

LEGISLATIVE FISCAL ESTIMATE TO

[First Reprint]
ASSEMBLY, No. 2121

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: NOVEMBER 1, 1996

Assembly Bill No. 2121(1R) of 1996 permits the Director of the Division of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to issue special Barnegat Bay Decoy and Baymen's Museum license plates, and other maritime history or marine life preservation project license plates. The director would be authorized to charge an initial application fee of $50 and a $10 renewal fee for each set of special plates which shall be in addition to all fees otherwise required by law. After reimbursing DMV for expenses associated with the issuance of the special plates, the remaining application and renewal fees are to be deposited into either the "Barnegat Bay Decoy and Baymen's Museum Account" or the "Maritime History and Marine Life Preservation Project Account," as the case may be. The monies in the respective accounts would be used to support and maintain the Barnegat Bay Decoy and Baymen's Museum, and for maritime history or marine life preservation projects.

In estimates for previous bills authorizing the issuance of special license plates, DMV estimated total fixed costs to be about $41,000, for reprogramming agency and revenue automated systems, and for one-time die costs. Variable costs would be about $8 for the issuance of each set of special plates. However, since DMV is generally unable to estimate public interest in new, special license plates, it does not project revenues.

The Office of Legislative Services (OLS) concurs with previous DMV cost estimates for the issuance of new, special license plates. However, as a possible reference range for potential revenues, OLS would note that DMV has estimated that FY 1997 revenues from special plates for animal welfare would provide about $353,000, plates for wildlife conservation would provide about $180,000, and plates for shore conservation would provide about $629,000.

This legislative fiscal estimate has been produced by the Office of Legislative Services due to the failure of the Executive Branch to respond to our request for a fiscal note.

This fiscal estimate has been prepared pursuant to P.L.1980, c.67.
