1 AN ACT concerning employment discrimination and supplementing
2 Title 34 of the Revised Statutes.

3

4 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
5 of New Jersey:

6

7 1. No employer or employer's agent, representative, or 8 designee shall:

9 a. Seek to obtain or require a current or prospective employee 10 to provide or consent to the creation of a credit report that contains 11 information about the current or prospective employee's credit
12 history, credit score, credit account balances, payment history,
13 savings or checking account balances, or savings or checking
14 account numbers, unless the employer is required by law to obtain a 15 credit report, or the employer reasonably believes that the employee 16 has engaged in a specific activity that is financial in nature and 17 constitutes a violation of law; or

18 b. Discharge, demote, suspend, retaliate, refuse to hire, or 19 otherwise discriminate against a current or prospective employee 20 with regard to promotion, compensation, or the terms, conditions or 21 privileges of employment, based on information in a credit report
22 on the employee.

23

24 2. Nothing in section 1 of this act shall prevent a credit inquiry
25 or employment action if credit history is an established bona fide
26 occupational qualification of a particular position or employment
27 classification. Credit history shall be considered a bona fide
28 occupational qualification for any current or prospective employee 29 being evaluated for a position that:

30 a. Is a managerial position which involves setting the financial 31 direction or control of the business;

32 b. Involves access to customers', employees', or employers'
33 personal belongings, financial assets, or financial information other 34 than information customarily provided in a retail transaction;

35 c. Involves a fiduciary responsibility to the employer,
36 including, but not limited to, the authority to issue payments,
37 transfer money or enter into contracts or involves leases of real 38 property;

39 d. Provides an expense account for travel; or

40 e. Is as a law enforcement officer for a law enforcement agency
41 in this State, or is as governmental or non-governmental security
42 personnel, including security personnel in homeland security
43 agencies.

44 As used in this section:

45 "Financial asset" means a financial asset as defined in 46 N.J.S.12A:8-102;

1       “Law enforcement agency” means a department, division,
2 bureau, commission, board or other authority of the State or of any 3 political subdivision thereof which employs law enforcement 4 officers; and

5       “Law enforcement officer” means a person whose public duties
6 include the power to act as an officer for the detection, 7 apprehension, arrest and conviction of offenders against the laws of 8 this State.

9
10       3. An employer shall not require an individual to waive or limit 11 any protection granted under this act as a condition of applying for 12 or receiving an offer of employment. An agreement to waive any 13 right or protection under this act is against the public policy of this 14 State and is void and unenforceable.

15
16       4. A person shall not retaliate or discriminate against an 17 individual because the individual has done or was about to do any 18 of the following:

- 19       a. File a complaint under this act;
20       b. Testify, assist, or participate in an investigation, proceeding, 21 or action concerning a violation of this act; or 22       c. Otherwise oppose a violation of this act.

23
24       5. Upon violation of any provision of this act, an aggrieved
25 person may, in addition to any other available remedy, institute a 26 civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction, within one year 27 from the date of the alleged violation. In response to the action, the 28 court may, as it deems appropriate, order or award any one or more
29 of the following:

- 30       a. With respect to a prospective employee:
31       (1) injunctive relief;
32       (2) compensatory and consequential damages incurred by the 33 prospective employee as a result of the violation, taking into 34 consideration any failure to hire in connection with a violation of 35 this act; or
36       (3) reasonable attorneys’ fees and court costs.
37       b. With respect to a current or former employee:
38       (1) injunctive relief as it deems appropriate, including 39 reinstatement of the employee to the same position held before the 40 violation or the position the employee would have held but for the 41 violation, as well as the reinstatement of full fringe benefits and 42 seniority rights;
43       (2) compensatory and consequential damages incurred by the 44 employee or former employee as a result of the violation, including 45 compensation for lost wages, benefits and other remuneration; or 46       (3) reasonable attorneys’ fees and court costs.

- 1       6. Any employer who violates any provision of this act shall be 2 subject to a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed $2,000 for the 3 first violation and $5,000 for each subsequent violation, collectible
4 by the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development in a 5 summary proceeding pursuant to the "Penalty Enforcement Law of 6 1999," P.L.1999, c.274 (C.2A:58-10 et seq.).
7
- 8       7. This act shall take effect immediately.
