STATEMENT

This concurrent resolution proposes to amend the State Constitution to authorize the Legislature to enact a statute to establish a Bureau of Probation in the State Board of Parole and transfer all of the functions, powers, duties and responsibilities concerning probation, and the probation officers and other professional supervisors, case workers, and case-related employees who perform probation functions from the Judiciary to this new Bureau of Probation. Under the proposed constitutional amendment, existing contractual terms and conditions would remain unchanged, as would the status of exclusive employee bargaining representatives. The units and contracts, as well as the contract representatives, would be continued in the Bureau of Probation.

1 The Legislature passed P.L.2001, c.362 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.) to 2 establish a “Probation Officer Community Safety Unit” consisting 3 of at least 200 probation officers to carry a firearm in accordance 4 with the provisions of paragraph (17) of subsection c. of 5 N.J.S.2C:39-6 and regulations adopted by the Attorney General.
6 The legislation also granted these probation officers the authority to 7 arrest probationers, enforce the criminal laws of this State, and 8 enforce warrants for the apprehension and arrest of probationers
9 who violate conditions of probation.

10 In April 2006, the New Jersey Supreme Court ruled that 11 P.L.2001, c.362 (C.2B:10A-1 et al.) was unconstitutional because it
12 violated the separation of powers doctrine. The court stated that it 13 is the responsibility of the Judiciary to define the duties of 14 probation officers. The court also reiterated its position that 15 probation officers are not law enforcement officers, but impartial
16 agents of the Judiciary.
