STATEMENT

This bill requires every home improvement contractor and home elevation contractor subject to the requirements of the “Contractors’ Registration Act,” P.L.2004, c.16 (C.56:8-136 et seq.), to undergo a criminal history record background check. The background check will ensure that no criminal history record information exists on file in the Federal Bureau of Investigation, or in the State Bureau of Identification in the Division of State Police, indicating that the home improvement contractor or home elevation contractor has been convicted of any crime that may disqualified a contractor for registration. The criminal history record background check requirement provided for in this bill replaces the requirement in current law that home improvement and home elevation contractors disclose convictions for certain disqualifying crimes.
