13 a. The internal affairs of a limited liability company; and 14 b. The liability of a member as member and a manager as 15 manager for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited 16 liability company.
17
- 18 7. Supplemental Principles of Law. Unless displaced by 19 particular provisions of this act, the principles of law and equity 20 supplement this act.
- 22 8. Name.
23 a. The name of a limited liability company shall contain the 24 words "limited liability company" or the abbreviation "L.L.C." or 25 "LLC". "Limited" may be abbreviated as "Ltd.", and "company"
26 may be abbreviated as "Co."
27 b. Unless authorized by subsection c. of this section, the name 28 of a limited liability company shall be distinguishable in the records 29 of the filing office from:
30 (1) the name of each person that is not an individual and that is 31 incorporated, organized, or authorized to transact business in this 32 State; and
33 (2) each name reserved under section 10 of this act.
34 c. Furthermore, the name of a limited liability company shall 35 not contain any word or phrase, or any abbreviation or derivative 36 thereof, the use of which is prohibited or restricted by any other 37 statute of this State, unless the limited liability company has 38 complied with the restrictions.
39 d. A limited liability company may apply to the filing office for 40 authorization to use a name that does not comply with subsection b.
41 of this section. The filing office shall authorize use of the name 42 applied for if, as to each noncomplying name:
43 (1) the present user, registrant, or owner of the noncomplying 44 name consents in a signed record to the use and submits an 45 undertaking in a form satisfactory to the filing office to change the 46 noncomplying name to a name that complies with subsection b. of 1 this section and is distinguishable in the records of the filing office 2 from the name applied for; or

3 (2) the applicant delivers to the filing office a certified copy of 4 the final judgment of a court establishing the applicant's right to use 5 in this State the name applied for.

6 e. Subject to section 61, the provisions of this act shall apply to 7 a foreign limited liability company transacting business in this State 8 which has a certificate of authority to transact business in this State 9 or which has applied for a certificate of authority.

11 9. Use of Name Other Than Actual Limited Liability Company
12 Name.

13 a. A domestic limited liability company or foreign limited 14 liability company which conducts activities in this State shall not 15 conduct any of those activities using an alternate name, including 16 an abbreviation of its name or an acronym, unless:

17 (1) it also uses its actual name in the transaction of any of its 18 activities in a manner that is not deceptive as to its actual identity;

19 or

20 (2) it has first registered the alternate name as provided in 21 subsection b. of this section.

22 b. Any limited liability company may adopt and use any 23 alternate name, including a name which would be unavailable as the 24 name of a domestic or foreign limited liability company because of 25 the prohibitions of subsection a. or b. of section 8 of this act, but 26 not including any name not permitted as a limited liability company 27 name by subsection c. of section 8 of this act, by filing an original 28 and a copy of a certificate of registration of alternate name with the 29 filing office executed on behalf of the limited liability company.
30 The certificate shall set forth:

31 (1) The name, jurisdiction and date of formation of the limited 32 liability company;

33 (2) The alternate name;

34 (3) A brief statement of the character or nature of the particular 35 activities to be conducted using the alternate name;

36 (4) That the limited liability company intends to use the 37 alternate name in this State;

38 (5) That the limited liability company has not previously used 39 the alternate name in this State in violation of this section or, if it 40 has, the month and year in which it commenced the use.

41 c. The registration shall be effective for five years from the 42 date of filing and may be renewed successively for additional five-43 year periods by filing an original and a copy of the certificate of 44 renewal executed on behalf of the limited liability company any 45 time within 90 days prior to, but not later than, the date of 46 expiration of the registration. The certificate of renewal shall set 47 forth the information required in paragraphs (1) through (4) of 1 subsection b. of this section, the date of the certificate of 2 registration then in effect and that the limited liability company is 3 continuing to use the alternate name.

4 d. This section shall not:

5 (1) Grant to the registrant of an alternate name any right in the 6 name as against any prior or subsequent use of the name, regardless 7 of whether used as a trademark, trade name, business name or 8 corporate name; or

9 (2) Interfere with the power of any court to enjoin the use of the 10 name on the basis of the law of unfair competition or on any other 11 basis except the identity or similarity of the alternate name to any 12 corporate, limited partnership or limited liability company name.

13 e. A limited liability company which has used an alternate 14 name in this State contrary to the provisions of this section shall, 15 upon filing a certificate of registration of alternate name or an 16 untimely certificate of renewal, pay to the filing office the filing fee 17 prescribed for the certificate plus an additional filing fee equal to 18 the full amount of the regular filing fee multiplied by the number of 19 years it has been using the alternate name in violation of this 20 section. For the purpose of this subsection, any part of a year shall 21 be considered a full year.

22 f. The failure of a limited liability company to file a certificate 23 of registration or renewal of alternate name shall not impair the 24 validity of any contract or act of the limited liability company and 25 shall not prevent the limited liability company from defending any 26 action or proceedings in any court of this State, but the limited 27 liability company shall not maintain any action or proceeding in any 28 court of this State arising out of a contract or act in which it used 29 the alternate name until it has filed the applicable certificate.

30 g. (1) A limited liability company which files a certificate of 31 registration of alternate name which contains a false statement or 32 omission regarding the date it first used an alternate name in this 33 State shall, if the false statement or omission reduces the amount of 34 the additional fee it paid or should have paid as provided in 35 subsection e. of this section, forfeit to the State a penalty of not less 36 than $200 nor more than $500.

37 (2) A limited liability company which should have filed a 38 certificate of registration or renewal of alternate name and fails to 39 do so within 60 days after being notified of its obligation to do so 40 by the filing office, by any other governmental officer, or by any 41 person aggrieved by its failure to do so, shall forfeit to the State a 42 penalty of not less than $200 nor more than $500.

43 (3) A penalty imposed under this section shall be recovered with 44 costs in an action brought by the Attorney General. The court may 45 proceed on the action in a summary manner.

47 10. Reservation of Name.

1 a. A person may reserve the exclusive use of the name of a 2 limited liability company, including a fictitious or assumed name 3 for a foreign limited liability company whose name is not available, 4 by delivering an application to the filing office for filing. The 5 application must state the name and address of the applicant and the 6 name proposed to be reserved. If the filing office finds that the 7 name applied for is available, it must be reserved for the applicant's 8 exclusive use for a 120-day period.

9 b. The owner of a name reserved for a limited liability 10 company may transfer the reservation to another person by 11 delivering to the filing office for filing a signed notice of the 12 transfer which states the name and address of the transferee.

14 11. Operating Agreement; Scope, Function, and Limitations.

15 a. Except as provided in subsections b. and c. of this section, 16 the operating agreement governs:

17 (1) relations among the members as members and between the 18 members and the limited liability company;

19 (2) the rights and duties under this act of a person in the 20 capacity of manager;

21 (3) the activities of the company and the conduct of those 22 activities; and

23 (4) the means and conditions for amending the operating 24 agreement.

25 b. To the extent the operating agreement does not otherwise 26 provide for a matter described in subsection a. of this section, this 27 act governs the matter.

28 c. An operating agreement may not:

29 (1) vary a limited liability company's capacity under section 5 30 of this act to sue and be sued in its own name;

31 (2) vary the law applicable under section 6 of this act;

32 (3) vary the power of the court under section 21 of this act;

33 (4) subject to subsections d. through g. of this section, eliminate 34 the duty of loyalty, the duty of care, or any other fiduciary duty;

35 (5) subject to subsections d. through g. of this section, eliminate 36 the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 37 subsection d. of section 39 of this act;

38 (6) unreasonably restrict the duties and rights stated in section 39 40 of this act;

40 (7) vary the power of a court to decree dissolution in the 41 circumstances specified in paragraphs (4) and (5) of subsection a. of 42 section 48 of this act;

43 (8) vary the requirement to wind up a limited liability 44 company's business as specified in subsection a. and paragraph (1) 45 of subsection b. of section 49 of this act;

46 (9) unreasonably restrict the right of a member to maintain an 47 action under Article 9 (sections 67 through 72 of this act);

1 (10) restrict the right to approve a merger, conversion, or 2 domestication under section 86 of this act to a member that will 3 have personal liability with respect to a surviving, converted, or 4 domesticated organization; or

5 (11) except as otherwise provided in subsection b. of section 13 6 of this act, restrict the rights under this act of a person other than a 7 member or manager.

8 d. If not manifestly unreasonable, the operating agreement 9 may:

10 (1) restrict or eliminate the duty:

11 (a) as required in paragraph (1) of subsection b. and subsection 12 g. of section 39 of this act, to account to the limited liability 13 company and to hold as trustee for it any property, profit, or benefit 14 derived by the member in the conduct or winding up of the 15 company's business, from a use by the member of the company's 16 property, or from the appropriation of a limited liability company 17 opportunity;

18 (b) as required in paragraph (2) of subsection b. and subsection 19 g. of section 39 of this act, to refrain from dealing with the 20 company in the conduct or winding up of the company's business as 21 or on behalf of a party having an interest adverse to the company; 22 and

23 (c) as required by paragraph (3) of subsection b. and subsection 24 g. of section 39 of this act, to refrain from competing with the 25 company in the conduct of the company's business before the 26 dissolution of the company;

27 (2) identify specific types or categories of activities that do not 28 violate the duty of loyalty;

29 (3) alter the duty of care, except to authorize intentional 30 misconduct or knowing violation of law;

31 (4) alter any other fiduciary duty, including eliminating 32 particular aspects of that duty; and

33 (5) prescribe the standards by which to measure the performance 34 of the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing under 35 subsection d. and subsection g. of section 39 of this act.

36 e. The operating agreement may specify the method by which a 37 specific act or transaction that would otherwise violate the duty of 38 loyalty may be authorized or ratified by one or more disinterested 39 and independent persons after full disclosure of all material facts.

40 f. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed 41 limited liability company expressly relieves a member of a 42 responsibility that the member would otherwise have under this act 43 and imposes the responsibility on one or more other members, the 44 operating agreement may, to the benefit of the member that the 45 operating agreement relieves of the responsibility, also eliminate or 46 limit any fiduciary duty that would have pertained to the 47 responsibility.

1 g. The operating agreement may alter or eliminate the 2 indemnification for a member or manager provided by section 38 of 3 this act and may eliminate or limit a member or manager's liability 4 to the limited liability company and members for money damages, 5 except for:

6 (1) breach of the duty of loyalty;

7 (2) a financial benefit received by the member or manager to 8 which the member or manager is not entitled;

9 (3) a breach of a duty under section 36 of this act;

10 (4) intentional infliction of harm on the company or a member;

11 or

12 (5) an intentional violation of criminal law.

13 h. The court shall decide any claim under paragraph (1) of 14 subsection d. of this section that a term of an operating agreement is 15 manifestly unreasonable. The court:

16 (1) shall make its determination as of the time the challenged 17 term became part of the operating agreement and by considering 18 only circumstances existing at that time; and 19 (2) may invalidate the term only if, in light of the purposes and 20 activities of the limited liability company, it is readily apparent that:

21 (a) the objective of the term is unreasonable; or

22 (b) the term is an unreasonable means to achieve the provision's 23 objective.

24 i. This act is to be liberally construed to give the maximum 25 effect to the principle of freedom of contract and to the 26 enforceability of operating agreements.

27

28 12. Operating Agreement; Effect on Limited Liability Company 29 and Persons Becoming Members; Preformation Agreement.

30 a. A limited liability company is bound by and may enforce the 31 operating agreement, whether or not the company has itself 32 manifested assent to the operating agreement.

33 b. A person that becomes a member of a limited liability 34 company is deemed to assent to the operating agreement.

35 c. Two or more persons intending to become the initial 36 members of a limited liability company may make an agreement 37 providing that upon the formation of the company the agreement 38 will become the operating agreement. One person intending to 39 become the initial member of a limited liability company may 40 assent to terms providing that upon the formation of the company 41 the terms will become the operating agreement.

43 13. Operating Agreement; Effect on Third Parties and 44 Relationship to Records Effective on Behalf of Limited Liability
45 Company.

46 a. An operating agreement may specify that its amendment 47 requires the approval of a person that is not a party to the operating

1 agreement or the satisfaction of a condition. An amendment is 2 ineffective if its adoption does not include the required approval or 3 satisfy the specified condition.

4 b. The obligations of a limited liability company and its 5 members to a person in the person's capacity as a transferee or 6 dissociated member are governed by the operating agreement.
7 Subject only to any court order issued under paragraph (2) of 8 subsection b. '[and subsection g.]' of section 43 of this act to 9 effectuate a charging order, an amendment to the operating 10 agreement made after a person becomes a transferee or dissociated 11 member is effective with regard to any debt, obligation, or other 12 liability of the limited liability company or its members to the 13 person in the person's capacity as a transferee or dissociated 14 member.

15 c. If a record that has been delivered by a limited liability 16 company to the filing office for filing and has become effective 17 under this act contains a provision that would be ineffective under 18 subsection c. of section 11 of this act, if contained in the operating 19 agreement, the provision is likewise ineffective in the record.

20 d. Subject to subsection c. of this section, if a record that has 21 been delivered by a limited liability company to the filing office for 22 filing and has become effective under this act conflicts with a 23 provision of the operating agreement:

24 (1) the operating agreement prevails as to members, dissociated 25 members, transferees, and managers; and 26 (2) the record prevails as to other persons to the extent they 27 reasonably rely on the record.

28

29 14. Office and Agent for Service of Process.

30 a. A limited liability company shall designate and continuously 31 maintain in this State:

32 (1) an office, which need not be a place of its activity in this 33 State; and

34 (2) an agent for service of process.

35 b. A foreign limited liability company that has a certificate of 36 authority under section 58 of this act shall designate and 37 continuously maintain in this State an office and an agent for 38 service of process.

39 c. An agent for service of process of a limited liability 40 company or foreign limited liability company shall be an individual 41 who is a resident of this State or other person with authority to 42 transact business in this State.

44 15. Change of Designated Office or Agent For Service of 45 Process.

46 a. A limited liability company or foreign limited liability 47 company may change its registered office, its agent for service of 1 process, or the address of its agent for service of process by 2 delivering to the filing office for filing a statement of change 3 containing:

- 4 (1) the name of the company;
5 (2) the street and mailing addresses of its current registered 6 office;
7 (3) if the current registered office is to be changed, the street 8 and mailing addresses of the new registered office;

10 agent for service of process; and 11 (5) if the current agent for service of process or an address of 12 the agent is to be changed, the new information.

13 b. 'A registered agent may, with prior notice to the limited 14 liability company for which it is the registered agent, change the 15 address of the registered office of any domestic or foreign limited 16 liability company for which the registered agent is registered agent 17 to another address in this State by filing in the filing office a 18 statement of change, executed by the registered agent, setting forth 19 the names of each limited liability company, and the address at 20 which the registered agent has maintained the registered office for 21 each limited liability company, and further certifying to the new 22 address to which the registered office will be changed on a given 23 day, and at which new address the registered agent will thereafter 24 maintain the registered office for each limited liability company 25 recited in the statement of change. Upon the filing of such statement 26 of change, the filing office shall furnish to the registered agent a 27 filed copy of the same together with a receipt for the fees, and 28 thereafter, or until further change of address, as authorized by law, 29 the registered office in this State of each limited liability company 30 recited in the statement of change shall be located at the new 31 address of the registered agent thereof as given in such statement of 32 change.

33 c. In the event of a change of name of any person acting as a 34 registered agent of a limited liability company, the registered agent 35 shall file in the filing office a statement of change, executed by the 36 registered agent, setting forth the new name of the registered agent, 37 the name of the registered agent before it was changed, the name of 38 each limited liability company represented by the registered agent, 39 and the address at which the registered agent has maintained the 40 registered office for each limited liability company. Upon the filing 41 of the statement of change, the filing office shall furnish to the 42 registered agent a filed copy of the same together with a receipt for 43 the fees.

44 d. Filing a statement of change under this section shall be 45 deemed to be an amendment of the certificate of formation or the 46 certificate of authority of each limited liability company affected 47 thereby and no limited liability company shall be required to take

1 any further action with respect thereto, to amend its certificate of 2 formation or certificate of authority under this act.

3 e.¹ Subject to subsection c. of section 22 of this act, a statement 4 of change is effective when filed by the filing office.

5
6 16. Resignation of Agent for Service of Process.

7 a. To resign as an agent for service of process of a limited 8 liability company or foreign limited liability company, the agent 9 shall deliver to the filing office for filing a statement of resignation 10 containing the company name and stating that the agent is 11 resigning.

12 b. The filing office shall file a statement of resignation 13 delivered under subsection a. of this section and mail or otherwise 14 provide or deliver a copy to the registered office of the company or 15 the principal office of the company if the mailing address of the 16 principal office appears in the records of the filing office and is 17 different from the mailing address of the registered office.

18 c. An agency for service of process terminates on the earlier of:

19 (1) the 31st day after the filing office files the statement of 20 resignation;

21 (2) when a record designating a new agent for service of process 22 is delivered to the filing office for filing on behalf of the limited 23 liability company and becomes effective.

25 17. Service of Process.

26 a. An agent for service of process appointed by a limited 27 liability company or foreign limited liability company is an agent of 28 the company for service of any process, notice, or demand required 29 or permitted by law to be served on the company.

30 b. If a limited liability company or foreign limited liability 31 company does not appoint or maintain an agent for service of 32 process in this State or the agent for service of process cannot with 33 reasonable diligence be found at the agent's street address, the 34 filing office is an agent of the company upon whom process, notice, 35 or demand may be served.

36 c. Service of any process, notice, or demand on the filing office 37 as agent for a limited liability company or foreign limited liability 38 company may be made by delivering to the filing office duplicate 39 copies of the process, notice, or demand. If a process, notice, or 40 demand is served on the filing office, the filing office shall forward 41 one of the copies by mail or otherwise provide or deliver a copy to 42 the registered office of the company or the principal office of the 43 company if the mailing address of the principal office appears in the 44 records of the filing office and is different from the mailing address 45 of the registered office.

46 d. Service is effected under subsection c. of this section at the 47 earliest of:

- 1 (1) the date the limited liability company or foreign limited 2 liability company receives the process, notice, or demand; 3 (2) the date shown on the return receipt, if signed on behalf of 4 the company; or 5 (3) five days after the process, notice, or demand is deposited 6 with the United States Postal Service, if correctly addressed and 7 with sufficient postage.
8 e. The filing office shall keep a record of each process, notice, 9 and demand served pursuant to this section and record the date of, 10 and the action taken regarding, the service.
11 f. This section does not affect the right to serve process, 12 notice, or demand in any other manner provided by law.

14 ARTICLE 2
15 FORMATION; CERTIFICATE OF FORMATION AND OTHER
16 FILINGS

- 17 18. Formation of Limited Liability Company; Certificate of 18 Formation.
19 a. One or more persons may act as organizers to form a limited 20 liability company by signing and delivering to the filing office for 21 filing a certificate of formation.
22 b. A certificate of formation shall state:
23 (1) the name of the limited liability company, which complies 24 with section 8 of this act; and 25 (2) the street and mailing addresses of the initial registered 26 office and the name of the initial agent at that office for service of 27 process of the company.
28 c. Subject to subsection c. of section 12 of this act, a certificate 29 of formation may also contain statements as to matters other than 30 those required by subsection b. of this section. However, a 31 statement in a certificate of formation is not effective as a statement 32 of authority.
33 d. A limited liability company is formed when the filing office 34 has filed the certificate of formation and the company has at least 35 one member, unless the certificate states a delayed effective date 36 pursuant to subsection c. of section 22 of this act.
37 e. If the certificate states a delayed effective date, a limited 38 liability company is not formed if, before the certificate takes 39 effect, a certificate of dissolution is signed and delivered to the 40 filing office for filing and the filing office files the certificate.
41 f. Subject to any delayed effective date and except in a 42 proceeding by this State to dissolve a limited liability company, the 43 filing of the certificate of formation by the filing office is 44 conclusive proof that the organizer satisfied all conditions to the 45 formation of a limited liability company.
46
47 19. Amendment or Restatement of Certificate of Formation.

- 1 a. A certificate of formation may be amended or restated at any 2 time.
- 3 b. To amend its certificate of formation, a limited liability 4 company shall deliver to the filing office for filing an amendment 5 stating:
- 6 (1) the name of the company;
7 (2) the date of filing of its certificate of formation;
8 (3) such other information as may be required by the filing 9 office to correctly identify the company; and 10 (4) the changes the amendment makes to the certificate as most 11 recently amended or restated.
- 12 c. To restate its certificate of formation, a limited liability 13 company shall deliver to the filing office for filing a restated 14 certificate of formation, designated as such in its heading, stating:
- 15 (1) in the heading or an introductory paragraph, the company's 16 present name, the date of the filing of the company's initial 17 certificate of formation and such other information as may be 18 required by the filing office to correctly identify the company; 19 (2) if the company's name has been changed at any time since 20 the company's formation, each of the company's former names; and 21 (3) the changes the restated certificate of formation makes to the 22 certificate of formation as most recently amended or restated.
- 23 d. Subject to subsection c. of section 12 and subsection c. of 24 section 22 of this act, an amendment to or a restated certificate of 25 formation is effective when filed by the filing office.
- 26 e. If a member of a member-managed limited liability 27 company, or a manager of a manager-managed limited liability 28 company, knows that any information in a filed certificate of 29 formation was inaccurate when the certificate was filed or has 30 become inaccurate owing to changed circumstances, the member or 31 manager shall promptly:
- 32 (1) cause the certificate to be amended; or 33 (2) if appropriate, deliver to the filing office for filing a 34 statement of change under section 15 or a certificate of correction 35 under section 23 of this act.
- 36
- 37 20. Signing of Records to be Delivered for Filing to Filing 38 Office.
- 39 a. A record delivered to the filing office for filing pursuant to 40 this act shall be signed as follows:
- 41 (1) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) of 42 this subsection, a record signed on behalf of a limited liability 43 company shall be signed by a person authorized by the company.
44 (2) A limited liability company's initial certificate of formation 45 shall be signed by at least one person acting as an organizer.
46 (3) A record filed on behalf of a dissolved limited liability 47 company that has no members shall be signed by the person

1 winding up the company's activities under subsection c. of section 2 49 of this act or a person appointed under subsection d. of section 3 49 of this act to wind up those activities.

4 (4) A certificate of dissolution under subsection e. of section 18 5 of this act shall be signed by each organizer that signed the initial 6 certificate of formation, but a personal representative of a deceased 7 or incompetent organizer may sign in place of the decedent or 8 incompetent.

9 (5) A statement of denial by a person under section 29 of this 10 act shall be signed by that person.

11 (6) Any other record shall be signed by the person on whose 12 behalf the record is delivered to the filing office.

13 b. Any record filed under this act may be signed by an agent, 14 including an attorney in fact.

16 21. Signing and Filing Pursuant to Judicial Order.

17 a. If a person required by this act to sign a record or deliver a 18 record to the filing office for filing does not do so, any other person 19 that is aggrieved may petition the Superior Court to order:

20 (1) the person to sign the record;

21 (2) the person to deliver the record to the filing office for filing;

22 or

23 (3) the filing office to file the record unsigned.

24 b. If a petitioner under subsection a. of this section is not the 25 limited liability company or foreign limited liability company to 26 which the record pertains, the petitioner shall make the company a 27 party to the action.

28

29 22. Delivery to and Filing of Records by Filing Office; Effective 30 Time and Date.

31 a. A record authorized or required to be delivered to the filing 32 office for filing under this act shall be captioned to describe the 33 record's purpose, be in a medium permitted by the filing office, and 34 be delivered to the filing office. If the filing fees have been paid, 35 unless the filing office determines that a record does not comply 36 with the filing requirements of this act, the filing office shall file the 37 record and:

38 (1) for a statement of denial under section 29 of this act, send an 39 acknowledgement confirming the filing and a receipt for the fees to 40 the person who submitted the record; and 41 (2) for all other records, send an acknowledgement confirming 42 the filing and a receipt for the fees to the person who submitted the 43 record.

44 b. Upon request and payment of the requisite fee, the filing 45 office shall send to the requester a certified copy of a requested 46 record.

1 c. Except as otherwise provided in sections 15 and 23 of this 2 act, a record delivered to the filing office for filing under this act 3 may specify a delayed effective date. Subject to section 15, 4 subsection d. of section 18 and section 23 of this act, a record filed 5 by the filing office is effective:

6 (1) if the record does not specify a delayed effective date, on 7 the date the record is filed as evidenced by the filing office's 8 endorsement of the date on the record; and 9 (2) if the record specifies a delayed effective date after the date 10 the record is filed as evidenced by the filing office's endorsement of 11 the date on the record, on the delayed effective date.

13 23. Correcting Filed Record.

14 a. A limited liability company or foreign limited liability 15 company may deliver to the filing office for filing a certificate of 16 correction to correct a record previously delivered by the company 17 to the filing office and filed by the filing office, if at the time of 18 filing the record contained inaccurate information or was 19 defectively signed.

20 b. A certificate of correction under subsection a. of this section 21 may not state a delayed effective date and shall:

22 (1) describe the record to be corrected, including its filing date, 23 or attach a copy of the record as filed;

24 (2) specify the inaccurate information and the reason it is 25 inaccurate or the manner in which the signing was defective; and 26 (3) correct the defective signature or inaccurate information.

27 c. When filed by the filing office, a certificate of correction 28 under subsection a. of this section is effective retroactively as of the 29 effective date of the record the certificate corrects, but the 30 certificate is effective when filed:

31 (1) for the purposes of subsection d. of section 3 of this act; and

32 (2) as to persons that previously relied on the uncorrected record 33 and would be adversely affected by the retroactive effect.

35 24. Liability for Inaccurate Information in Filed Record.

36 a. If a record delivered to the filing office for filing under this 37 act and filed by the filing office contains inaccurate information, a 38 person that suffers a loss by reliance on the information may 39 recover damages for the loss from:

40 (1) a person that signed the record, or caused another to sign it 41 on the person's behalf, and knew the information to be inaccurate at 42 the time the record was signed; and

43 (2) subject to subsection b. of this section, a member of a 44 member-managed limited liability company or the manager of a 45 manager-managed limited liability company, if:

46 (a) the record was delivered for filing on behalf of the company; 47 and

1 (b) the member or manager had notice of the inaccuracy for a 2 reasonably sufficient time before the information was relied upon so 3 that, before the reliance, the member or manager reasonably could 4 have:

5 (i) effected an amendment under section 19 of this act;

6 (ii) filed a petition under section 21 of this act; or

7 (iii) delivered to the filing office for filing a certificate of change 8 under section 15 or a certificate of correction under section 23 of 9 this act.

10 b. To the extent that the operating agreement of a member-11 managed limited liability company expressly relieves a member of 12 responsibility for maintaining the accuracy of information contained 13 in records delivered on behalf of the company to the filing office for 14 filing under this act and imposes that responsibility on one or more 15 other members, the liability stated in paragraph (2) of subsection a.
16 of this section applies to those other members and not to the 17 member that the operating agreement relieves of the responsibility.

18 c. An individual who signs a record authorized or required to 19 be filed under this act affirms under penalty of perjury that the 20 information stated in the record is accurate.

22 25. Certificate of Standing.

23 a. The filing office, upon request and payment of the requisite 24 fee, shall furnish to any person a certificate of standing for a limited 25 liability company if the records filed in the filing office show that 26 the company has been formed under section 18 of this act. A 27 certificate of standing shall state:

28 (1) the company's name;

29 (2) that the company was duly formed under the laws of this 30 State and the date of formation;

31 (3) whether all fees and penalties due under this act or other law 32 to the filing office have been paid;

33 (4) whether the company's most recent annual report required
34 by section 26 of this act has been filed in the filing office;

35 (5) whether the filing office has administratively revoked the 36 company; and

37 (6) whether the filing office has filed a certificate of dissolution.

38 b. The filing office, upon request and payment of the requisite 39 fee, shall furnish to any person a certificate of standing for a foreign 40 limited liability company if the records filed in the office of the 41 filing office show that the filing office has filed a certificate of 42 authority, has not revoked the certificate of authority, and has not 43 filed a notice of cancellation. A certificate of standing shall state:

44 (1) the company's name and any alternate name adopted under 45 subsection a. of section 61 of this act for use in this State;

46 (2) that the company is authorized to transact business in this 47 State;

1 (3) whether all fees and penalties due to the filing office under 2 this act or other law have been paid;

3 (4) whether the company's most recent annual report required
4 by section 26 of this act has been filed in the filing office;

5 (5) that the filing office has not revoked the company's 6 certificate of authority and has not filed a certificate of cancellation; 7 and

8 (6) other facts of record in the office of the filing office which 9 are specified by the person requesting the certificate.

10 c. Subject to any qualification stated in the certificate, a 11 certificate of standing issued by the filing office is conclusive 12 evidence that the limited liability company is in existence or the 13 foreign limited liability company is authorized to transact business 14 in this State.

16 26. Annual Report for Filing Office.

17 a. Each domestic and foreign limited liability company shall 18 file an annual report with the filing office, setting forth:

19 (1) the name and address of the limited liability company;

20 (2) the name and address of the registered agent of the limited 21 liability company; and 22 (3) the name and addresses of the managing members or 23 managers, as the case may be.

24 b. If no annual report is filed as required by this section for two 25 consecutive years:

26 (1) the certificate of a domestic limited liability company shall 27 be transferred to an inactive list maintained by the filing office. A 28 limited liability company on the inactive list shall remain a limited 29 liability company and the limited liability of its members and 30 managers shall not be affected by its transfer to this list. The name 31 of a limited liability company on the inactive list shall, subject to 32 any other rights that limited liability company may have to its 33 name, be available for use by any other limited liability company, 34 including a newly-formed limited liability company.

35 (2) the certificate of a foreign limited liability company may be 36 revoked by the filing office.

37 (3) if the certificate of a domestic limited liability company has 38 been transferred to the inactive list or if the certificate of a foreign 39 limited liability company has been revoked, the certificate shall be 40 reinstated by proclamation of the filing office upon payment of all 41 fees due to the filing office, consisting of a reinstatement filing fee, 42 current annual report fee, all delinquent annual report fees, and a 43 late filing fee. The reinstatement relates back to the date of transfer 44 of the certificate of a domestic limited liability company to the 45 inactive list or to the date of revocation of the certificate of a 46 foreign limited liability company, as the case may be, and shall 47 validate all actions taken in the interim. In the event that in the 1 interim the name of the limited liability company has become 2 unavailable, the filing office shall reinstate the certificate upon, in 3 the case of a domestic limited liability company, the filing of an 4 amendment to its certificate of formation to change the name to an 5 available name, and in the case of a foreign limited liability 6 company, the filing of an amended certificate of authority changing 7 the name to an available name. The filing office shall provide the 8 forms necessary to effect annual report reinstatements.

10 ARTICLE 3

11 RELATIONS OF MEMBERS AND MANAGERS TO PERSONS
12 DEALING WITH LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

13 27. No Agency Power or Member as Member.

14 a. A member is not an agent of a limited liability company 15 solely by reason of being a member.

16 b. A person's status as a member does not prevent or restrict 17 law other than this act from imposing liability on a limited liability 18 company because of the person's conduct.

20 28. Statement of Authority.

21 a. A limited liability company may deliver to the filing office 22 for filing a statement of authority. The statement:

23 (1) shall include the name of the company, the street and 24 mailing addresses of its registered office and such other information 25 as may be required by the filing office to correctly identify the 26 company;

27 (2) with respect to any position that exists in or with respect to 28 the company, may state the authority, or limitations on the 29 authority, of all persons holding the position to:

30 (a) execute an instrument transferring real property held in the 31 name of the company; or

32 (b) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act 33 for or bind, the company; and

34 (3) may state the authority, or limitations on the authority, of a 35 specific person to:

36 (a) execute an instrument transferring real property held in the 37 name of the company; or

38 (b) enter into other transactions on behalf of, or otherwise act 39 for or bind, the company.

40 b. To amend or cancel a statement of authority filed with the 41 filing office under subsection a. of section 22 of this act, a limited 42 liability company shall deliver to the filing office for filing an 43 amendment or cancellation stating:

44 (1) the name of the company;

45 (2) the street and mailing addresses of the company's registered 46 office;

- 1 (3) such other information as may be required by the filing
2 office to correctly identify the company;
- 3 (4) the caption of the statement being amended or canceled and 4 the date the statement being affected became effective; and
- 5 (5) the contents of the amendment or a declaration that the 6 statement being affected is canceled.
- 7 c. A statement of authority affects only the power of a person 8 to bind a limited liability company to persons that are not members.
- 9 d. Subject to subsection c. of this section and subsection d. of 10 section 3 of this act, and except as otherwise provided in 11 subsections f., g. and h. of this section, a limitation on the authority 12 of a person or a position contained in an effective statement of 13 authority is not by itself evidence of knowledge or notice of the 14 limitation by any person.
- 15 e. Subject to subsection c. of this section, a grant of authority 16 not pertaining to transfers of real property and contained in an 17 effective statement of authority is conclusive in favor of a person 18 that gives value in reliance on the grant, except to the extent that 19 when the person gives value:
- 20 (1) the person has knowledge to the contrary;
- 21 (2) the statement has been canceled or restrictively amended 22 under subsection b. of this section; or
- 23 (3) a limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of 24 authority that became effective after the statement containing the 25 grant became effective.
- 26 f. Subject to subsection c. of this section, an effective 27 statement of authority that grants authority to transfer real property 28 held in the name of the limited liability company and that is 29 recorded by certified copy in the office for recording transfers of 30 the real property is conclusive in favor of a person that gives value 31 in reliance on the grant without knowledge to the contrary, except 32 to the extent that when the person gives value:
- 33 (1) the statement has been canceled or restrictively amended 34 under subsection b. of this section and a certified copy of the 35 cancellation or restrictive amendment has been recorded in the 36 office for recording transfers of the real property; or
- 37 (2) a limitation on the grant is contained in another statement of 38 authority that became effective after the statement containing the 39 grant became effective and a certified copy of the later-effective 40 statement is recorded in the office for recording transfers of the real 41 property.
- 42 g. Subject to subsection c. of this section, if a certified copy of 43 an effective statement containing a limitation on the authority to 44 transfer real property held in the name of a limited liability 45 company is recorded in the office for recording transfers of that real 46 property, all persons are deemed to know of the limitation.

1 h. Subject to subsection i. of this section, an effective 2 certificate of dissolution is a cancellation of any filed statement of 3 authority for the purposes of subsection f. of this section and is a 4 limitation on authority for the purposes of subsection g. of this 5 section.

6 i. After a certificate of dissolution becomes effective, a limited 7 liability company may deliver to the filing office for filing and, if 8 appropriate, may record a statement of authority that is designated 9 as a post-dissolution statement of authority. The statement operates 10 as provided in subsections f. and g. of this section.

11 j. An effective statement of denial operates as a restrictive 12 amendment under this section and may be recorded by certified 13 copy for the purposes of paragraph (1) of subsection f. of this 14 section.

16 29. Statement of Denial. A person named in a filed statement of 17 authority granting that person authority may deliver to the filing 18 office for filing a statement of denial that:

19 a. Provides the name of the limited liability company and such 20 other information as may be required by the filing office to 21 correctly identify the company and the caption of the statement of 22 authority to which the statement of denial pertains; and 23 b. Denies the grant of authority.

25 30. Liability of Members and Managers.

26 a. The debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a limited 27 liability company, whether arising in contract, tort, or otherwise:

28 (1) are solely the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the 29 company; and

30 (2) do not become the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of a 31 member or manager solely by reason of the member acting as a 32 member or manager acting as a manager.

33 b. The failure of a limited liability company to observe any 34 particular formalities relating to the exercise of its powers or 35 management of its activities is not a ground for imposing liability 36 on the members or managers for the debts, obligations, or other 37 liabilities of the company.

39 ARTICLE 4

40 RELATIONS OF MEMBERS TO EACH OTHER AND TO 41 LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANY

42 31. Becoming a Member.

43 a. If a limited liability company is to have only one member 44 upon formation, the person becomes a member as agreed by that 45 person and the organizer of the company. That person and the 46 organizer may be, but need not be, different persons. If different, 47 the organizer acts on behalf of the initial member.

1 b. If a limited liability company is to have more than one
2 member upon formation, those persons become members as agreed
3 by the persons before the formation of the company. The organizer 4 acts on behalf of the persons in forming the company and may be, 5 but need not be, one of the persons.

6 c. After formation of a limited liability company, a person 7 becomes a member:

8 (1) as provided in the operating agreement;

9 (2) as the result of a transaction effective under Article 10
10 (sections 73 through 87 of this act);

11 (3) with the consent of all the members; or 12 (4) if, within 90 consecutive days after the company ceases to 13 have any members:

14 (a) the last person to have been a member, or the legal 15 representative of that person, designates a person to become a 16 member; and

17 (b) the designated person consents to become a member.

18 d. A person may become a member without acquiring a 19 transferable interest and without making or being obligated to make 20 a contribution to the limited liability company.

22 32. Form of Contribution. A contribution may consist of 23 tangible or intangible property or other benefit to a limited liability 24 company, including money, services performed, promissory notes, 25 other agreements to contribute money or property, and contracts for 26 services to be performed.

28 33. Liability for Contributions.

29 a. A person's obligation to make a contribution to a limited 30 liability company is not excused by the person's death, disability, or 31 other inability to perform personally. If a person does not make a 32 required contribution of property or services, the person or the 33 person's estate is obligated, at the option of the company, to 34 contribute money equal to the value of the part of the contribution 35 which has not been made.

36 b. A creditor of a limited liability company which extends 37 credit or otherwise acts in reliance on an obligation described in 38 subsection a. of this section may enforce the obligation.

40 34. Sharing of and Right to Distributions before Dissolution.

41 a. Any distributions made by a limited liability company before 42 its dissolution and winding up shall be in equal shares among 43 members and dissociated members, except to the extent necessary 44 to comply with any transfer effective under section 42 and any 45 charging order in effect under section 43 of this act.

46 b. A person has a right to a distribution before the dissolution 47 and winding up of a limited liability company only if the company

1 decides to make an interim distribution. A person's dissociation 2 does not entitle the person to a distribution.

3 c. A person does not have a right to demand or receive a 4 distribution from a limited liability company in any form other than 5 money. Except as otherwise provided in subsection c. of section 56 6 of this act, a limited liability company may distribute an asset in 7 kind if each part of the asset is fungible with each other part and 8 each person receives a percentage of the asset equal in value to the 9 person's share of distributions.

10 d. If a member or transferee becomes entitled to receive a 11 distribution, the member or transferee has the status of, and is 12 entitled to all remedies available to, a creditor of the limited 13 liability company with respect to the distribution.

15 35. Limitations on Distribution.

16 a. A limited liability company may not make a distribution if 17 after the distribution:

18 (1) the company would not be able to pay its debts as they 19 become due in the ordinary course of the company's activities; or 20 (2) the company's total assets would be less than the sum of its 21 total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed, if the 22 company were to be dissolved, wound up, and terminated at the 23 time of the distribution, to satisfy the preferential rights upon 24 dissolution, winding up, and termination of members whose 25 preferential rights are superior to those of persons receiving the 26 distribution.

27 b. A limited liability company may base a determination that a 28 distribution is not prohibited under subsection a. of this section on 29 financial statements prepared on the basis of accounting practices 30 and principles that are reasonable in the circumstances or on a fair 31 valuation or other method that is reasonable under the 32 circumstances.

33 c. Except as otherwise provided in subsection f. of this section, 34 the effect of a distribution under subsection a. of this section is 35 measured:

36 (1) in the case of a distribution by purchase, redemption, or 37 other acquisition of a transferable interest in the company, as of the 38 date money or other property is transferred or debt incurred by the 39 company; and

40 (2) in all other cases, as of the date:

41 (a) the distribution is authorized, if the payment occurs within 42 120 days after that date; or

43 (b) the payment is made, if the payment occurs more than 120 44 days after the distribution is authorized.

45 d. A limited liability company's indebtedness to a member 46 incurred by reason of a distribution made in accordance with this

1 section is at parity with the company's indebtedness to its general, 2 unsecured creditors.

3 e. A limited liability company's indebtedness, including 4 indebtedness issued in connection with or as part of a distribution, 5 is not a liability for purposes of subsection a. of this section if the 6 terms of the indebtedness provide that payment of principal and 7 interest are made only to the extent that a distribution could be 8 made to members under this section.

9 f. If indebtedness is issued as a distribution, each payment of 10 principal or interest on the indebtedness is treated as a distribution, 11 the effect of which is measured on the date the payment is made.

12 g. As used in this section, "distribution" does not include 13 amounts constituting reasonable compensation for present or past 14 services or reasonable payments made in the ordinary course of 15 business under a bona fide retirement plan or other benefits 16 program.

18 36. Liability for Improper Distributions.

19 a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection b. of this section, 20 if a member of a member-managed limited liability company or 21 manager of a manager-managed limited liability company consents 22 to a distribution made in violation of section 35 of this act and in 23 consenting to the distribution fails to comply with section 39 of this 24 act, the member or manager is personally liable to the company for 25 the amount of the distribution that exceeds the amount that could 26 have been distributed without the violation of section 35 of this act.

27 b. To the extent the operating agreement of a member-managed 28 limited liability company expressly relieves a member of the 29 authority and responsibility to consent to distributions and imposes 30 that authority and responsibility on one or more other members, the 31 liability stated in subsection a. of this section applies to the other 32 members and not the member that the operating agreement relieves 33 of authority and responsibility.

34 c. A person that receives a distribution knowing that the 35 distribution to that person was made in violation of section 35 of 36 this act is personally liable to the limited liability company but only 37 to the extent that the distribution received by the person exceeded 38 the amount that could have been properly paid under section 35 of 39 this act.

40 d. A person against which an action is commenced because the 41 person is liable under subsection a. of this section may:

42 (1) implead any other person that is subject to liability under 43 subsection a. of this section and seek to compel contribution from 44 the person; and

45 (2) implead any person that received a distribution in violation 46 of subsection c. of this section and seek to compel contribution

1 from the person in the amount the person received in violation of 2 subsection c. of this section.

3 e. An action under this section is barred if not commenced 4 within two years after the distribution.

5

6 37. Management of Limited Liability Company.

7 a. A limited liability company is a member-managed limited 8 liability company unless the operating agreement:

9 (1) expressly provides that:

10 (a) the company is or will be “manager-managed;”

11 (b) the company is or will be “managed by managers;” or 12 (c) management of the company is or will be “vested in 13 managers;” or

14 (2) includes words of similar import.

15 b. In a member-managed limited liability company, the 16 following rules apply:

17 (1) The management and conduct of the company are vested in 18 the members.

19 (2) Each member has equal rights in the management and 20 conduct of the company’s activities.

21 (3) A difference arising among members as to a matter in the 22 ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by 23 a majority of the members.

24 (4) An act outside the ordinary course of the activities of the 25 company may be undertaken only with the consent of all members.

26 (5) The operating agreement may be amended only with the 27 consent of all members.

28 c. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the 29 following rules apply:

30 (1) Except as otherwise expressly provided in this act, any 31 matter relating to the activities of the company is decided 32 exclusively by the managers.

33 (2) Each manager has equal rights in the management and 34 conduct of the activities of the company.

35 (3) A difference arising among managers as to a matter in the 36 ordinary course of the activities of the company may be decided by 37 a majority of the managers.

38 (4) The consent of all members is required to:

39 (a) sell, lease, exchange, or otherwise dispose of all, or 40 substantially all, of the company’s property, with or without the 41 good will, outside the ordinary course of the company’s activities;

42 (b) approve a merger, conversion, or domestication under 43 Article 10 (section 73 through 87 of this act);

44 (c) undertake any other act outside the ordinary course of the 45 company’s activities; and 46 (d) amend the operating agreement.

1 (5) A manager may be chosen at any time by the consent of a 2 majority of the members and remains a manager until a successor 3 has been chosen, unless the manager at an earlier time resigns, is 4 removed, or dies, or, in the case of a manager that is not an 5 individual, terminates. A manager may be removed at any time by 6 the consent of a majority of the members without notice or cause.

7 (6) A person need not be a member to be a manager, but the 8 dissociation of a member that is also a manager removes the person 9 as a manager. If a person that is both a manager and a member
10 ceases to be a manager, that cessation does not by itself dissociate 11 the person as a member.

12 (7) A person's ceasing to be a manager does not discharge any 13 debt, obligation, or other liability to the limited liability company or 14 members which the person incurred while a manager.

15 d. An action requiring the consent of members under this act 16 may be taken without a meeting, and a member may appoint a 17 proxy or other agent to consent or otherwise act for the member by 18 signing an appointing record, personally or by the member's agent.

19 e. The dissolution of a limited liability company does not affect 20 the applicability of this section. However, a person that wrongfully 21 causes dissolution of the company loses the right to participate in 22 management as a member and a manager.

23 f. This act does not entitle a member to remuneration for 24 services performed for a member-managed limited liability 25 company, except for reasonable compensation for services rendered 26 in winding up the activities of the company.

28 38. Indemnification and Insurance.

29 a. As used in this section:

30 (1) "Company agent" means any person who is or was a 31 member of a member-managed company, a manager of a manager-32 managed company, an officer, employee or agent of the 33 indemnifying company or of any constituent company absorbed by 34 the indemnifying company in a consolidation or merger and any 35 person who is or was a member, manager, officer, director, trustee, 36 employee or agent of any other enterprise, serving as such at the 37 request of the indemnifying company, or any such constituent 38 company, or the legal representatives of any such member, 39 manager, officer, director, trustee, employee or agent.

40 (2) "Other enterprise" and "another enterprise" mean any 41 domestic or foreign limited liability company other than the 42 company, and any corporation, partnership, joint venture, sole 43 proprietorship, trust or other enterprise, whether or not for profit, 44 served by a company agent;

45 (3) "Expenses" means reasonable costs, disbursements and 46 attorney's fees;

1 (4) “Liabilities” means amounts paid or incurred in satisfaction 2 of settlements, judgments, fines and penalties; and

3 (5) “Proceeding” means any pending, threatened or completed 4 civil, criminal, administrative or arbitral action, suit or 5 proceeding, and any appeal therein, and any inquiry or investigation 6 which could lead to that action or proceeding.

7 (6) References to an “other enterprise” or “another enterprise” 8 include employee benefit plans; and references to “fines” include 9 any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee 10 benefit plan.

11 b. A limited liability company shall indemnify a company 12 agent against expenses to the extent that such company agent has 13 been successful on the merits or otherwise in any proceeding 14 brought against the company agent by reason of the company agent 15 serving as a company agent or serving another enterprise at the 16 request of the limited liability company. If the company agent is 17 successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any claim, issue 18 or matter in any such proceeding, indemnification shall be provided 19 under this subsection with respect to the claim, issue or matter.

20 c. A limited liability company shall indemnify a company 21 agent against any debt, obligation, expense or other liability 22 incurred by that company agent in the course of the company 23 agent’s activities on behalf of the limited liability company or 24 another enterprise at the request of the limited liability company, if, 25 in making the payment or incurring the debt, obligation, expense or 26 other liability, the company agent complied with the duties stated in 27 sections 35 and 39 of this act.

28 d. A limited liability company may purchase and maintain 29 insurance on behalf of any company agent against any expenses 30 incurred in any proceeding and any liabilities asserted against the 31 company agent in his or her capacity as a company agent, whether 32 or not the limited liability company could eliminate or limit the 33 person’s liability to the company for the conduct giving rise to the 34 liability under subsection g. of section 11 of this act. The limited 35 liability company may purchase such insurance from, or such 36 insurance may be reinsured in whole or in part by, an insurer owned 37 by or otherwise affiliated with the limited liability company, 38 whether or not such insurer does business with other insureds.

40 39. Standards of Conduct for Members and Managers.

41 a. A member of a member-managed limited liability company 42 owes to the company and, subject to subsection b. of section 67 of 43 this act, the other members, the duties of loyalty and care stated in 44 subsections b. and c. of this section.

45 b. The fiduciary duty of loyalty of a member in a member-46 managed limited liability company includes the duties:

- 1 (1) to account to the company and to hold as trustee for it any 2 property, profit, or benefit derived by the member:
- 3 (a) in the conduct or winding up of the company's activities;
4 (b) from a use by the member of the company's property; or 5 (c) from the appropriation of a company opportunity;
- 6 (2) to refrain from dealing with the company in the conduct or 7 winding up of the company's activities as or on behalf of a person 8 having an interest adverse to the company; and
- 9 (3) to refrain from competing with the company in the conduct 10 of the company's activities before the dissolution of the company.
- 11 c. The duty of care of a member of a member-managed limited 12 liability company in the conduct and winding up of the company's 13 activities is to refrain from engaging in grossly negligent or reckless 14 conduct, intentional misconduct, or a knowing violation of law.
- 15 d. A member shall discharge the duties under this act or under 16 the operating agreement and exercise any rights consistently with 17 the contractual obligation of good faith and fair dealing.
- 18 e. A member does not violate a duty or obligation under this 19 act or under the operating agreement merely because the member's 20 conduct furthers the member's own interest.
- 21 f. All of the members of a member-managed limited liability 22 company or a manager-managed limited liability company may 23 authorize or ratify, after full disclosure of all material facts, a 24 specific act or transaction that otherwise would violate the duty of 25 loyalty.
- 26 g. It is a defense to a claim under paragraph (2) of subsection 27 b. of this section and any comparable claim in equity or at common 28 law that the transaction was fair to the limited liability company.
- 29 h. If, as permitted by subsection f. of this section or the 30 operating agreement, a member enters into a transaction with the 31 company that would otherwise be prohibited by paragraph (2) of 32 subsection b. of this section, the member's rights and obligations are 33 the same as those of a person not a member.
- 34 i. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the 35 following rules apply:
- 36 (1) Subsections a., b., c. and g. of this section apply to the 37 manager or managers and not the members, and the duty stated 38 under paragraph (3) of subsection b. of this section continues until 39 winding up is completed.
- 40 (2) Subsections d. and e. of this section apply to the managers as 41 well as the members and, subject to subsection d. of this section, a 42 member does not have any duty to the company or any other 43 member solely by reason of being a member.
- 44 (3) The power to ratify stated in subsection f. of this section 45 pertains only to the members.

1 40. Right of Members, Managers, and Dissociated Members to 2 Information.

3 a. In a member-managed limited liability company, the 4 following rules apply:

5 (1) On reasonable notice, a member may inspect and copy 6 during regular business hours, at a reasonable location specified by 7 the company, any record maintained by the company regarding the 8 company's activities, financial condition, and other circumstances, 9 to the extent the information is material to the member's rights and 10 duties under the operating agreement or this act.

11 (2) The company shall furnish to each member:

12 (a) without demand, any information concerning the company's 13 activities, financial condition, and other circumstances which the 14 company knows and is material to the proper exercise of the 15 member's rights and duties under the operating agreement or this 16 act, except to the extent the company can establish that it 17 reasonably believes the member already knows the information; and 18 (b) on demand, any other information concerning the company's 19 activities, financial condition, and other circumstances, except to 20 the extent the demand or information demanded is unreasonable or 21 otherwise improper under the circumstances.

22 (3) The duty to furnish information under paragraph (2) of this 23 subsection also applies to each member to the extent the member 24 knows any of the information described in paragraph (2).

25 b. In a manager-managed limited liability company, the 26 following rules apply:

27 (1) The informational rights stated in subsection a. of this 28 section and the duty stated in paragraph (3) of subsection a. of this 29 section apply to the managers and not the members.

30 (2) During regular business hours and at a reasonable location 31 specified by the company, a member may obtain from the company 32 and inspect and copy full information regarding the activities, 33 financial condition, and other circumstances of the company as is 34 just and reasonable if:

35 (a) the member seeks the information for a purpose material to 36 the member's interest as a member;

37 (b) the member makes a demand in a record received by the 38 company, describing with reasonable particularity the information 39 sought and the purpose for seeking the information; and 40 (c) the information sought is directly connected to the member's 41 purpose.

42 (3) Within 10 days after receiving a demand pursuant to 43 subparagraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this subsection, the company 44 shall in a record inform the member that made the demand:

45 (a) of the information that the company will provide in response 46 to the demand and when and where the company will provide the 47 information; and

1 (b) if the company declines to provide any demanded 2 information, the company's reasons for declining.

3 (4) Whenever this act or an operating agreement provides for a 4 member to give or withhold consent to a matter, before the consent 5 is given or withheld, the company shall, without demand, provide 6 the member with all information that is known to the company and 7 is material to the member's decision.

8 c. On 10 days' demand made in a record received by a limited 9 liability company, a dissociated member may have access to 10 information to which the person was entitled while a member if the 11 information pertains to the period during which the person was a 12 member, the person seeks the information in good faith, and the 13 person satisfies the requirements imposed on a member by 14 paragraph (2) of subsection b. of this section. The company shall 15 respond to a demand made pursuant to this subsection in the manner 16 provided in paragraph (3) of subsection b. of this section.

17 d. A limited liability company may charge a person that makes 18 a demand under this section the reasonable costs of copying, limited 19 to the costs of labor and material.

20 e. A member or dissociated member may exercise rights under 21 this section through an agent or, in the case of an individual under 22 legal disability, a legal representative. Any restriction or condition 23 imposed by the operating agreement or under subsection g. of this 24 section applies both to the agent or legal representative and the 25 member or dissociated member.

26 f. The rights under this section do not extend to a person as 27 transferee.

28 g. In addition to any restriction or condition stated in its 29 operating agreement, a limited liability company, as a matter within 30 the ordinary course of its activities, may impose reasonable 31 restrictions and conditions on access to and use of information to be 32 furnished under this section, including designating information 33 confidential and imposing nondisclosure and safeguarding 34 obligations on the recipient. In a dispute concerning the 35 reasonableness of a restriction under this subsection, the company 36 has the burden of proving reasonableness.

37

39 TRANSFERABLE INTERESTS AND RIGHTS OF 40 TRANSFEREES AND CREDITORS

41 41. Nature of Transferable Interest.

42 A transferable interest shall be personal property.
43

44 42. Transfer of Transferable Interest.

45 a. A transfer, in whole or in part, of a transferable interest:

46 (1) is permissible;

1 (2) does not by itself cause a member's dissociation or a 2 dissolution and winding up of the limited liability company's 3 activities; and

4 (3) subject to section 44 of this act, does not entitle the 5 transferee to:

6 (a) participate in the management or conduct of the company's 7 activities; or

8 (b) except as otherwise provided in subsection c. of this section, 9 have access to records or other information concerning the 10 company's activities.

11 b. A transferee has the right to receive, in accordance with the 12 transfer, distributions to which the transferor would otherwise be 13 entitled.

14 c. In a dissolution and winding up of a limited liability 15 company, a transferee is entitled to an account of the company's 16 transactions only from the date of dissolution.

17 d. A transferable interest may be evidenced by a certificate of 18 the interest issued by the limited liability company in a record, and, 19 subject to this section, the interest represented by the certificate 20 may be transferred by a transfer of the certificate.

21 e. A limited liability company need not give effect to a 22 transferee's rights under this section until the company has notice of 23 the transfer.

24 f. A transfer of a transferable interest in violation of a 25 restriction on transfer contained in the operating agreement is 26 ineffective as to a person having notice of the restriction at the time 27 of transfer.

28 g. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (2) of subsection 29 d. of section 46 of this act, when a member transfers a transferable 30 interest, the transferor retains the rights of a member other than the 31 interest in distributions transferred and retains all duties and 32 obligations of a member.

33 h. When a member transfers a transferable interest to a person 34 that becomes a member with respect to the transferred interest, the 35 transferee is liable for the member's obligations under section 43 36 and subsection c. of section 36 of this act known to the transferee 37 when the transferee becomes a member.

38

39 43. Charging Order.

40 a. On application by a judgment creditor of a member or 41 transferee, a court may enter a charging order against the 42 transferable interest of the judgment debtor for the unsatisfied 43 amount of the judgment. A charging order constitutes a lien on a 44 judgment debtor's transferable interest and requires the limited 45 liability company to pay over to the person to which the charging 46 order was issued any distribution that would otherwise be paid to 47 the judgment debtor.

1 b. To the extent necessary to effectuate the collection of 2 distributions pursuant to a charging order in effect under subsection 3 a. of this section, the court may:

4 (1) appoint a receiver of the distributions subject to the charging 5 order, with the power to make all inquiries the judgment debtor 6 might have made; and

7 (2) make all other orders necessary to give effect to the charging 8 order.

9 c. Upon a showing that distributions under a charging order 10 will not pay the judgment debt within a reasonable time, the court 11 may foreclose the lien and order the sale of the transferable interest.
12 The purchaser at the foreclosure sale only obtains the transferable 13 interest, does not thereby become a member, and is subject to 14 section 42 of this act.

15 d. At any time before foreclosure under subsection c. of this 16 section, the member or transferee whose transferable interest is 17 subject to a charging order under subsection a. of this section may 18 extinguish the charging order by satisfying the judgment and filing 19 a certified copy of the satisfaction with the court that issued the 20 charging order.

21 e. At any time before foreclosure under subsection c. of this 22 section, a limited liability company or one or more members whose 23 transferable interests are not subject to the charging order may pay 24 to the judgment creditor the full amount due under the judgment 25 and thereby succeed to the rights of the judgment creditor, 26 including the charging order.

27 f. This act shall not deprive any member or transferee of the 28 benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the member's or 29 transferee's transferable interest.

30 g. This section provides the exclusive remedy by which a 31 person seeking to enforce a judgment against a member or 32 transferee may, in the capacity of judgment creditor, satisfy the 33 judgment from the judgment debtor's transferable interest.
34

35 44. Power of Personal Representative of Deceased Member. If a 36 member dies, the deceased member's personal representative or 37 other legal representative may exercise the rights of a transferee 38 provided in subsection c. of section 42 of this act and, for the 39 purposes of settling the estate, the rights of a current member under 40 section 40 of this act.

42

43

MEMBER'S POWER TO DISSOCIATE; WRONGFUL

44

DISSOCIATION

45

45. Member's Power to Dissociate; Wrongful Dissociation.

- 1 a. A person has the power to dissociate as a member at any 2 time, rightfully or wrongfully, by withdrawing as a member by 3 express will under section 46 of this act.
- 4 b. A person's dissociation from a limited liability company is 5 wrongful only if the dissociation:
- 6 (1) is in breach of an express provision of the operating 7 agreement; or
- 8 (2) occurs before the termination of the company and:
- 9 (a) the person is expelled as a member by judicial order under 10 subsection e. of section 46 of this act;
- 11 (b) the person is dissociated under paragraph (1) of subsection 12 g. of section 46 of this act, by becoming a debtor in bankruptcy; or
- 13 (c) in the case of a person that is not a trust other than a 14 business trust, an estate, or an individual, the person is expelled or 15 otherwise dissociated as a member because it willfully dissolved or 16 terminated; or
- 17 (3) in the case of a company for a definite term or particular 18 undertaking, by withdrawing as a member by express will under 19 section 46 of this act before the expiration of the term or the 20 completion of the undertaking.
- 21 c. A person that wrongfully dissociates as a member is liable to 22 the limited liability company and, subject to section 67 of this act, 23 to the other members for damages caused by the dissociation. The 24 liability is in addition to any other debt, obligation, or other liability 25 of the member to the company or the other members.
- 26
- 27 46. Events Causing Dissociation. A person is dissociated as a 28 member from a limited liability company when:
- 29 a. The company has notice of the person's express will to 30 withdraw as a member, but, if the person specified a withdrawal 31 date later than the date the company had notice, on that later date;
- 32 b. An event stated in the operating agreement as causing the 33 person's dissociation occurs;
- 34 c. The person is expelled as a member pursuant to the 35 operating agreement;
- 36 d. The person is expelled as a member by the unanimous 37 consent of the other members if:
- 38 (1) it is unlawful to carry on the company's activities with the 39 person as a member;
- 40 (2) there has been a transfer of all of the person's transferable 41 interest in the company, other than:
- 42 (a) a transfer for security purposes; or
- 43 (b) a charging order in effect under section 43 of this act which 44 has not been foreclosed;
- 45 (3) the person is a corporation and, within 90 days after the 46 company notifies the person that it will be expelled as a member 47 because the person has filed a certificate of dissolution or the

- 1 equivalent, its charter has been revoked, or its right to conduct 2 business has been suspended by the jurisdiction of its incorporation, 3 the certificate of dissolution has not been revoked or its charter or 4 right to conduct business has not been reinstated; or
- 5 (4) the person is a limited liability company or partnership that 6 has been dissolved and whose business is being wound up;
- 7 e. On application by the company, the person is expelled as a 8 member by judicial order because the person:

10 adversely and materially affected, or will adversely and materially 11 affect, the company's activities;
- 12 (2) has willfully or persistently committed, or is willfully and 13 persistently committing, a material breach of the operating 14 agreement or the person's duties or obligations under section 39 of 15 this act; or
- 16 (3) has engaged, or is engaging, in conduct relating to the 17 company's activities which makes it not reasonably practicable to 18 carry on the activities with the person as a member;
- 19 f. In the case of a person who is an individual:
- 20 (1) the person dies; or
- 21 (2) in a member-managed limited liability company:
- 22 (a) a guardian or general conservator for the person is 23 appointed; or
- 24 (b) there is a judicial order that the person has otherwise become 25 incapable of performing the person's duties as a member under this 26 act or the operating agreement;
- 27 g. In a member-managed limited liability company, the person:
- 28 (1) becomes a debtor in bankruptcy;
- 29 (2) executes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; or
- 30 (3) seeks, consents to, or acquiesces in the appointment of a 31 trustee, receiver, or liquidator of the person or of all or substantially 32 all of the person's property;
- 33 h. In the case of a person that is a trust or is acting as a member 34 by virtue of being a trustee of a trust, the trust's entire transferable 35 interest in the company is distributed;
- 36 i. In the case of a person that is an estate or is acting as a 37 member by virtue of being a personal representative of an estate,

46 member;

1 l. The company participates in a conversion under Article 10
2 (sections 73 through 87 of this act);

8 47. Effect of Person's Dissociation as Member.

9 a. When a person is dissociated as a member of a limited 10 liability company:

11 (1) the person's right to participate as a member in the 12 management and conduct of the company's activities terminates;

13 (2) if the company is member-managed, the person's fiduciary 14 duties as a member end with regard to matters arising and events 15 occurring after the person's dissociation; and

16 (3) subject to section 44 and Article 10 (sections 73 through 87 17 of this act), any transferable interest owned by the person 18 immediately before dissociation in the person's capacity as a 19 member is owned by the person solely as a transferee.

20 b. A person's dissociation as a member of a limited liability 21 company does not of itself discharge the person from any debt, 22 obligation, or other liability to the company or the other members 23 which the person incurred while a member.

24 c. A court that expels a member from a company pursuant to 25 subsection e. of section 46 of this act may order the sale of the 26 interests held by such person immediately before dissociation to 27 either the company or to any other persons who are parties to the 28 action if the court determines, in its discretion, that such an order is 29 required by any other law, rule or regulation, or that such an order 30 would be fair and equitable to all parties under all of the 31 circumstances of the case.
32

34 DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

35 48. Events Causing Dissolution.

36 a. A limited liability company is dissolved, and its activities 37 shall be wound up, upon the occurrence of any of the following:

38 (1) an event or circumstance that the operating agreement states 39 causes dissolution;

40 (2) the consent of all the members;

41 (3) the passage of 90 consecutive days during which the 42 company has no members;

43 (4) on application by a member, the entry by the Superior Court 44 of an order dissolving the company on the grounds that:

45 (a) the conduct of all or substantially all of the company's 46 activities is unlawful; or

1 (b) it is not reasonably practicable to carry on the company's 2 activities in conformity with one or both of the certificate of 3 formation and the operating agreement; or

4 (5) on application by a member, the entry by the Superior Court 5 of an order dissolving the company on the grounds that the 6 managers or those members in control of the company:

7 (a) have acted, are acting, or will act in a manner that is illegal 8 or fraudulent; or

9 (b) have acted or are acting in a manner that is oppressive and 10 was, is, or will be directly harmful to the applicant.

11 (6) A certificate of dissolution is filed before the delayed 12 effective date of a certificate of formation pursuant to subsection e.
13 of section 18 of this act.

14 b. In a proceeding brought under paragraph (4) or (5) of 15 subsection a. of this section, the court may order or a party may 16 seek a remedy other than dissolution, including, but not limited to, 17 the appointment of a custodian or one or more provisional 18 managers. The court shall appoint a custodian or one or more 19 provisional managers if it appears to the court that such an 20 appointment may be in the best interests of the limited liability 21 company and its members. In any proceeding under this section, 22 the court shall allow reasonable compensation to any custodian or 23 provisional manager for his or her services and reimbursement or 24 direct payment of all his or her reasonable costs and expenses, 25 which amounts shall be paid by the limited liability company. The 26 court may appoint a custodian or one or more provisional managers 27 in a summary proceeding or otherwise; or order the sale of all 28 interests held by a member who is a party to the proceeding to 29 either the limited liability company or any other member who is a 30 party to the proceeding, if the court determines in its discretion that 31 such an order would be fair and equitable to all parties under all of 32 the circumstances of the case.

33 c. If the court determines that any party to a proceeding 34 brought under paragraph (4) or (5) of subsection a. of this section 35 has acted vexatiously, or otherwise not in good faith, it may in its 36 discretion award reasonable expenses, including counsel fees 37 incurred in connection with the action, to the injured party or 38 parties.

39

40 49. Winding Up.

41 a. A dissolved limited liability company shall wind up its 42 activities, and the company continues after dissolution only for the 43 purpose of winding up.

46 liabilities, settle and close the company's activities, and marshal 47 and distribute the assets of the company; and

1 (2) shall:

2 (a) deliver to the filing office for filing a certificate of 3 dissolution stating the name of the company and such other 4 information as may be required by the filing office to correctly

13 termination stating the name of the company and that the company 14 is terminated; and 15 (g) perform other acts necessary or appropriate to the winding 16 up.

17 c. If a dissolved limited liability company has no members, the 18 legal representative of the last person to have been a member may 19 wind up the activities of the company. If the person does so, the 20 person has the powers of a sole manager under subsection c. of 21 section 37 of this act and is deemed to be a manager for the 22 purposes of paragraph (2) of subsection a. of section 30 of this act.

23 d. If the legal representative under subsection c. of this section 24 declines or fails to wind up the company's activities, a person may 25 be appointed to do so by the consent of transferees owning a 26 majority of the rights to receive distributions as transferees at the 27 time the consent is to be effective. A person appointed under this 28 subsection:

29 (1) has the powers of a sole manager under subsection c. of 30 section 37 of this act and is deemed to be a manager for the 31 purposes of paragraph (2) of subsection a. of section 30 of this act; 32 and

33 (2) shall promptly deliver to the filing office for filing an 34 amendment to the company's certificate of formation to:

35 (a) state that the company has no members;

36 (b) state that the person has been appointed pursuant to this 37 subsection to wind up the company; and 38 (c) provide the street and mailing addresses of the person.

39 e. The Superior Court may order judicial supervision of the 40 winding up of a dissolved limited liability company, including the 41 appointment of a person to wind up the company's activities:

42 (1) on application of a member, if the applicant establishes good 43 cause;

44 (2) on the application of a transferee, if:

45 (a) the company does not have any members;

46 (b) the legal representative of the last person to have been a 47 member declines or fails to wind up the company's activities; and

1 (c) within a reasonable time following the dissolution a person 2 has not been appointed pursuant to subsection d. of this section; or

3 (3) in connection with a proceeding under paragraph (4) or (5) 4 of subsection a. of section 48 of this act.

5
6 50. Known Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability
7 Company.

8 a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection d. of this section, 9 a dissolved limited liability company may give notice of a known 10 claim under subsection b. of this section, which has the effect as 11 provided in subsection c. of this section.

12 b. A dissolved limited liability company may in a record notify 13 its known claimants of the dissolution. The notice shall:

14 (1) specify the information required to be included in a claim;

15 (2) provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent;

16 (3) state the deadline for receipt of the claim, which may not be 17 less than 120 days after the date the notice is received by the 18 claimant; and

19 (4) state that the claim will be barred if not received by the 20 deadline.

21 c. A claim against a dissolved limited liability company is 22 barred if the requirements of subsection b. of this section are met 23 and:

24 (1) the claim is not received by the specified deadline; or

25 (2) if the claim is timely received but rejected by the company:

26 (a) the company causes the claimant to receive a notice in a 27 record stating that the claim is rejected and will be barred unless the 28 claimant commences an action against the company to enforce the 29 claim within 90 days after the claimant receives the notice; and 30 (b) the claimant does not commence the required action within 31 the 90 days.

32 d. This section does not apply to a claim based on an event 33 occurring after the effective date of dissolution or a liability that on 34 that date is contingent.

35
36 51. Other Claims Against Dissolved Limited Liability Company.

37 a. A dissolved limited liability company may publish notice of 38 its dissolution and request persons having claims against the 39 company to present them in accordance with the notice.

40 b. The notice authorized by subsection a. of this section shall:

41 (1) be published at least once in a newspaper of general
42 circulation in the county in this State in which the dissolved limited 43 liability company's principal office is located or, if it has none in 44 this State, in the county in which the company's registered office is 45 or was last located;

46 (2) describe the information required to be contained in a claim 47 and provide a mailing address to which the claim is to be sent; and

1 (3) state that a claim against the company is barred unless an 2 action to enforce the claim is commenced within five years after 3 publication of the notice.

4 c. If a dissolved limited liability company publishes a notice in 5 accordance with subsection b. of this section, unless the claimant 6 commences an action to enforce the claim against the company 7 within five years after the publication date of the notice, the claim 8 of each of the following claimants is barred:

9 (1) a claimant that did not receive notice in a record under 10 section 50 of this act;

11 (2) a claimant whose claim was timely sent to the company but 12 not acted on; and

13 (3) a claimant whose claim is contingent at, or based on an 14 event occurring after, the effective date of dissolution.

15 d. A claim not barred under this section may be enforced:

16 (1) against a dissolved limited liability company, to the extent of 17 its undistributed assets; and 18 (2) if assets of the company have been distributed after 19 dissolution, against a member or transferee to the extent of that 20 person's proportionate share of the claim or of the assets distributed 21 to the member or transferee after dissolution, whichever is less, but 22 a person's total liability for all claims under this paragraph does not 23 exceed the total amount of assets distributed to the person after 24 dissolution.

26 52. Claims Against Member or Transferee Barred Unless Filed 27 Within Five Years After Limited Liability Company Dissolved.

28 a. A claimant, and all those claiming through or under the 29 claimant, shall be forever barred from suing a member or transferee 30 on any claim, or otherwise realizing upon or enforcing any claim 31 against a member or transferee, unless an action is commenced 32 against the member or transferee, pursuant to paragraph (2) of 33 subsection d. of section 51 of this act, or otherwise, within five 34 years after the limited liability company was dissolved.

35 b. This section shall not:

36 (1) apply to claims against members or transferees which are in 37 litigation on the effective date of this section;

38 (2) operate to extend any otherwise applicable statute of 39 limitations; or

40 (3) affect any rights of creditors under the "Uniform Fraudulent 41 Transfer Act," R.S.25:2-20 et seq.

42
43 53. Administrative Action.

44 a. The filing office may place a limited liability company on 45 the inactive list if the company does not:

46 (1) pay, within 60 days after the due date, any fee or penalty due 47 to the filing office under this act or law other than this act; ¹or¹

1 (2) file annual reports for two consecutive years pursuant to
2 section 26 of this act.

3 b. If the filing office determines that a ground exists for 4 placing a company on the inactive list, the filing office shall 5 provide notice of the filing office's intent to the registered office of 6 the company or the principal office of the company if the mailing 7 address of the principal office appears in the records of the filing 8 office and is different from the mailing address of the registered 9 office.

10 c. If within 60 days after service of the notice pursuant to 11 subsection b. of this section a limited liability company does not 12 correct each ground for being placed on the inactive list or 13 demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction of the filing office that 14 each ground determined by the filing office does not exist, the filing 15 office shall place the company on the inactive list and file a 16 declaration of the action. The filing office shall send a notice of the 17 action to the registered office of the company or the principal office 18 of the company if the mailing address of the principal office 19 appears in the records of the filing office and is different from the 20 mailing address of the registered office.

21 d. A limited liability company that has been placed on the 22 inactive list continues in existence but, subject to section 54 of this 23 act, may carry on only activities necessary to wind up its activities 24 and liquidate its assets under sections 49 and 56 of this act and to 25 notify claimants under sections 50 and 51 of this act.

26 e. An inactivation of a limited liability company does not 27 terminate the authority of its agent for service of process.

28

29 54. Reinstatement Following Administrative Dissolution.

30 a. A limited liability company that has been placed on the 31 inactive list may apply to the filing office for reinstatement. The 32 application shall be delivered to the filing office for filing and state:

33 (1) the name of the company and such other information as may 34 be required by the filing office to correctly identify the company; 35 and

36 (2) that the company's name satisfies the requirements of 37 section 8 of this act.

38 b. If the filing office determines that an application under 39 subsection a. of this section contains the required information and 40 that the information is correct, the filing office shall reinstate the 41 company and provide notice of the reinstatement to the company.

42 c. When a reinstatement becomes effective, it relates back to 43 and takes effect as of the effective date of the filing office action 44 placing the company on the inactive list, and the limited liability 45 company may resume its activities as if the filing office action had 46 not occurred.

1 55. Appeal from Rejection of Reinstatement.

2 a. If the filing office rejects a limited liability company's 3 application for reinstatement, the filing office shall present a notice 4 to the company explaining the reason for rejection.

5 b. Within 30 days after a rejection of reinstatement under 6 subsection a. of this section, a limited liability company may appeal 7 from the rejection by petitioning the court to set aside the filing 8 office action. The petition shall be served on the filing office and 9 contain a copy of the company's application for reinstatement and 10 the filing office's notice of rejection.

11 c. The court may order the filing office to reinstate a limited 12 liability company or take other action the court considers 13 appropriate.

15 56. Distribution of Assets in Winding Up Limited Liability
16 Company's Activities.

17 a. In winding up its activities, a limited liability company shall 18 apply its assets to discharge its obligations to creditors, including 19 members that are creditors.

20 b. After a limited liability company complies with subsection a.
21 of this section, any surplus shall be distributed in the following 22 order, subject to any charging order in effect under section 43 of 23 this act:

24 (1) to each person owning a transferable interest that reflects 25 contributions made by a member and not previously returned, an 26 amount equal to the value of the unreturned contributions; and

27 (2) in equal shares among members and dissociated members, 28 except to the extent necessary to comply with any transfer effective 29 under section 42 of this act.

30 c. If a limited liability company does not have sufficient

32 section, any surplus shall be distributed among the owners of 33 transferable interests in proportion to the value of their respective 34 unreturned contributions.

35 d. All distributions made under subsections b. and c. of this 36 section shall be paid in money.

FOREIGN LIMITED LIABILITY COMPANIES

40

57. Governing Law.

41 a. The law of the state or other jurisdiction under which a 42 foreign limited liability company is formed governs:

43 (1) the internal affairs of the company; and 44 (2) the liability of a member as member and a manager as 45 manager for the debts, obligations, or other liabilities of the 46 company.

1 b. A foreign limited liability company may not be denied a 2 certificate of authority by reason of any difference between the laws 3 of the jurisdiction under which the company is formed and the law 4 of this State.

5 c. A certificate of authority does not authorize a foreign limited 6 liability company to engage in any business or exercise any power 7 that a limited liability company may not engage in or exercise in 8 this State.

9

10 58. Application for Certificate of Authority ¹; Amendments to 16 certificate of authority to transact business in this State by 17 delivering an application to the filing office for filing. The 18 application shall state:

26 company is formed require the company to maintain an office in 27 that jurisdiction, the street and mailing addresses of the required 28 office; and

29 ¹[d.] (4)¹ the name and street and mailing addresses of the 30 company's initial agent for service of process in this State.

31 ¹b. If any statement in the application for a certificate of 32 authority of a foreign limited liability company was false when 33 made or any arrangements or other facts described have changed, 34 making the application false in any respect, the foreign limited 35 liability company shall promptly file in the filing office an amended 36 application, executed by an authorized person, correcting the 37 statement.¹

38

39 59. Activities Not Constituting Transacting Business.

40 a. Activities of a foreign limited liability company which do 41 not constitute transacting business in this State within the meaning 42 of this section include:

43 (1) maintaining, defending, or settling an action or proceeding;

44 (2) carrying on any activity concerning its internal affairs, 45 including holding meetings of its members or managers;

46 (3) maintaining accounts in financial institutions;

1 (4) maintaining offices or agencies for the transfer, exchange, 2 and registration of the company's own securities or maintaining 3 trustees or depositories with respect to those securities;

4 (5) selling through independent contractors;

5 (6) soliciting or obtaining orders, whether by mail or electronic 6 means or through employees or agents or otherwise, if the orders 7 require acceptance outside this State before they become contracts;

16 b. For purposes of this section, the ownership in this State of 17 income-producing real property or tangible personal property, other 18 than property excluded under subsection a. of this section, 19 constitutes transacting business in this State.

20 c. This section does not apply in determining the contacts or 21 activities that may subject a foreign limited liability company to 22 service of process, taxation, or regulation under law of this State 23 other than this act.

24

25 60. Filing of Certificate of Authority. Unless the filing office 26 determines that an application for a certificate of authority does not 27 comply with the filing requirements of this act, the filing office, 28 upon payment of all filing fees, shall file the application of a 29 foreign limited liability company, prepare and file a certificate of 30 authority to transact business in this State, and provide a copy of the 36 comply with section 8 of this act may not obtain a certificate of 37 authority until it adopts, for the purpose of transacting business in 38 this State, an alternate name that complies with section 8 of this act.

39 A foreign limited liability company that adopts an alternate name 40 under this subsection and obtains a certificate of authority with the 41 alternate name need not comply with R.S.56:1-1 et seq. After 42 obtaining a certificate of authority with an alternate name, a foreign 43 limited liability company shall transact business in this State under 44 the alternate name unless the company is authorized under 45 R.S.56:1-1 et seq. to transact business in this State under another 46 name.

1 b. If a foreign limited liability company authorized to transact
2 business in this State changes its name to one that does not comply 3 with section 8 of this act, it may not thereafter transact business in 4 this State until it complies with subsection a. of this section and 5 obtains an amended certificate of authority.

6
7 62. Revocation of Certificate of Authority.

8 a. A certificate of authority of a foreign limited liability 9 company to transact business in this State may be revoked by the 10 filing office in the manner provided in subsections b. and c. of this 11 section, if the company does not:

12 (1) pay, within 60 days after the due date, any fee or penalty due 13 to the filing office under this act or law other than this act;

14 (2) file annual reports for two consecutive years pursuant to 15 section 26 of this act.

16 b. To revoke a certificate of authority of a foreign limited 17 liability company, the filing office shall provide notice of the filing 18 office's intent to the registered office of the company or the 19 principal office of the company if the mailing address of the 20 principal office appears in the records of the filing office and is 21 different from the mailing address of the registered office.

22 c. If, within 60 days after service of the notice pursuant to 23 subsection b. of this section, a company does not correct each 24 ground for revocation or demonstrate to the reasonable satisfaction 25 of the filing office that each ground determined by the filing office 26 does not exist, the filing office shall revoke the company and file a 27 declaration of the action. The filing office shall send the company a 28 notice of the action to the registered office of the company or the 29 principal office of the company if the mailing address of the 30 principal office appears in the records of the filing office and is 31 different from the mailing address of the registered office.

32 d. The authority of a foreign limited liability company to 33 transact business in this State ceases on the effective date of the 34 notice of revocation unless before that date the company cures each 35 ground for revocation stated in the notice filed under subsection b.
36 of this section

37
38 63. Reinstatement of Certificate of Authority.

39 a. A foreign limited liability company that has been revoked
40 may apply to the filing office for reinstatement. The application 41 shall be delivered to the filing office for filing and state:

42 (1) the name of the company and such other information as may 43 be required by the filing office to correctly identify the company;

2 subsection a. of this section contains the required information and 3 that the information is correct, the filing office shall reinstate the 4 company and provide notice of the reinstatement to the company.

5 c. When a reinstatement becomes effective, it relates back to 6 and takes effect as of the effective date of the filing office 7 revocation action, and the foreign limited liability company may 8 resume its activities as if the filing office action had not occurred.

9
10 64. Cancellation of Certificate of Authority. To cancel its 11 certificate of authority to transact business in this State, a foreign 12 limited liability company shall deliver to the filing office for filing 13 a certificate of cancellation stating the name of the company and 14 such other information as may be required by the filing office to 15 correctly identify the company and that the company desires to

6

67. Direct Action by Member.

7 a. Subject to subsection b. of this section, a member may 8 maintain a direct action against another member, a manager, or the 9 limited liability company to enforce the member's rights and 10 otherwise protect the member's interests, including rights and 11 interests under the operating agreement or this act or arising 12 independently of the membership relationship.

13 b. A member maintaining a direct action under this section 14 shall plead and prove an actual or threatened injury that is not 15 solely the result of an injury suffered or threatened to be suffered by 16 the limited liability company.

17

18 68. Derivative Action. A member may maintain a derivative 19 action to enforce a right of a limited liability company if:

20 a. the member first makes a demand on the other members in a 21 member-managed limited liability company, or the managers of a 22 manager-managed limited liability company, requesting that they 23 cause the company to bring an action to enforce the right, and the 24 managers or other members do not bring the action within a 25 reasonable time; or

26 b. A demand under subsection a. of this section would be 27 futile.

28

29 69. Proper Plaintiff.

30 a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection b. of this section, 31 a derivative action under section 68 of this act may be maintained 32 only by a person that is a member at the time the action is 33 commenced and remains a member while the action continues.

34 b. If the sole plaintiff in a derivative action dies while the 35 action is pending, the court may permit another member of the 36 limited liability company to be substituted as plaintiff.

37

38 70. Pleading. In a derivative action under section 68 of this act, 39 the complaint shall state with particularity:

40 a. The date and content of plaintiff's demand and the response 41 to the demand by the managers or other members; or

42 b. If a demand has not been made, the reasons a demand under 43 subsection a. of section 68 of this act would be futile.

44

45 71. Special Litigation Committee.

46 a. If a limited liability company is named as or made a party in 47 a derivative proceeding, the company may appoint a special

1 litigation committee to investigate the claims asserted in the 2 proceeding and determine whether pursuing the action is in the best 3 interests of the company. If the company appoints a special 4 litigation committee, on motion by the committee made in the name 5 of the company, except for good cause shown, the court shall stay 6 discovery for the time reasonably necessary to permit the committee 7 to make its investigation. This subsection shall not prevent the 8 court from enforcing a person's right to information under section 9 40 of this act or, for good cause shown, granting extraordinary 10 relief in the form of a temporary restraining order or preliminary 11 injunction.

12 b. A special litigation committee may be composed of one or 13 more disinterested and independent individuals, who may be 14 members.

15 c. A special litigation committee may be appointed:

16 (1) in a member-managed limited liability company:

17 (a) by the consent of a majority of the members not named as 20 proceeding, by a majority of the members named as defendants; or 21 (2) in a manager-managed limited liability company:

22 (a) by a majority of the managers not named as defendants or 23 plaintiffs in the proceeding; and 24 (b) if all managers are named as defendants or plaintiffs in the 25 proceeding, by a majority of the managers named as defendants.

26 d. After appropriate investigation, a special litigation 27 committee may determine that it is in the best interests of the 28 limited liability company that the proceeding:

29 (1) continue under the control of the plaintiff;

30 (2) continue under the control of the committee;

31 (3) be settled on terms approved by the committee; or 32 (4) be dismissed.

33 e. After making a determination under subsection d. of this 34 section, a special litigation committee shall file with the court a 35 statement of its determination and its report supporting its 36 determination, giving notice to the plaintiff. The court shall 37 determine whether the members of the committee were disinterested 38 and independent and whether the committee conducted its 39 investigation and made its recommendation in good faith, 40 independently, and with reasonable care, with the committee having 41 the burden of proof. If the court finds that the members of the 42 committee were disinterested and independent and that the 43 committee acted in good faith, independently, and with reasonable 44 care, the court shall enforce the determination of the committee.
45 Otherwise, the court shall dissolve the stay of discovery entered 46 under subsection a. of this section and allow the action to proceed 47 under the direction of the plaintiff.

1 72. Proceeds and Expenses.

2 a. Except as otherwise provided in subsection b. of this section:

3 (1) any proceeds or other benefits of a derivative action under 4 section 68 of this act, whether by judgment, compromise, or 5 settlement, belong to the limited liability company and not to the 6 plaintiff; and

7 (2) if the plaintiff receives any proceeds, the plaintiff shall remit 8 them immediately to the company.

9 b. If a derivative action under section 68 of this act is 10 successful in whole or in part, the court may award the plaintiff 11 reasonable expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees and costs, 12 from the recovery of the limited liability company.

36 had not occurred;

37 (5) except as prohibited by other law, all of the rights, 38 privileges, immunities, powers, and purposes of the domesticating 39 company remain vested in the domesticated company;

40 (6) except as otherwise provided in the plan of domestication, 41 the terms and conditions of the plan of domestication take effect; 42 and

43 (7) except as otherwise agreed, the domestication does not 44 dissolve a domesticating limited liability company for the purposes 45 of Article 7, Dissolution and Winding Up (sections 48 through 56 46 of this act).

1 b. A domesticated company that is a foreign limited liability 2 company consents to the jurisdiction of the courts of this State to 3 enforce any debt, obligation, or other liability owed by the 4 domesticating company, if, before the domestication, the 5 domesticating company was subject to suit in this State on the debt, 6 obligation, or other liability. A domesticated company that is a 7 foreign limited liability company and not authorized to transact 8 business in this State appoints the filing office as its agent for 9 service of process for purposes of enforcing a debt, obligation, or 10 other liability under this subsection. Service on the filing office 11 under this subsection shall be made in the same manner and has the 12 same consequences as in subsections c. and d. of section 17 of this 13 act.

14 c. If a limited liability company has adopted and approved a 15 plan of domestication under section 82 of this act providing for the 16 company to be domesticated in a foreign jurisdiction, a statement 17 surrendering the company's certificate of formation shall be 18 delivered to the filing office for filing setting forth:

19 (1) the name of the company and such other information as may 20 be required by the filing office to correctly identify the company;

21 (2) a statement that the certificate of formation is being 22 surrendered in connection with the domestication of the company in 23 a foreign jurisdiction;

24 (3) a statement that the domestication was approved as required 25 by this act; and 26 (4) the jurisdiction of formation of the domesticated foreign 27 limited liability company.

28

29 86. Restrictions on Approval of Mergers, Conversions, and 30 Domestications.

31 a. If a member of a constituent, converting, or domesticating 32 limited liability company will have personal liability with respect to 33 a surviving, converted, or domesticated organization, approval or 34 amendment of a plan of merger, conversion, or domestication are 35 ineffective without the consent of the member, unless:

36 (1) the company's operating agreement provides for approval of 37 a merger, conversion, or domestication with the consent of fewer 38 than all the members; and 39 (2) the member has consented to the provision of the operating 40 agreement.

41 b. A member does not give the consent required by subsection 42 a. of this section merely by consenting to a provision of the 43 operating agreement that permits the operating agreement to be 44 amended with the consent of fewer than all the members.

1 87. Article Not Exclusive.

2 'a.' This Article 10 ('[Section] sections' 73 through 87 of this 3 act) does not preclude an entity from being merged, converted, or 4 domesticated under law other than this act.

5 'b. Without limiting the foregoing, it is intended that a limited 6 liability company, whenever formed, that acquires the assets, 7 liabilities and business of a predecessor organization with common 8 ownership, shall be presumed to have the rights, privileges and 9 perquisites of the predecessor organization. Furthermore, in 10 computing time periods and continuity of ownership for 11 determining eligibility for government grants, property rights, or 12 other entitlements, there shall be a tacking of time periods with 13 respect to the limited liability company and the predecessor 14 organization.

15 c. Nothing in this section 87 is intended to require the 16 assignment of a contract in violation of its express terms.'
