4. a. Each municipal court in this State shall have at least one municipal prosecutor appointed by the governing body of the municipality, municipalities or county in accordance with applicable laws, ordinances and resolutions.

b. A municipal prosecutor shall be an attorney-at-law of this State in good standing, and shall serve for a term of one year from the date of his or her appointment, except as determined by the governing body of a county or a city of the first class with a population greater than 270,000, according to the latest federal decennial census, or the governing body of a city of the second class with a population of greater than 30,000 but less than 43,000, according to the latest decennial census, which city of the second class is located in a county of the first class with a population less than 600,000 according to the latest federal decennial census, and may continue to serve in office pending re-appointment or appointment of a successor. In the case of a central municipal court, the county shall fix the compensation of the municipal prosecutor and provide for its payment.

The compensation of municipal prosecutors shall be in lieu of any and all other fees; provided, however that when a municipal prosecutor is assigned to prosecute a de novo appeal in the Superior Court, the prosecutor shall be entitled to additional compensation unless the municipality expressly provides otherwise at the time the compensation is fixed.

STATEMENT

This bill amends the existing law concerning training programs for municipal prosecutors.
Presently, section 10 of P.L. 1999, c.349 (C.2B:25-10) provides that the Attorney General, in consultation with the county and municipal prosecutors, may develop curricula for training programs for all municipal prosecutors. Participation in such training is voluntary.
The bill amends this section to provide that the Attorney General, in consultation with the county and municipal prosecutors, shall develop or identify curricula for domestic violence training and may develop or identify curricula for other training programs for municipal prosecutors. Participation in such training programs would be voluntary, except that participation in the domestic violence training program would be mandatory.
A municipal prosecutor may satisfy the requirement of participation in the domestic violence training program if he successfully completes a training program offered by the Attorney General, a county prosecutor, or any other public entity that provides a training program that conforms to the requirements described in paragraph (3) of subsection b. of section 4 of P.L.1991, c.261 (C.2C:25-20), part of the domestic violence statutes. Nothing in the bill would preclude the provision of continuing legal education credits for the completion of such a training program.

The bill requires that the domestic violence training course and curriculum be reviewed at least every two years and modified by the Division of Criminal Justice from time to time as need may require. Nothing in the bill would limit the ability of a county prosecutor to modify the domestic violence training program that the prosecutor provides to municipal prosecutors in that county from time to time as need may require in order to conform to the particular practices and customs in that county.

The county prosecutor would be responsible for confirming that all persons appointed as or serving as municipal prosecutors within the county have complied with the requirement to attend an initial domestic violence training within 90 days of appointment or transfer and annual training of at least four hours.

Under the bill, no governing body shall appoint, and no person shall serve as, a municipal prosecutor unless that person has successfully completed the domestic violence training course set forth in the bill.

This bill embodies recommendation 17 of the Report of the Supreme Court Ad Hoc Committee on Domestic Violence issued June 2016.

The bill would take effect on the first day of the sixth month following enactment.
