35 7. N.J.S.2C:13-4 is amended to read as follows:

36 2C:13-4. Interference with custody. a. Custody of children. A 37 person, including a parent, guardian or other lawful custodian, is guilty 38 of interference with custody if he:

39 (1) Takes or detains a minor child with the purpose of concealing 40 the minor child and thereby depriving the child's other parent of 41 custody or [visitation of] parenting time with the minor child; or

42 (2) After being served with process or having actual knowledge of 43 an action affecting marriage or custody but prior to the issuance of a 44 temporary or final order determining custody and [visitation] parenting 45 time rights to a minor child, takes, detains, entices or conceals the 46 child within or outside the State for the purpose of depriving the

1 child's other parent of custody or [visitation] parenting time, or to 2 evade the jurisdiction of the courts of this State;

3 (3) After being served with process or having actual knowledge of 4 an action affecting the protective services needs of a child pursuant to 5 Title 9 of the Revised Statutes in an action affecting custody, but prior 6 to the issuance of a temporary or final order determining custody 7 rights of a minor child, takes, detains, entices or conceals the child 8 within or outside the State for the purpose of evading the jurisdiction 9 of the courts of this State; or

10 (4) After the issuance of a temporary or final order specifying 11 custody, [visitation or] joint custody rights or parenting time, takes, 12 detains, entices or conceals a minor child from the other parent in 13 violation of the custody or [visitation] parenting time order.

14 Interference with custody is a crime of the third degree but the 15 presumption of non-imprisonment set forth in subsection e. of 16 N.J.S.2C:44-1 for a first offense of a crime of the third degree shall 17 not apply. However, if the child is taken, detained, enticed or 18 concealed outside the United States, interference with custody is a 19 crime of the second degree.

20 b. Custody of committed persons. A person is guilty of a crime of 21 the fourth degree if he knowingly takes or entices any committed 22 person away from lawful custody when he is not privileged to do so.

24 judicial warrant, any orphan, neglected or delinquent child, mentally 25 defective or insane person, or other dependent or incompetent person 26 entrusted to another's custody by or through a recognized social 27 agency or otherwise by authority of law.

28 c. It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under subsection a.
29 of this section, which must be proved by clear and convincing 30 evidence, that:

31 (1) The actor reasonably believed that the action was necessary to 32 preserve the child from imminent danger to his welfare. However, no 33 defense shall be available pursuant to this subsection if the actor does 34 not, as soon as reasonably practicable but in no event more than 24 35 hours after taking a child under his protection, give notice of the 36 child's location to the police department of the municipality where the 37 child resided, the office of the county prosecutor in the county where 38 the child resided, or the Division of Youth and Family Services in the 39 Department of Human Services;

40 (2) The actor reasonably believed that the taking or detaining of 41 the minor child was consented to by the other parent, or by an 42 authorized State agency; or

43 (3) The child, being at the time of the taking or concealment not 44 less than 14 years old, was taken away at his own volition and without 45 purpose to commit a criminal offense with or against the child.

46 d. It is an affirmative defense to a prosecution under subsection a.

1 of this section that a parent having the right of custody reasonably 2 believed he was fleeing from imminent physical danger from the other 3 parent, provided that the parent having custody, as soon as reasonably 4 practicable:

5 (1) Gives notice of the child's location to the police department of 6 the municipality where the child resided, the office of the county 7 prosecutor in the county where the child resided, or the Division of 8 Youth and Family Services in the Department of Human Services; or 9 (2) Commences an action affecting custody in an appropriate court.

10 e. The offenses enumerated in this section are continuous in nature 11 and continue for so long as the child is concealed or detained.

12 f. (1) In addition to any other disposition provided by law, a 13 person convicted under subsection a. of this section shall make 14 restitution of all reasonable expenses and costs, including reasonable 15 counsel fees, incurred by the other parent in securing the child's return.

16 (2) In imposing sentence under subsection a. of this section the 17 court shall consider, in addition to the factors enumerated in chapter 18 44 of Title 2C of the New Jersey Statutes:

19 (a) Whether the person returned the child voluntarily; and 20 (b) The length of time the child was concealed or detained.

21 g. As used in this section, "parent" means a parent, guardian or 22 other lawful custodian of a minor child.

23 (cf: P.L.1990, c.104, s.1.)

24

25 8. Section 13 of P.L.1991, c.261 (C.2C:25-29) is amended to read
26 as follows:

27 13. a. A hearing shall be held in the Family Part of the Chancery 28 Division of the Superior Court within 10 days of the filing of a 29 complaint pursuant to section 12 of ¹[this act] P.L.1991, c.261 30 (C.2C:25-28)¹ in the county where the ex parte restraints were 31 ordered, unless good cause is shown for the hearing to be held 32 elsewhere. A copy of the complaint shall be served on the defendant 33 in conformity with the Rules of Court. If a criminal complaint arising 34 out of the same incident which is the subject matter of a complaint
35 brought under P.L.1981, c.426 (C.2C:25-1 et seq.) or P.L.1991, c.261 36 (C.2C:25-17 et seq.) has been filed, testimony given by the plaintiff or 37 defendant in the domestic violence matter shall not be used in the 38 simultaneous or subsequent criminal proceeding against the defendant, 39 other than domestic violence contempt matters and where it would 40 otherwise be admissible hearsay under the rules of evidence that 41 govern where a party is unavailable. At the hearing the standard for 42 proving the allegations in the complaint shall be by a preponderance 43 of the evidence. The court shall consider but not be limited to the 44 following factors:

45 (1) The previous history of domestic violence between the plaintiff 46 and defendant, including threats, harassment and physical abuse;

- 1 (2) The existence of immediate danger to person or property;
- 2 (3) The financial circumstances of the plaintiff and defendant;
- 3 (4) The best interests of the victim and any child;
- 4 (5) In determining custody and [visitation] parenting time the
- 5 protection of the victim's safety; and
- 6 (6) The existence of a verifiable order of protection from another
- 7 jurisdiction.

8 An order issued under this act shall only restrain or provide 9 damages payable from a person against whom a complaint has been 10 filed under this act and only after a finding or an admission is made 11 that an act of domestic violence was committed by that person. The 12 issue of whether or not a violation of this act occurred, including an 13 act of contempt under this act, shall not be subject to mediation or 14 negotiation in any form. In addition, where a temporary or final order 15 has been issued pursuant to this act, no party shall be ordered to 16 participate in mediation on the issue of custody or [visitation] 17 parenting time.

18 b. In proceedings in which complaints for restraining orders have 19 been filed, the court shall grant any relief necessary to prevent further 20 abuse. At the hearing the judge of the Family Part of the Chancery 21 Division of the Superior Court may issue an order granting any or all 22 of the following relief:

23 (1) An order restraining the defendant from subjecting the victim 24 to domestic violence, as defined in this act.

25 (2) An order granting exclusive possession to the plaintiff of the 26 residence or household regardless of whether the residence or 27 household is jointly or solely owned by the parties or jointly or solely 28 leased by the parties. This order shall not in any manner affect title or 29 interest to any real property held by either party or both jointly. If it 30 is not possible for the victim to remain in the residence, the court may 31 order the defendant to pay the victim's rent at a residence other than 32 the one previously shared by the parties if the defendant is found to 33 have a duty to support the victim and the victim requires alternative 34 housing.

35 (3) An order providing for [visitation] parenting time. The order 36 shall protect the safety and well-being of the plaintiff and minor 37 children and shall specify the place and frequency of [visitation] the 38 parenting time. [Visitation] Parenting time arrangements shall not 39 compromise any other remedy provided by the court by requiring or 40 encouraging contact between the plaintiff and defendant. Orders for 41 [visitation] parenting time may include a designation of a place of 42 [visitation] parenting time away from the plaintiff, the participation of 43 a third party, or supervised [visitation] parenting time.

44 (a) The court shall consider a request by a custodial parent who 45 has been subjected to domestic violence by a person with [visitation] 46 parenting time rights to a child in the parent's custody for an

1 investigation or evaluation by the appropriate agency to assess the risk 2 of harm to the child prior to the entry of a [visitation] parenting time 3 order. Any denial of such a request must be on the record and shall 4 only be made if the judge finds the request to be arbitrary or 5 capricious.

6 (b) The court shall consider suspension of the [visitation] parenting 7 time order and hold an emergency hearing upon an application made 8 by the plaintiff certifying under oath that the defendant's access to the 9 child pursuant to the [visitation] parenting time order has threatened 10 the safety and well-being of the child.

11 (4) An order requiring the defendant to pay to the victim monetary 12 compensation for losses suffered as a direct result of the act of 13 domestic violence. The order may require the defendant to pay the 14 victim directly, to reimburse the Violent Crimes Compensation Board 15 for any and all compensation paid by the Violent Crimes Compensation 16 Board directly to or on behalf of the victim, and may require that the 17 defendant reimburse any parties that may have compensated the 18 victim, as the court may determine. Compensatory losses shall include, 19 but not be limited to, loss of earnings or other support, including child 20 or spousal support, out-of-pocket losses for injuries sustained, cost of 21 repair or replacement of real or personal property damaged or 22 destroyed or taken by the defendant, cost of counseling for the victim, 23 moving or other travel expenses, reasonable attorney's fees, court 24 costs, and compensation for pain and suffering. Where appropriate, 25 punitive damages may be awarded in addition to compensatory 26 damages.

27 (5) An order requiring the defendant to receive professional 28 domestic violence counseling from either a private source or a source 29 appointed by the court and, in that event, at the court's discretion 30 requiring the defendant to provide the court at specified intervals with 31 documentation of attendance at the professional counseling. The court 32 may order the defendant to pay for the professional counseling.

33 (6) An order restraining the defendant from entering the residence, 34 property, school, or place of employment of the victim or of other 35 family or household members of the victim and requiring the defendant 36 to stay away from any specified place that is named in the order and 37 is frequented regularly by the victim or other family or household 38 members.

39 (7) An order restraining the defendant from making contact with 40 the plaintiff or others, including an order forbidding the defendant 41 from personally or through an agent initiating any communication 42 likely to cause annoyance or alarm including, but not limited to, 43 personal, written, or telephone contact with the victim or other family 44 members, or their employers, employees, or fellow workers, or others 45 with whom communication would be likely to cause annoyance or 46 alarm to the victim.

1 (8) An order requiring that the defendant make or continue to 2 make rent or mortgage payments on the residence occupied by the 3 victim if the defendant is found to have a duty to support the victim or 4 other dependent household members; provided that this issue has not 5 been resolved or is not being litigated between the parties in another 6 action.

7 (9) An order granting either party temporary possession of 8 specified personal property, such as an automobile, checkbook, 9 documentation of health insurance, an identification document, a key, 10 and other personal effects.

11 (10) An order awarding emergency monetary relief, including 12 emergency support for minor children, to the victim and other 13 dependents, if any. An ongoing obligation of support shall be 14 determined at a later date pursuant to applicable law.

15 (11) An order awarding temporary custody of a minor child. The 16 court shall presume that the best interests of the child are served by an 17 award of custody to the non-abusive parent.

18 (12) An order requiring that a law enforcement officer accompany 19 either party to the residence or any shared business premises to 20 supervise the removal of personal belongings in order to ensure the 21 personal safety of the plaintiff when a restraining order has been 22 issued. This order shall be restricted in duration.

23 (13) ¹[An order which permits the victim and the defendant to 24 occupy the same premises but limits the defendant's use of that 25 premises, but only if it is documented by the judge granting the order 26 that:

27 (a) The plaintiff specifically and voluntarily requests such an order; 28 and

29 (b) The judge determines that the request is made voluntarily and 30 with the plaintiff's knowledge that the order may not provide the same 31 protection as an order excluding the defendant from the premises and 32 with the plaintiff's knowledge that the order may be difficult to 33 enforce; and

34 (c) Any conditions placed upon the defendant in connection with 35 the continued access to the premises and any penalties for 36 noncompliance with those conditions shall be explicitly set out in the 37 order and shall be in addition to any other remedies for noncompliance
38 available to the victim.] Deleted by amendment, P.L.1995, c.242.¹

39 (14) An order granting any other appropriate relief for the plaintiff 40 and dependent children, provided that the plaintiff consents to such 41 relief, including relief requested by the plaintiff at the final hearing, 42 whether or not the plaintiff requested such relief at the time of the 43 granting of the initial emergency order.

44 (15) An order that requires that the defendant report to the intake
45 unit of the Family Part of the Chancery Division of the Superior Court 46 for monitoring of any other provision of the order.

1 (16) An order prohibiting the defendant from possessing any 2 firearm or other weapon enumerated in subsection r. of N.J.S.2C:39-1 3 and ordering the search for and seizure of any such weapon at any 4 location where the judge has reasonable cause to believe the weapon 5 is located. The judge shall state with specificity the reasons for and 6 scope of the search and seizure authorized by the order.

7 (17) An order prohibiting the defendant from stalking or following, 8 or threatening to harm, to stalk or to follow, the complainant or any 9 other person named in the order in a manner that, taken in the context 10 of past actions of the defendant, would put the complainant in 11 reasonable fear that the defendant would cause the death or injury of 12 the complainant or any other person. Behavior prohibited under this 13 act includes, but is not limited to, behavior prohibited under the 14 provisions of P.L.1992, c.209 (C.2C:12-10).

15 (18) An order requiring the defendant to undergo a psychiatric 16 evaluation.

17 c. Notice of orders issued pursuant to this section shall be sent by 18 the clerk of the Family Part of the Chancery Division of the Superior 19 Court or other person designated by the court to the appropriate chiefs 20 of police, members of the State Police and any other appropriate law 21 enforcement agency.

22 d. Upon good cause shown, any final order may be dissolved or 23 modified upon application to the Family Part of the Chancery Division
24 of the Superior Court, but only if the judge who dissolves or modifies 25 the order is the same judge who entered the order, or has available a 26 complete record of the hearing or hearings on which the order was 27 based.

28 (cf: P.L.1995, c.242, s.1)

29

30 9. R.S.9:2-4 is amended to read as follows:

31 9:2-4. The Legislature finds and declares that it is in the public 32 policy of this State to assure minor children of frequent and continuing 33 contact with both parents after the parents have separated or dissolved 34 their marriage and that it is in the public interest to encourage parents 35 to share the rights and responsibilities of child rearing in order to 36 effect this policy.

37 In any proceeding involving the custody of a minor child, the rights 38 of both parents shall be equal and the court shall enter an order which 39 may include:

40 a. Joint custody of a minor child to both parents, which is 41 comprised of legal custody or physical custody which shall include: (1) 42 provisions for residential arrangements so that a child shall reside 43 either solely with one parent or alternatively with each parent in 44 accordance with the needs of the parents and the child; and (2)
45 provisions for consultation between the parents in making major 46 decisions regarding the child's health, education and general welfare;

1 b. Sole custody to one parent with appropriate [visitation]
2 parenting time for the noncustodial parent; or

3 c. Any other custody arrangement as the court may determine to 4 be in the best interests of the child.

5 In making an award of custody, the court shall consider but not be 6 limited to the following factors: the parents' ability to agree, 7 communicate and cooperate in matters relating to the child; the 8 parents' willingness to accept custody and any history of unwillingness 9 to allow [visitation] parenting time not based on substantiated abuse; 10 the interaction and relationship of the child with its parents' and 11 siblings; the history of domestic violence, if any; the safety of the child 12 and the safety of either parent from physical abuse by the other parent; 13 the preference of the child when of sufficient age and capacity to 14 reason so as to form an intelligent decision; the needs of the child; the 15 stability of the home environment offered; the quality and continuity 16 of the child's education; the fitness of the parents; the geographical 17 proximity of the parents' homes; the extent and quality of the time 18 spent with the child prior to or subsequent to the separation; the 19 parents' employment responsibilities; and the age and number of the 20 children. A parent shall not be deemed unfit unless the parents' 21 conduct has a substantial adverse effect on the child.

22 The court, for good cause and upon its own motion, may appoint 23 a guardian ad litem or an attorney or both to represent the minor 24 child's interests. The court shall have the authority to award a counsel 25 fee to the guardian ad litem and the attorney and to assess that cost 26 between the parties to the litigation.

27 d. The court shall order any custody arrangement which is agreed 28 to by both parents unless it is contrary to the best interests of the 29 child.

30 e. In any case in which the parents cannot agree to a custody
31 arrangement, the court may require each parent to submit a custody 32 plan which the court shall consider in awarding custody.

33 f. The court shall specifically place on the record the factors which 34 justify any custody arrangement not agreed to by both parents.

36

37 10. Section 10 of P.L.1977, c.367 (C.9:3-46) is amended to read
38 as follows:

39 10. a. A person who is entitled to notice pursuant to section 9 of 40 P.L.1977, c.367 (C.9:3-45) shall have the right to object to the 41 adoption of his child. A judgment of adoption shall not be entered over 42 an objection of a parent communicated to the court by personal 43 appearance or by letter unless the court finds:

44 (1) that the parent has substantially failed to perform the regular 45 and expected parental functions of care and support of the child, 46 although able to do so, or

1 (2) that the parent is unable to perform the regular and expected 2 parental functions of care and support of the child and that the parent's 3 inability to perform those functions is unlikely to change in the 4 immediate future.

5 The regular and expected functions of care and support of a child 6 shall include the following:

7 (a) the maintenance of a relationship with the child such that the 8 child perceives the person as his parent;

9 (b) communicating with the child or person having legal custody 10 of the child and [visiting the child] parenting time rights unless 11 [visitation] having parenting time is impossible because of the parent's 12 confinement in an institution, or unless prevented from so doing by the 13 custodial parent or other custodian of the child or a social service 14 agency over the birth parent's objection; or 15 (c) providing financial support for the child unless prevented from 16 doing so by the custodial parent or other custodian of the child or a 17 social service agency.

18 A parent shall be presumed to have failed to perform the regular 19 and expected parental functions of care and support of the child if the 20 court finds that the situation set forth in paragraph (1) or (2) has
