or property as a result of a violation of subsection a. shall have a cause of action against the person or persons who committed the civil offense resulting in the injury. In the case of a homicide committed in violation of subsection a., the estate of the deceased shall have a cause of action. Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to preclude the parent or legal guardian of a person who has sustained injury as a result of a violation of subsection a. from initiating a civil action on behalf of a minor child or ward.

c. The Attorney General, as parens patriae, may initiate a cause of action against any person who violates subsection a. of this section on behalf of any person or persons who have sustained injury to person or property as a result of the commission of the civil offense.

d. Upon proof, by a preponderance of the evidence, of a defendant's violation of subsection a. of this section and of resulting damages, the defendant shall be liable as follows:

   (1) To the person or persons injured, for an award in the amount of damages incurred as a result of the commission of the civil offense, including damages for any emotional distress suffered as a result of the civil offense, such punitive damages as may be assessed, and any reasonable attorney's fees and costs of suit incurred;

   (2) To the State, in any case in which the Attorney General has participated, reasonable attorney's fees and costs of investigation and suit;

   (3) Such injunctive relief as the court may deem necessary to avoid the defendant's continued violation of subsection a.; and

   (4) Any additional appropriate equitable relief, including restraints to avoid repeated violation.

e. An award entered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection d. of this section shall be reduced by the amount of any restitution that has been awarded for the same injury following criminal conviction or juvenile adjudication, and, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of subsection d., damages awarded for injuries that have previously been compensated by the Violent Crimes Compensation Board shall be paid to the board for deposit in the Violent Crimes Compensation Board Account.
f. All fees and costs assessed for the benefit of the State pursuant to paragraph (2) of subsection d. of this section shall be paid to the State Treasurer for deposit in the Civil Rights Enforcement Fund established pursuant to section 2 of this act.

g. The parent or guardian of a juvenile against whom an award has been entered pursuant to paragraph (1) of subsection d. of this section shall be liable for payment only if the parent has been named as a defendant and it has been established, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the parent or guardian's conduct was a significant contributing factor in the juvenile's commission of the offense.

This bill substantially revises the current hate crimes and bullying law.

Section 1 of the bill amends the law concerning the crime of bias intimidation to specifically provide that “gender identity or expression” and “national origin” are within the protected classes set forth in the statute. Current law enumerates the protected classes of “race, color, religion, gender, handicap, sexual orientation, or ethnicity.” Although a bias crime based on gender identity or expression or national origin can be prosecuted using the protected classes currently enumerated in the law, this amendment makes clear that these classes are intended to fall within provisions of the statute. In addition, the bill replaces the outdated term “handicap” with the more contemporary term “disability.” This change is not intended to change substantive law. Under the provisions of this section, a person may be guilty of the crime of bias intimidation if he commits, attempts, conspires, or threatens the immediate commission of certain specified offenses with a purpose to intimidate an individual or group because of race, color, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity or knowing that the conduct would cause an individual or group to be intimidated on that basis or under circumstances in which the victim believes he was targeted on that basis. The amendment further clarifies the law by specifying that it is not a defense to a bias intimidation crime prosecution that the defendant was mistaken as to the race, color, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity of the victim.

In addition, section 1 adds a new subsection f. to N.J.S.A.2C:16-1 to provide for additional penalties for the crime of bias intimidation. Under this subsection, a court may order a person convicted of bias intimidation to: complete a class or program on sensitivity to diverse communities, or other similar training in the area of civil rights; complete a counseling program intended to reduce the tendency toward violent and antisocial behavior; or make payments or other compensation to a community-based program or local agency that provides services to victims of bias intimidation. These penalties would be in addition to any other penalties required by the State’s sentencing laws.

Section 2 of the bill amends N.J.S.A.2A:53A-21 to include a purpose to intimidate because of “gender identity or expression” or “national origin” in the existing civil cause of action for bias crime victims. In addition, the bill replaces the outdated term “handicap” used in N.J.S.A.2A:53A-21 with the more contemporary term “disability.” This change is not intended to change substantive law. Under the provisions of this section of the bill, a person, acting with purpose to intimidate an individual or group because of race, color, religion, gender, disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, national origin, or ethnicity, who engages in conduct that is an offense under the provisions of the New Jersey criminal code, commits a civil offense and may be liable for damages, including punitive damages.

Section 3 of the bill amends N.J.S.A.52:4B-11 to add the crime of bias intimidation to the list of crimes for which the Victims Crimes Compensation Agency may order the payment of compensation for personal injury or death. Including victims of bias intimidation specifically in N.J.S.A.52:4B-11 will enable them to be the beneficiaries of the services the Victims Crimes Compensation Agency offers.

Section 4 of the bill would require local and county police to include information about bias crimes in their quarterly reports of crime to the Attorney General. This information would then be included by the Attorney General in the annual report of crime in New Jersey submitted to the Governor and the Legislature pursuant to section 5 of P.L.1996, c.37 (C.52:17B-5.5).

Section 5 of the bill would require the Attorney General or the Division of State Police, if the Attorney General so designates, to maintain a central repository of information submitted from county and local police concerning bias crimes. The information in the repository would be available to the public.

Section 6 would require the Police Training Commission to require all new police officers to complete two hours of training, which may include interactive training, in identifying, responding to, and reporting bias intimidation crimes. The Police Training Commission would develop or revise the course in consultation with the New Jersey Human Relations Council. The training course shall include the following topics:

- features that identify or could identify a bias intimidation crime;
- laws dealing with bias intimidation crimes
- law enforcement procedures, reporting, and documentation of bias intimidation crimes; and
- techniques and methods to handle incidents of bias intimidation crimes, including training on how to deal sensitively with victims and referring victims of bias intimidation crimes to organizations that provide assistance and compensation to victims.

Section 7 of the bill amends N.J.S.A.18A:37-15 to require that each school district’s bullying policy be posted on their website and distributed to parents and guardians annually.

Section 8 of the bill would establish the Commission on Bullying in Schools. The commission shall consist of 13 members as follows:

- the Commissioner of the Department of Education, or his designee;
• the Director of the Division on Civil Rights in the Department of Law and Public Safety, or his designee;
• the Governor shall appoint seven public members: one representative of the New Jersey Education Association, one representative of the New Jersey School Boards Association, one representative of the Anti-Defamation League, and four public members with a background in, or special knowledge of, the legal, policy, educational, social or psychological aspects of bullying in schools;
• the President of the Senate shall appoint two public members with a background in, or special knowledge of, the legal, policy, educational, social or psychological aspects of bullying in schools; and
• the Speaker of the General Assembly shall appoint two public members with a background in, or special knowledge of, the legal, policy, educational, social or psychological aspects of bullying in schools.

The commission shall study and make recommendations regarding:
• the implementation and effectiveness of school bullying laws and regulations;
• the adequacy of legal remedies available to students who are victims of bullying and their parents and guardians;
• the adequacy of legal protections available to teachers who are in compliance with school bullying policies;
• training of teachers, school administrators, and law enforcement personnel in responding to, investigating and reporting incidents of bullying;
• funding issues related to the implementation of the State school bullying laws and regulations; and
• the implementation of a possible collaboration between the Department of Education and the Division on Civil Rights in the Department of Law and Public Safety on a Statewide initiative against school bullying.

Members shall be appointed within 30 days of enactment and serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, within the limits of funds appropriated or otherwise made available to the commission for its purposes.

The commission shall choose a chairperson from among its members. Any vacancy in the membership shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.

The commission shall conduct a minimum of three public hearings: one in the northern portion of the State; one in the central portion of the State; and one in the southern portion of the State.

The commission shall report its findings and recommendations, along with any legislation it desires to recommend for adoption by the Legislature, to the Governor and the Legislature. The commission shall issue its final report no later than nine months after final appointment of its members and expire thereafter.
