26 STATEMENT

27
28 This bill appropriates $360,000 to the Division of Fire Safety in the 29 Department of Community Affairs to offer or approve educational 30 programs for incident management training as required under 31 P.L.1995, c.266. The incident management training would enable a 32 fire service to implement a coordinated attack on a fire emergency by 33 controlling the position and duties of all fire fighters, while also 34 regulating rest and work cycles and providing a safety focus at each 35 fire scene.
