STATEMENT

23 This bill provides for the extension of the retirement date for a 24 member of the State Police Retirement System who is required to 25 retire upon attaining the age of 55 years. If the retirement date falls 26 during a period of a public health emergency or state of emergency 27 declared by the Governor, the bill requires the retirement date to be 28 extended, if the member makes such a request, for a short period of 29 time following the end of the emergency.
