7 1. R.S.34:15-28 is amended to read as follows:

8 34:15-28. Interest on payments withheld. Whenever lawful 9 compensation shall have been withheld from an injured employee or 10 dependents for a term of [three months] 45 or more days following
11 entry of a judgment or order, simple interest on each weekly payment 12 for the period of delay of each payment [may, at the discretion of the 13 division,] shall be added to the amount due at the time of settlement.
14 In any case of benefits which are delayed for one year or more
15 following the expiration of the 26-week period which commences 16 upon the date that the employer is notified of the death, injury or 17 occupational disease, upon the date of the employee's final active 18 medical treatment or upon the date that the employee returns to work,
19 whichever date is later, the division shall add simple interest on each 20 weekly payment for the period of delay of each payment to the amount 21 due at the time of settlement, unless the division finds and states that 22 the delay was because of reasons beyond the control of the employer
23 or the employer's carrier. If interest is ordered with respect to weekly 24 benefits preceding the entry of the order or judgement, the interest 25 shall be calculated from the date of expiration of the 26-week period 26 which commences upon the date that the employer is notified of the 27 death, injury or occupational disease, upon the date of the employee's 28 final active medical treatment or upon the date that the employee 29 returns to work, whichever date is later. The annual rate of interest on 30 payments withheld shall equal the average rate of return, to the nearest 31 whole or one-half percent, for the corresponding preceding fiscal year
32 terminating on June 30, of the State of New Jersey Cash Management 33 Fund (State accounts) as reported by the Division of Investment in the
