STATEMENT

24

25 This bill repeals the section 7 of the “Work First New Jersey
26 Act,” which prohibits a household from gaining additional cash
27 assistance benefits as a result of the birth of a child. Such policies 28 that prevent an increase in welfare benefits as a result of the birth of 29 a child are commonly known as “family caps.”

30 The Work First New Jersey – Temporary Assistance to Needy
31 Families (TANF) program provides cash and other assistance to low
32 income families with dependent children. The amount of monthly 33 cash assistance provided to a household by the program is based on 34 the household’s size. However, current law prevents the amount of 35 the grant from increasing as the result of the birth of a child, unless 36 the child is born fewer than 10 months after applying for benefits or 37 the birth of the child is a result of rape or incest. Certain limited 38 exceptions to the family cap are provided pursuant to 39 N.J.A.C.10:90-2.18 for families with a working parent and for 40 children born to minors.
