1 A JOINT RESOLUTION calling on the Congress of the United States
2 to permit incarcerated individuals to use their home address as 3 their address of record for the purpose of the federal decennial
4 census.
5
6 WHEREAS, Article I, Section II, paragraph 3 of the Constitution of the 7 United States requires that an enumeration of the population of the 8 country, known popularly as the census, be taken once every 10
9 years; and
10 WHEREAS, The information thus collected is used by the states to 11 drawn Congressional districts equal in population through a process 12 known as redistricting, and the information is also used for the 13 distribution of money and other benefits by the federal government; 14 and
15 WHEREAS, Pursuant to rules adopted and followed by the Census
16 Bureau, a person is considered a resident of a particular locality if 17 the person is a “usual resident,” meaning the person lives and sleeps 18 there most of the time, with limited exceptions; and 19 WHEREAS, Because of this rule, a person who is incarcerated in a 20 correctional facility at the time the census is taken is considered a 21 “usual resident” of the location of the facility, not of the address at 22 which the person was living before incarceration; and 23 WHEREAS, Prisons are often located in rural areas of the country, so 24 that counting prisoners as usual residents of the area inflates the 25 allocation of congressional seats in such places while taking 26 population away from the urban areas that most prisoners call 27 home; and
28 WHEREAS, Because most incarcerated individuals are people of color
29 from urban areas, the Census Bureau’s policy usually leads to a 30 diminution of political power and federal benefits allocated to 31 people of color who live in cities and an unfair allocation of 32 political power and federal benefits to predominately white and 33 rural areas of the country; and
34 WHEREAS, Although the Census Bureau considered changing the rule
35 between 2015 and 2016, the bureau announced in February of 2018
36 that the policy for the 2020 census would continue to be the policy 37 of counting incarcerated people where they are imprisoned because 38 it considered that to be the place where such people lived and spent 39 the most time; and
40 WHEREAS, It is notable that the Census Bureau does collect
41 information on correctional facility populations during the census
42 and that it makes such information available to the states to assist 43 them with adjusting data to account for incarcerated individuals if 44 the states so choose; and
45 WHEREAS, It is also notable that four states—California, Delaware,
46 Maryland, and New York—will use this information to reallocate
47 the location of incarcerated individuals to their home communities

1 during the redistricting cycle that follows the 2020 Census, but 46
2 states, including New Jersey, will not be doing so; and

3 WHEREAS, Given the basic unfairness that results from the “usual
4 resident” rule, and the fact that it is possible to rectify this disparity
5 without difficulty, as shown by California, Delaware, Maryland,
6 and New York, it is fitting and proper for this State to call on the 7 Congress of the United States to permit incarcerated individuals to 8 use their home address as their address of record for the purpose of 9 the federal decennial census; now, therefore,

10

11 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate and General Assembly of the 12 State of New Jersey:

14 1. This State calls on the Congress of the United States to 15 permit incarcerated individuals to use their home address as their 16 address of record for the purpose of the federal decennial census.

17

18 2. Copies of this resolution, as filed with the Secretary of State, 19 shall be transmitted by the Clerk of the General Assembly or the 20 Secretary of the Senate to the Majority and Minority Leaders of the 21 United States Senate, the Speaker and Minority Leader of the 22 United States House of Representatives, and to every member of 23 Congress elected from this State.

24

25 3. This joint resolution shall take effect immediately.
