2 maintain an interactive Internet website providing information
3 concerning every holder of a limited brewery license or restricted 4 brewery license issued by the State. The division is required to 5 update the website whenever the Director of the Division of 6 Alcoholic Beverage Control notifies the division that new breweries

11 New Jersey enjoys a rich brewing history dating back to the 12 1600s and many innovative brewing techniques were born in the 13 Garden State. Today, New Jersey is home to more than three dozen 14 craft breweries and brewpubs, many of which have won awards at 15 various beer competitions and festivals. Small and independent
16 American craft brewers contributed $33.9 billion and 360,000 jobs
17 to the United States economy, while New Jersey's craft beer
18 industry contributed 8,565 full-time equivalent jobs to the State's 19 economy in 2012. New Jersey is in an excellent position to 20 establish its breweries as travel destinations for educational and 21 recreational purposes to reach new consumers, create jobs, and 22 generate more revenue for New Jersey's craft beer industry.
