11 11. It shall be an unlawful employment practice, or, as the case 12 may be, an unlawful discrimination:

13 a. For an employer, because of the race, creed, color, national 14 origin, ancestry, age, marital status, civil union status, domestic 15 partnership status, affectional or sexual orientation, genetic 16 information, pregnancy, sex, gender identity or expression, 17 disability or atypical hereditary cellular or blood trait of any 18 individual, or because of the liability for service in the Armed 19 Forces of the United States or the nationality of any individual, or 20 because of the refusal to submit to a genetic test or make available 21 the results of a genetic test to an employer, to refuse to hire or 22 employ or to bar or to discharge or require to retire, unless justified 23 by lawful considerations other than age, from employment such 24 individual or to discriminate against such individual in 25 compensation or in terms, conditions or privileges of employment; 26 provided, however, it shall not be an unlawful employment practice 27 to refuse to accept for employment an applicant who has received a 28 notice of induction or orders to report for active duty in the armed 29 forces; provided further that nothing herein contained shall be 30 construed to bar an employer from refusing to accept for 31 employment any person on the basis of sex in those certain 32 circumstances where sex is a bona fide occupational qualification, 33 reasonably necessary to the normal operation of the particular 34 business or enterprise; provided further that nothing herein 35 contained shall be construed to bar an employer from refusing to 36 accept for employment or to promote any person over 70 years of 37 age; provided further that it shall not be an unlawful employment 38 practice for a club exclusively social or fraternal to use club 39 membership as a uniform qualification for employment, or for a 40 religious association or organization to utilize religious affiliation 41 as a uniform qualification in the employment of clergy, religious 42 teachers or other employees engaged in the religious activities of 43 the association or organization, or in following the tenets of its 44 religion in establishing and utilizing criteria for employment of an EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.

1 employment practice to require the retirement of any employee 2 who, for the two-year period immediately before retirement, is 3 employed in a bona fide executive or a high policy-making position, 4 if that employee is entitled to an immediate non-forfeitable annual 5 retirement benefit from a pension, profit sharing, savings or 6 deferred retirement plan, or any combination of those plans, of the 7 employer of that employee which equals in the aggregate at least 8 $27,000.00; and provided further that an employer may restrict 9 employment to citizens of the United States where such restriction 10 is required by federal law or is otherwise necessary to protect the 11 national interest.

12 The provisions of subsections a. and b. of section 57 of 13 P.L.2003, c.246 (C.34:11A-20), and the provisions of section 58 of 14 P.L.2003, c.246 (C.26:8A-11), shall not be deemed to be an 15 unlawful discrimination under P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-1 et seq.).

16 For the purposes of this subsection, a "bona fide executive" is a 17 top level employee who exercises substantial executive authority 18 over a significant number of employees and a large volume of 19 business. A "high policy-making position" is a position in which a 20 person plays a significant role in developing policy and in 21 recommending the implementation thereof.

22 For the purposes of this subsection, an unlawful employment 23 practice occurs, with respect to discrimination in compensation or 24 in the financial terms or conditions of employment, each occasion 25 that an individual is affected by application of a discriminatory 26 compensation decision or other practice, including, but not limited 27 to, each occasion that wages, benefits, or other compensation are 28 paid, resulting in whole or in part from the decision or other 29 practice.

30 In addition to any other relief authorized by the "Law Against 31 Discrimination," P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-1 et seq.) for 32 discrimination in compensation or in the financial terms or 33 conditions of employment, liability shall accrue and an aggrieved 34 person may obtain relief for back pay for the entire period of time 35 in which the violation with regard to discrimination in 36 compensation or in the financial terms or conditions of employment 37 has been continuous, if the violation continues to occur within the 38 statute of limitations.

39 Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit the application of the 40 doctrine of "continuing violation" or the "discovery rule" to any 41 appropriate claim as those doctrines currently exist in New Jersey 42 common law. It shall be an unlawful employment practice to 43 require employees or prospective employees to consent to a 44 shortened statute of limitations or to waive any of the protections 45 provided by this act.

46 b. For a labor organization, because of the race, creed, color, 47 national origin, ancestry, age, marital status, civil union status, 48 domestic partnership status, affectional or sexual orientation,

1 gender identity or expression, disability, pregnancy, or sex of any 2 individual, or because of the liability for service in the Armed 3 Forces of the United States or nationality of any individual, to 4 exclude or to expel from its membership such individual or to 5 discriminate in any way against any of its members, against any 6 applicant for, or individual included in, any apprentice or other 7 training program or against any employer or any individual 8 employed by an employer; provided, however, that nothing herein 9 contained shall be construed to bar a labor organization from 10 excluding from its apprentice or other training programs any person 11 on the basis of sex in those certain circumstances where sex is a 12 bona fide occupational qualification reasonably necessary to the 13 normal operation of the particular apprentice or other training 14 program.

15 c. For any employer or employment agency to print or circulate 16 or cause to be printed or circulated any statement, advertisement or 17 publication, or to use any form of application for employment, or to 18 make an inquiry in connection with prospective employment, which 19 expresses, directly or indirectly, any limitation, specification or 20 discrimination as to race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, 21 age, marital status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, 22 affectional or sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, 23 disability, nationality, pregnancy, or sex or liability of any applicant 24 for employment for service in the Armed Forces of the United 25 States, or any intent to make any such limitation, specification or 26 discrimination, unless based upon a bona fide occupational 27 qualification.

28 d. For any person to take reprisals against any person because 29 that person has opposed any practices or acts forbidden under this 30 act or because that person has sought legal advice regarding rights 31 under this act, shared relevant information with legal counsel, 32 shared information with a governmental entity, or filed a complaint, 33 testified or assisted in any proceeding under this act, or to coerce, 34 intimidate, threaten or interfere with any person in the exercise or 35 enjoyment of, or on account of that person having aided or 36 encouraged any other person in the exercise or enjoyment of, any 37 right granted or protected by this act.

38 e. For any person, whether an employer or an employee or not,
39 to aid, abet, incite, compel or coerce the doing of any of the acts 40 forbidden under this act, or to attempt to do so.

41 f. (1) For any owner, lessee, proprietor, manager, superintendent, 42 agent, or employee of any place of public accommodation directly 43 or indirectly to refuse, withhold from or deny to any person any of 44 the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, or 45 to discriminate against any person in the furnishing thereof, or 46 directly or indirectly to publish, circulate, issue, display, post or 47 mail any written or printed communication, notice, or advertisement 48 to the effect that any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities,

1 or privileges of any such place will be refused, withheld from, or 2 denied to any person on account of the race, creed, color, national 3 origin, ancestry, marital status, civil union status, domestic 4 partnership status, pregnancy, sex, gender identity or expression, 5 affectional or sexual orientation, disability or nationality of such 6 person, or that the patronage or custom thereof of any person of any 7 particular race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital status, 8 civil union status, domestic partnership status, pregnancy status,
9 sex, gender identity or expression, affectional or sexual orientation,
10 disability or nationality is unwelcome, objectionable or not 11 acceptable, desired or solicited, and the production of any such 12 written or printed communication, notice or advertisement, 13 purporting to relate to any such place and to be made by any owner, 14 lessee, proprietor, superintendent or manager thereof, shall be 15 presumptive evidence in any action that the same was authorized by 16 such person; provided, however, that nothing contained herein shall 17 be construed to bar any place of public accommodation which is in 18 its nature reasonably restricted exclusively to individuals of one 19 sex, and which shall include but not be limited to any summer 20 camp, day camp, or resort camp, bathhouse, dressing room, 21 swimming pool, gymnasium, comfort station, dispensary, clinic or 22 hospital, or school or educational institution which is restricted 23 exclusively to individuals of one sex, provided individuals shall be 24 admitted based on their gender identity or expression, from 25 refusing, withholding from or denying to any individual of the 26 opposite sex any of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or 27 privileges thereof on the basis of sex; provided further, that the 28 foregoing limitation shall not apply to any restaurant as defined in 29 R.S.33:1-1 or place where alcoholic beverages are served.

30 (2) Notwithstanding the definition of "a place of public 31 accommodation" as set forth in subsection l. of section 5 of 32 P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-5), for any owner, lessee, proprietor, 33 manager, superintendent, agent, or employee of any private club or 34 association to directly or indirectly refuse, withhold from or deny to 35 any individual who has been accepted as a club member and has 36 contracted for or is otherwise entitled to full club membership any 37 of the accommodations, advantages, facilities or privileges thereof, 38 or to discriminate against any member in the furnishing thereof on 39 account of the race, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, marital 40 status, civil union status, domestic partnership status, pregnancy,
41 sex, gender identity, or expression, affectional or sexual orientation, 42 disability or nationality of such person.

43 In addition to the penalties otherwise provided for a violation of 44 P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-1 et seq.), if the violator of paragraph (2) 45 of subsection f. of this section is the holder of an alcoholic beverage 46 license issued under the provisions of R.S.33:1-12 for that private 47 club or association, the matter shall be referred to the Director of 48 the Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control who shall impose an

1 appropriate penalty in accordance with the procedures set forth in 2 R.S.33:1-31.

3 g. For any person, including but not limited to, any owner, 4 lessee, sublessee, assignee or managing agent of, or other person 5 having the right of ownership or possession of or the right to sell, 6 rent, lease, assign, or sublease any real property or part or portion 7 thereof, or any agent or employee of any of these:

8 (1) To refuse to sell, rent, lease, assign, or sublease or otherwise

24 connection therewith;

25 (3) To print, publish, circulate, issue, display, post or mail, or 26 cause to be printed, published, circulated, issued, displayed, posted

29 assignment or sublease of any real property or part or portion 30 thereof, or to make any record or inquiry in connection with the 31 prospective purchase, rental, lease, assignment, or sublease of any

39 specification or discrimination, and the production of any such 40 statement, advertisement, publicity, sign, form of application, 41 record, or inquiry purporting to be made by any such person shall 42 be presumptive evidence in any action that the same was authorized 43 by such person; provided, however, that nothing contained in this 44 subsection shall be construed to bar any person from refusing to 45 sell, rent, lease, assign or sublease or from advertising or recording 46 a qualification as to sex for any room, apartment, flat in a dwelling 47 or residential facility which is planned exclusively for and occupied 48 by individuals of one sex to any individual of the exclusively

1 opposite sex on the basis of sex provided individuals shall be 25 p. Nothing in the provisions of this section shall affect the 26 ability of an employer to require employees to adhere to reasonable 27 workplace appearance, grooming and dress standards not precluded

28 by other provisions of State or federal law, except that an employer 29 shall allow an employee to appear, groom and dress consistent with 30 the employee's gender identity or expression.

31 q. (1) For any employer to impose upon a person as a condition 32 of obtaining or retaining employment, including opportunities for 33 promotion, advancement or transfers, any terms or conditions that 34 would require a person to violate or forego a sincerely held 35 religious practice or religious observance, including but not limited 36 to the observance of any particular day or days or any portion 37 thereof as a Sabbath or other holy day in accordance with the 38 requirements of the religion or religious belief, unless, after 39 engaging in a bona fide effort, the employer demonstrates that it is 40 unable to reasonably accommodate the employee's religious 41 observance or practice without undue hardship on the conduct of the 42 employer's business. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to 43 the contrary, an employee shall not be entitled to premium wages or 44 premium benefits for work performed during hours to which those 45 premium wages or premium benefits would ordinarily be 46 applicable, if the employee is working during those hours only as an 47 accommodation to his religious requirements. Nothing in this 48 subsection q. shall be construed as reducing:

- 1 (a) The number of the hours worked by the employee which are 2 counted towards the accruing of seniority, pension or other benefits; 3 or
- 4 (b) Any premium wages or benefits provided to an employee 5 pursuant to a collective bargaining agreement.
- 6 (2) For an employer to refuse to permit an employee to utilize 7 leave, as provided for in this subsection q., which is solely used to 8 accommodate the employee's sincerely held religious observance or 9 practice. Except where it would cause an employer to incur an 10 undue hardship, no person shall be required to remain at his place 11 of employment during any day or days or portion thereof that, as a 12 requirement of his religion, he observes as his Sabbath or other holy 13 day, including a reasonable time prior and subsequent thereto for 14 travel between his place of employment and his home; provided that 15 any such absence from work shall, wherever practicable in the 16 reasonable judgment of the employer, be made up by an equivalent 17 amount of time and work at some other mutually convenient time, 18 or shall be charged against any leave with pay ordinarily granted, 19 other than sick leave, and any such absence not so made up or 20 charged, may be treated by the employer of that person as leave 21 taken without pay.
- 22 (3) (a) For purposes of this subsection q., "undue hardship" 23 means an accommodation requiring unreasonable expense or 24 difficulty, unreasonable interference with the safe or efficient 25 operation of the workplace or a violation of a bona fide seniority 26 system or a violation of any provision of a bona fide collective 27 bargaining agreement.
- 28 (b) In determining whether the accommodation constitutes an 29 undue hardship, the factors considered shall include:
- 30 (i) The identifiable cost of the accommodation, including the 31 costs of loss of productivity and of retaining or hiring employees or 32 transferring employees from one facility to another, in relation to 33 the size and operating cost of the employer.
- 34 (ii) The number of individuals who will need the particular 35 accommodation for a sincerely held religious observance or 36 practice.
- 37 (iii) For an employer with multiple facilities, the degree to which 38 the geographic separateness or administrative or fiscal relationship 39 of the facilities will make the accommodation more difficult or 40 expensive.
- 41 (c) An accommodation shall be considered to constitute an 42 undue hardship if it will result in the inability of an employee to 43 perform the essential functions of the position in which he or she is 44 employed.
- 45 (d) (i) The provisions of this subsection q. shall be applicable 46 only to reasonable accommodations of religious observances and 47 shall not supersede any definition of undue hardship or standards 48 for reasonable accommodation of the disabilities of employees.

1 (ii) This subsection q. shall not apply where the uniform 2 application of terms and conditions of attendance to employees is 3 essential to prevent undue hardship to the employer. The burden of 4 proof regarding the applicability of this subparagraph (d) shall be 5 upon the employer.

6 r. For any employer to take reprisals against any employee for 7 requesting from, or disclosing to, any other employee or former 8 employee of the employer, a lawyer from whom the employee seeks 9 legal advice, or any government agency information regarding the 10 job title, occupational category, and rate of compensation, including 11 benefits, of the employee or any other employee or former 12 employee of the employer, or the gender, race, ethnicity, military 13 status, or national origin of the employee or any other employee or 14 former employee of the employer, regardless of whether the request 15 was responded to, if the purpose of the request for the information 16 was to assist in investigating the possibility of the occurrence of, or 17 in taking of legal action regarding, potential discriminatory 18 treatment concerning pay, compensation, bonuses, other 19 compensation, or benefits, or to require, as a condition of 20 employment, any employee or prospective employee to sign a 21 waiver, or to otherwise require an employee or prospective 22 employee to agree, not to make those requests or disclosures.
23 Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to require an 24 employee to disclose such information about the employee herself 25 to any other employee or former employee of the employer or to 26 any authorized representative of the other employee or former 27 employee.

28 s. For an employer to treat, for employment-related purposes, a 29 woman employee that the employer knows, or should know, is 30 affected by pregnancy in a manner less favorable than the treatment 31 of other persons not affected by pregnancy but similar in their 32 ability or inability to work. In addition, an employer of an 33 employee who is a woman affected by pregnancy shall make 34 available to the employee reasonable accommodation in the 35 workplace, such as bathroom breaks, breaks for increased water 36 intake, periodic rest, assistance with manual labor, job restructuring 37 or modified work schedules, and temporary transfers to less 38 strenuous or hazardous work, for needs related to the pregnancy 39 when the employee, based on the advice of her physician, requests 40 the accommodation, unless the employer can demonstrate that 41 providing the accommodation would be an undue hardship on the 42 business operations of the employer. The employer shall not in any 43 way penalize the employee in terms, conditions or privileges of 44 employment for requesting or using the accommodation. Workplace 45 accommodation provided pursuant to this subsection and paid or 46 unpaid leave provided to an employee affected by pregnancy shall 47 not be provided in a manner less favorable than accommodations or 48 leave provided to other employees not affected by pregnancy but

1 similar in their ability or inability to work. This subsection shall 2 not be construed as otherwise increasing or decreasing any 3 employee's rights under law to paid or unpaid leave in connection 4 with pregnancy.

5 For the purposes of this section "pregnancy" means pregnancy,
6 childbirth, or medical conditions related to pregnancy or childbirth, 7 including recovery from childbirth.

8 For the purposes of this subsection, in determining whether an 9 accommodation would impose undue hardship on the operation of 10 an employer's business, the factors to be considered include: the 11 overall size of the employer's business with respect to the number 12 of employees, number and type of facilities, and size of budget; the 13 type of the employer's operations, including the composition and 14 structure of the employer's workforce; the nature and cost of the 15 accommodation needed, taking into consideration the availability of 16 tax credits, tax deductions, and outside funding; and the extent to 17 which the accommodation would involve waiver of an essential 18 requirement of a job as opposed to a tangential or non-business 19 necessity requirement.

20 t. For an employer to pay any of its employees at a rate of 21 compensation, including benefits, which is less than the rate paid by 22 the employer to employees of the other sex for substantially similar 23 work, when viewed as a composite of skill, effort and 24 responsibility. An employer who is paying a rate of compensation 25 in violation of this subsection shall not reduce the rate of 26 compensation of any employee in order to comply with this 27 subsection. An employer may pay a different rate of compensation 28 only if the employer demonstrates that the differential is made 29 pursuant to a seniority system, a merit system, or the employer 30 demonstrates:

31 (1) That the differential is based on one or more legitimate, bona 32 fide factors other than sex, such as training, education or 33 experience, or the quantity or quality of production;

34 (2) That the factor or factors do not perpetuate a sex-based 35 differential in compensation;

36 (3) That each of the factors is applied reasonably;

37 (4) That one or more of the factors account for the entire wage 38 differential; and

39 (5) That the factors are job-related with respect to the position in 40 question and based on a legitimate business necessity. A factor 41 based on business necessity shall not apply if it is demonstrated that 42 there are alternative business practices that would serve the same 43 business purpose without producing the wage differential.

44 Comparisons of wage rates shall be based on wage rates in all of 45 an employer's operations or facilities.

46 (cf: P.L.2013, c.220, s.2)

1 2. Section 16 of P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-17) is amended to 2 read as follows:

3 16. If, upon all evidence at the hearing, the director shall find 4 that the respondent has engaged in any unlawful employment 5 practice or unlawful discrimination as defined in this act, the 6 director shall state his findings of fact and conclusions of law and 7 shall issue and cause to be served on such respondent an order 8 requiring such respondent to cease and desist from such unlawful 9 employment practice or unlawful discrimination and to take such 10 affirmative action, including, but not limited to, hiring, 11 reinstatement or upgrading of employees, with or without back pay, 12 or restoration to membership, in any respondent labor organization, 13 or extending full and equal accommodations, advantages, facilities, 14 and privileges to all persons, as, in the judgment of the director, will 15 effectuate the purpose of this act, and including a requirement for 16 report of the manner of compliance. If the conduct violative of this 17 act constitutes any form of unlawful economic discrimination 18 prohibited in ~~section 11, subsections~~ subsection 1., m., and or 19 n. of this act, ~~section 11 of P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-12), or any~~ 20 form of unlawful employment practice prohibited by subsection r.
21 or t. of section 11 of P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-12), the affirmative 22 action taken by the director may include the award of three-fold 23 damages to the person or persons aggrieved by the violation. The 24 director shall have the power to use reasonably certain bases, 25 including but not limited to list, catalogue or market prices or 26 values, or contract or advertised terms and conditions, in order to 27 determine particulars or performance in giving appropriate remedy.
28 In addition to any other remedies provided by P.L.1945, c.169
29 (C.10:5-1 et seq.), a prevailing complainant may recover damages 30 to compensate for emotional distress caused by the activities found 31 to be in violation of P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-1 et seq.) to the same 32 extent as is available in common law tort actions. In any case in 33 which the director, Attorney General, or appropriate organization is 34 a complainant, on behalf of named or unnamed individuals or a 35 class of individuals, any of the remedies or relief allowed by this act 36 may be awarded or applied to the named or unnamed individual 37 victims of discrimination. If, upon all evidence, the director shall 38 find that the respondent has not engaged in any such unlawful 39 practice or unlawful discrimination, the director shall state his 40 findings of fact and conclusions of law and shall issue and cause to 41 be served on the complainant an order dismissing the said complaint 42 as to such respondent.

43 (cf: P.L.2003, c.180, s.16)

44

45 3. (New section) a. Any employer, regardless of the location of 46 the employer, who enters into a contract with a public body to 47 provide qualifying services to the public body shall provide a report 48 to the Commissioner of Labor and Workforce Development, in a

1 form issued by regulation promulgated by the commissioner, of 2 information regarding the gender, race, job title, occupational 3 category, and total compensation of every employee of the 4 employer employed in the State in connection with the contract.
5 The employer shall provide the commissioner, throughout the 6 duration of the contract or contracts, with an update to the report 7 each time there is a significant change in any of the information that 8 the employer is required to report pursuant to this section, or other 9 significant change in employment status, including, but not limited 10 to, medical leave of 12 weeks or more, hiring, termination for any 11 reason, a change in part-time or full-time status, or a change in 12 “employee” or “contractor” status.

13 b. Any employer, regardless of the location of the employer, 14 who enters into a contract with a public body to perform any public 15 work for the public body shall provide to the commissioner, through 16 certified payroll records required pursuant to P.L.1963, c.150
17 (C.34:11-56.25 et seq.), information regarding the gender, race, job 18 title, occupational category, and rate of total compensation of every 19 employee of the employer employed in the State in connection with 20 the contract. The employer shall provide the commissioner, 21 throughout the duration of the contract or contracts, with an update 22 to the information whenever payroll records are required to be 23 submitted pursuant to P.L.1963, c.150 (C.34:11-56.25 et seq.).

24 c. The commissioner shall retain the information provided by 25 the employer during any period of time that one or more contracts 26 are in effect between the employer and any public body and not less 27 than five years after the end of that period. The retained 28 employment information shall be made available by the 29 commissioner to the Division on Civil Rights in the Department of 30 Law and Public Safety, and, upon request, provided to anyone who 31 is or was an employee of the employer during the period of any of 32 the contracts between the employer and any public body, or any 33 authorized representative of the employee.

34 d. For the purposes of the section:

36 of the State;

37 “Public work” means public work as defined in section 2 of 39 provisions of P.L.1963, c.150 (C.34:11-56.25 et seq.). Public work 40 shall not include the provision of goods or products.

41 “Qualifying services” means the provision of any service to the 42 State or to any other public body, except for public work as defined 43 in section 2 of P.L.1963, c.150 (C.34:11-56.26).

44 “Service” means any act performed in exchange for payment, 45 including the provision of professional services, but shall not 46 include the sale of goods or products.

47

48 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

This bill modifies current law, including the Law Against Discrimination, P.L.1945, c.169 (C.10:5-1 et seq.) (“LAD”), to strengthen protections against employment discrimination and promote equal pay for women.

The bill amends the LAD to make it an unlawful employment practice for an employer to discriminate between employees on the basis of sex by paying a rate of compensation, including benefits, to employees of one sex less than the rate paid to employees of the other sex for substantially similar work, when viewed as a composite of skill, effort and responsibility. The bill prohibits any employer paying a rate in violation of the bill from reducing the rate of compensation of any employee in order to comply with the bill. The bill permits an employer to pay a different rate of compensation if the employer demonstrates that the differential is made pursuant to a seniority system or a merit system, or is based on legitimate, bona fide factors other than sex, such as training, education, experience, or the quantity or quality of production, that each factor is applied reasonably, that one or more of the factors account for the entire wage differential, and that the factor or factors do not perpetuate a sex-based differential in compensation, are job-related and based upon legitimate business necessities.

The bill also amends the LAD to prohibit an employer from taking reprisals against an employee for disclosing information about job titles, occupational categories, rates of compensation, gender, race, ethnicity, military status, or national origin of employees or former employees. It prohibits an employer from requiring, as a condition of employment, any employee or prospective employee to waive rights under the law.

The bill provides for the awarding of three-fold damages for violations of its provisions.

The bill further provides that a discriminatory compensation decision or other employment practice that is unlawful under the LAD occurs each occasion that compensation is paid in furtherance of that discriminatory decision or practice. This provision thus restarts the applicable statute of limitations governing discriminatory compensation claims under the LAD, effectively making each paycheck another instance of the discriminatory compensation decision or other practice and therefore a new or continuing violation. In addition, the bill provides that liability shall accrue and an aggrieved person may obtain relief for back pay for the entire period of time in which the violation has been continuous, if the violation continues to occur within the statute of limitations.

The bill provides that nothing in the LAD will prohibit application of the doctrine of “continuing violation” or the “discovery rule” to any appropriate claim as those doctrines

1 currently exist in New Jersey common law. The bill also makes it a 2 violation of the LAD for an employer to require an employee to 3 agree to any reduction of any applicable statute of limitation.

4 Finally, the bill requires an employer entering into a contract
5 with the State to provide information concerning every employee 6 employed in connection with the contract, including information 7 regarding the employee's gender, race, job title, occupational 8 category, and total compensation, and report specified significant 9 changes in employee status during the contract. The Commissioner 10 of Labor and Workforce Development is required to retain and 11 make the information available to the Division of Civil Rights, and, 12 upon request, employees and their authorized representatives.
