STATEMENT

The New Jersey Constitution at Article II, Section I, paragraph 7 grants the Legislature the authority to deny the right of suffrage to persons convicted of crimes designated by the Legislature.
Pursuant to this authority, the Legislature has provided in the New Jersey Criminal Code, at N.J.S.A.2C:51-3, that a person who is convicted of a crime is disqualified from "voting in any primary, municipal, special or general election as determined by the provisions of R.S.19:4-1.” R.S.19:4-1, in relevant part, denies the right of suffrage to any person “who is serving a sentence or is on parole or probation as a result of a conviction of any indictable offense under the laws of this or another state or of the United States.” In New Jersey, indictable offenses are crimes of the fourth through first degree. A crime carries a sentence of imprisonment in excess of six months. Disorderly persons offenses and petty disorderly persons offenses are not crimes within the meaning of the State Constitution.

Thus, at present, an individual who is convicted of a crime of the fourth through first degree is prohibited from voting in any primary, municipal, special or general election while serving a sentence for that crime and while on parole or probation as a result of that conviction. Conviction of an indictable offense in another state or under the laws of the United States similarly results in loss of the right to vote in New Jersey while the convicted person is serving a sentence for that crime and while on parole or probation. This bill permits a person who is on parole or probation to vote, without distinction as to the degree of crime committed. The bill also requires the chief probation officer in each county, the State Parole Board and the Commissioner of Corrections to assist each person under their jurisdiction who is eligible to vote and desires to vote in completing a voter registration form.
