36 STATEMENT
37

38 This bill provides that if a former member of any public
39 retirement system established under any State law, who has been 40 granted a retirement benefit becomes employed again in a position 41 with a public employer for which the compensation is more than 42 $15,000, the person will not be eligible to be a member of any 43 public retirement system and the person's retirement benefit will be 44 suspended until the person no longer is employed by a public

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.

1 employer in a position with compensation more than $15,000. The 2 reemployed person will retain the right to the death benefit based on 3 the suspended retirement benefit. The Director of the Division of 4 Pensions and Benefits may from time to time adjust the $15,000
5 compensation amount to reflect inflation.

6 Current law provides that if a retiree becomes employed again in 7 a position which makes the retiree eligible to be a member of the 8 same retirement system, the retiree will be reenrolled in the system
9 and cease to receive a retirement benefit. Exceptions to that general 10 rule exist for certain reemployment arrangements for retirees of the 11 Teachers' Pension and Annuity Fund and the Public Employees'
12 Retirement System and for certain elected officials. If a retiree
13 becomes employed again in a position which makes the retiree
14 eligible to be a member of a public retirement system different from 15 the one providing a retirement benefit, the retiree does not enroll in 16 the other system and continues to receive a retirement benefit as 17 well as the salary for the public employment.

18 Under the bill, retirees of all public retirement systems who 19 become reemployed in public positions paying more than $15,000, 20 outside the current exceptions, will give up receipt of their current 21 retirement benefits, payment of which will resume upon cessation 22 of the reemployment.
