STATEMENT

13 This bill directs the Department of Health (DOH) to establish an 14 animal abuser registry, provides a process by which persons who 15 have previously been convicted and persons who are newly 16 convicted of a criminal animal cruelty violation are to be included 17 on the animal abuser registry, and updates current law concerning 18 persons ineligible to be an animal control officer due to a 19 conviction for an animal cruelty violation. The bill would take 20 effect on January 1 next following enactment.

21 Under the bill, the DOH is required to establish the animal
22 abuser registry and publish the registry on its website. The bill
23 requires the registry to include the full legal name of any person 24 who has been convicted of a criminal animal cruelty violation, any 25 photographs obtained during the criminal booking process, and 26 other pertinent information that the DOH determines will properly 27 identify the animal abuser. The bill prohibits the registry from 28 including the Social Security number, driver's license number, or 29 any other state or federal identification number of any person.

30 For the purpose of establishing the animal abuser registry, the 31 bill requires the Administrative Office of the Courts, the 32 Department of Law and Public Safety, and any other governmental 33 or other official administrative entity maintaining records of 34 criminal animal cruelty convictions to provide notice to the 35 Commissioner of Health of any person the Administrative Office of 36 the Courts, the Department of Law and Public Safety, or other 37 entity is aware of who has been convicted in the last 10 years of a 38 criminal animal cruelty violation. The bill requires this notice to be 39 provided to the commissioner electronically or in writing, within 90
40 days after the effective date of the bill.

41 For the purpose of maintaining the animal abuser registry, the 42 bill requires a court adjudging the guilt for a criminal animal cruelty 43 violation to charge the prosecutor or other appropriate person, with 44 the responsibility to notify the Commissioner of Health with the full 45 name of the person convicted of the criminal animal cruelty
46 violation and the criminal animal cruelty violation for which or of 47 which that person was found guilty. The bill requires the person

1 charged with the responsibility to provide such notice to the 2 commissioner within 30 days.

3 Finally, the bill expands the criminal violations related to animal
4 abuse that disqualify an individual from serving as a certified 5 animal control officer, and permits the Commissioner of Health to 6 use the animal abuser registry to maintain a list of persons ineligible 7 to be animal control officers due to a conviction for animal cruelty.
