1 AN ACT concerning the continuation of child support under certain
2 circumstances and amending N.J.S.2A:34-23

3

4 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
5 of New Jersey:

6

7 1. N.J.S.2A:34-23 is amended to read as follows:

8 2A:34-23. Pending any matrimonial action brought in this State or 9 elsewhere, or after judgment of divorce or maintenance, whether 10 obtained in this State or elsewhere, the court may make such order as 11 to the alimony or maintenance of the parties, and also as to the care, 12 custody, education and maintenance of the children, or any of them, 13 as the circumstances of the parties and the nature of the case shall 14 render fit, reasonable and just, and require reasonable security for the 15 due observance of such orders, including, but not limited to, the 16 creation of trusts or other security devices, to assure payment of 17 reasonably foreseeable medical and educational expenses. Upon 18 neglect or refusal to give such reasonable security, as shall be required, 19 or upon default in complying with any such order, the court may 20 award and issue process for the immediate sequestration of the 21 personal estate, and the rents and profits of the real estate of the party 22 so charged, and appoint a receiver thereof, and cause such personal 23 estate and the rents and profits of such real estate, or so much thereof 24 as shall be necessary, to be applied toward such alimony and 25 maintenance as to the said court shall from time to time seem 26 reasonable and just; or the performance of the said orders may be 27 enforced by other ways according to the practice of the court. Orders 28 so made may be revised and altered by the court from time to time as 29 circumstances may require.

30 The court may order one party to pay a retainer on behalf of the 31 other for expert and legal services when the respective financial

1 circumstances of the parties make the award reasonable and just. In 2 considering an application, the court shall review the financial capacity 3 of each party to conduct the litigation and the criteria for award of 4 counsel fees that are then pertinent as set forth by court rule.
5 Whenever any other application is made to a court which includes an 6 application for pendente lite or final award of counsel fees, the court 7 shall determine the appropriate award for counsel fees, if any, at the 8 same time that a decision is rendered on the other issue then before the 9 court and shall consider the factors set forth in the court rule on 10 counsel fees, the financial circumstances of the parties, and the good 11 or bad faith of either party.

12 a. In determining the amount to be paid by a parent for support of 13 the child and the period during which the duty of support is owed, the 14 court in those cases not governed by court rule shall consider, but not 15 be limited to, the following factors:

16 (1) Needs of the child;

17 (2) Standard of living and economic circumstances of each parent;

18 (3) All sources of income and assets of each parent;

19 (4) Earning ability of each parent, including educational 20 background, training, employment skills, work experience, custodial 21 responsibility for children including the cost of providing child care 22 and the length of time and cost of each parent to obtain training or 23 experience for appropriate employment;

24 (5) Need and capacity of the child for education, including higher 25 education;

26 (6) Age and health of the child and each parent;

27 (7) Income, assets and earning ability of the child;

28 (8) Responsibility of the parents for the court-ordered support of 29 others;

30 (9) Reasonable debts and liabilities of each child and parent; and 31 (10) Any other factors the court may deem relevant.

32 The obligation to pay support for a child who has reached the age 33 of 18 shall not terminate on the grounds of the child's age or on the 34 basis of any other law if the child suffers from a mental or physical 35 incapacity which began prior to the age of 18 and which causes the 36 child to be financially dependent on a parent.

37 b. In all actions brought for divorce, divorce from bed and board, 38 or nullity the court may award permanent or rehabilitative alimony or 39 both to either party, and in so doing shall consider, but not be limited 40 to, the following factors:

41 (1) The actual need and ability of the parties to pay;

42 (2) The duration of the marriage;

43 (3) The age, physical and emotional health of the parties;

44 (4) The standard of living established in the marriage and the 45 likelihood that each party can maintain a reasonably comparable 46 standard of living;

1 (5) The earning capacities, educational levels, vocational skills, and 2 employability of the parties;

3 (6) The length of absence from the job market and custodial 4 responsibilities for children of the party seeking maintenance;

5 (7) The time and expense necessary to acquire sufficient education
6 or training to enable the party seeking maintenance to find appropriate 7 employment, the availability of the training and employment, and the 8 opportunity for future acquisitions of capital assets and income;

9 (8) The history of the financial or non-financial contributions to the 10 marriage by each party including contributions to the care and 11 education of the children and interruption of personal careers or 12 educational opportunities;

13 (9) The equitable distribution of property ordered and any payouts 14 on equitable distribution, directly or indirectly, out of current income, 15 to the extent this consideration is reasonable, just and fair; and 16 (10) Any other factors which the court may deem relevant.

17 When a share of a retirement benefit is treated as an asset for 18 purposes of equitable distribution, the court shall not consider income 19 generated thereafter by that share for purposes of determining 20 alimony.

21 In any case in which there is a request for an award of rehabilitative 22 or permanent alimony, the court shall consider and make specific 23 findings on the evidence about the above factors.

24 An award of rehabilitative alimony may be modified based either 25 upon changed circumstances, or upon the nonoccurrence of 26 circumstances that the court found would occur at the time of the 27 rehabilitative award. This section is not intended to preclude a court 28 from modifying permanent alimony awards based upon the law. In all 29 actions for divorce other than those where judgment is granted solely 30 on the ground of separation the court may consider also the proofs 31 made in establishing such ground in determining an amount of alimony 32 or maintenance that is fit, reasonable and just. In all actions for 33 divorce or divorce from bed and board where judgment is granted on 34 the ground of institutionalization for mental illness the court may 35 consider the possible burden upon the taxpayers of the State as well 36 as the ability of the party to pay in determining an amount of 37 maintenance to be awarded.

38 In all actions where a judgment of divorce or divorce from bed and 39 board is entered the court may make such award or awards to the 40 parties, in addition to alimony and maintenance, to effectuate an 41 equitable distribution of the property, both real and personal, which 42 was legally and beneficially acquired by them or either of them during 43 the marriage. However, all such property, real, personal or otherwise, 44 legally or beneficially acquired during the marriage by either party by 45 way of gift, devise, or intestate succession shall not be subject to 46 equitable distribution, except that interspousal gifts shall be subject to 1 equitable distribution.

2 (cf: P.L.1988, c.153. s.3)

3

4 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

STATEMENT

8

9 This bill would assure that child support for a disabled child would 10 continue when the child reaches the age of majority, if the child is still 11 financially dependent on a parent because of the disability.

12 The bill provides that the obligation to pay support for a child who 13 has reached the age of 18 would not terminate on the grounds of the 14 child's age or on the basis of any other law if the child suffers from a 15 mental or physical incapacity which began prior to the age of 18 and 16 which causes the child to be financially dependent on a parent.

17

19

20

21 Requires child support to continue past the age of majority if the child 22 has a mental or physical disability which causes the child to be 23 financially dependent on a parent.
