CURRENT VERSION OF TEXT
As reported by the Senate Budget and Appropriations Committee on December 5, 2019, with amendments.

(Sponsorship Updated As Of: 12/17/2019)
AN ACT providing for the licensure of \textit{applied} behavior analysts and supplementing Title 45 of the Revised Statutes.

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State of New Jersey:

1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the “\textit{Applied} Behavior Analyst Licensing Act.”

2. The practice of applied behavior analysis in the State of New Jersey is determined to affect the public safety and welfare, and to be subject to regulation and control in the public interest in order to protect the public by setting standards of qualification, education, training, and experience for those persons seeking to practice and be licensed as \textit{applied} behavior analysts and assistant \textit{applied} behavior analysts.

3. As used in this act:
   “Board” means the State Board of \textit{Applied} Behavior Analyst Examiners.
   “\textit{Behavior} \textit{Applied behavior} analysis” means the practice of designing, implementing, and evaluating instructional and environmental modifications to produce socially significant improvements in human behavior, including the empirical identification of functional relations between behavior and environmental factors, known as functional assessment and analysis. \textit{Behavior} \textit{Applied behavior} analysis interventions are based on scientific research and direct and indirect observation and measurement of behavior and environment. \textit{Behavior} \textit{Applied behavior} analysts utilize contextual factors, motivating operations, antecedent stimuli, positive reinforcement, and other procedures to help individuals develop new behaviors, increase or decrease existing behaviors, and emit behaviors under specific environmental conditions. The practice of behavior analysis does not include psychological testing, diagnosis of mental \textit{or} physical \textit{or} speech language, hearing, and other communication and swallowing disorders, neuropsychology, psychotherapy, cognitive therapy, sex therapy, psychoanalysis, hypnotherapy, and counseling as treatment modalities.
   \textit{Certifying entity} means the Behavior Analyst Certification Board, Incorporated, or any successor organization whose programs to certify professional practitioners of behavior analysis are accredited by the National Commission on Certifying Agencies or the American National Standards Institute.

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets \{thus\} in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.

Any vacancy in the membership of the board shall be filled for the unexpired term in the manner provided for the original appointment. No member of the board may serve more than two successive terms in addition to any unexpired term to which the member has been appointed.

5. The board shall organize within 30 days after the appointment of its members and shall annually elect from among its members a chairperson and vice-chairperson, and shall appoint a secretary who need not be a member of the board. The board shall meet twice a year and may hold additional meetings as necessary to discharge its duties. A majority of the board membership shall constitute a quorum.

6. The board shall:
   a. adopt a seal to authenticate its records and proceedings;
   b. prescribe rules pertaining to the requirements of qualification for licensure, including education, professional experience, and the types and methods of examination of applicants for licensure;
   c. examine and pass on the qualifications of applicants for licensure under this act, and issue a license to each qualified and successful applicant, attesting to the applicant’s professional qualification to practice as a licensed applied behavior analyst or licensed assistant applied behavior analyst;
   d. keep records of its proceedings and a register of all persons to whom licenses have been issued, and a record of all license renewals, suspensions and revocations;
   e. maintain records of expenses incurred by members of the board in the performance of their duties;
   f. take disciplinary action, in accordance with P.L.1978, c.73 (C.45:1-14 et seq.), against any licensed applied behavior analyst or licensed assistant applied behavior analyst who violates the provisions of this act or any regulation promulgated hereunder;
   g. adopt rules and regulations pursuant to the “Administrative Procedure Act,” P.L.1968, c.410 (C.52:14B-1 et seq.) as it deems necessary to administer the provisions of this act; and
   h. pursuant to P.L.1974, c.46 (C.45:1-3.1 et seq.), prescribe or change the charges for licensure, renewal and other services performed.

7. There shall be an Executive Director of the board appointed by the director who shall serve at the director's pleasure. The salary of the Executive Director shall be determined by the director within the limits of available funds. The director may, within the limits of available funds, hire any assistants as are necessary to administer this act.

8. a. No person shall practice, attempt to practice, or make any representation as being able to practice as a licensed behavior analyst or licensed assistant behavior analyst unless the person is licensed in accordance with the provisions of this act.
