

ASSEMBLY, No. 2700

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

INTRODUCED FEBRUARY 3, 1997

By Assemblymen GREGG and GARRETT

1 AN ACT concerning rental-purchase agreements and supplementing
2 Title 17 of the Revised Statutes.

3

4 BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and General Assembly of the State
5 of New Jersey:

6

7 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "New Jersey
8 Rental-Purchase Consumer Protection Act."

9

10 2. As used in this act:

11 "Advertisement" means a commercial message in any medium that 12 aids, promotes or assists, directly or indirectly, in the consummation
13 of a rental-purchase agreement.

14 "Cash price" means the price at which the merchant would have 15 sold the property to the consumer for cash on the date of the 16 rental-purchase agreement.

17 "Consumer" means a natural person who rents personal property
18 under a rental-purchase agreement to be used primarily for personal,
19 family or household purposes.

20 "Consummation" means the time a consumer becomes contractually
21 obligated on a rental-purchase agreement.

22 "Rental-purchase agreement" means an agreement for the use of 23 personal property by a consumer primarily for personal, family or 24 household purposes, for an initial period of four months or less, that 25 is automatically renewable with each payment after the initial period, 26 but does not obligate or require the consumer to continue renting or 27 using the property beyond the initial period, and that permits the renter
28 to become the owner of the property.

29 "Merchant" means a person who regularly provides the use of 30 property through rental-purchase agreements and to whom rental
31 payments are initially payable on the face of the rental-purchase
32 agreement.

33

34 3. a. A rental-purchase agreement that complies with the 35 provisions of this act shall not be construed as, nor be governed by,
36 the laws relating to:

37 (1) a retail installment contract as defined in subsection (b) of

1 section 1 of P.L.1960, c.40 (C.17:16C-1);

2 (2) a retail charge account as defined in subsection (r) of section
3 1 of P.L.1960, c.40 (C.17:16C-1);

4 (3) a retail installment sale of goods or retail installment contract
5 for the sale of goods pursuant to P.L.1968, c.223 (C.17:16C-61.1 et 6 seq.); or

7 (4) a security interest as defined in subsection (37) of 8 N.J.S.12A:1-201.

9 b. The provisions of this act shall not apply to:

10 (1) rental-purchase agreements primarily for business, commercial
11 or agricultural purposes, or those made with governmental agencies,
12 instrumentalities or organizations;

13 (2) a rental or lease of a safe deposit box;

14 (3) a rental or lease or bailment of personal property which is 15 incidental to the lease of real property, and which provides that the 16 consumer has no option to purchase the rented or leased property; or 17 (4) a rental or lease of an automobile.

18

19 4. a. A merchant shall disclose to a consumer the information
20 required by section 5 of this act. In a transaction involving more than 21 one merchant, only one merchant shall make the disclosures required
22 by section 5 of this act, but all merchants involved in a rental-purchase
23 agreement with a consumer shall be bound by those disclosures.

24 b. The disclosures shall be made at or before consummation of the 25 rental-purchase agreement. Agreements shall be written in plain
26 English, and in any other language used by a merchant in 27 advertisements for rental-purchase agreements.

28 c. The disclosures shall be made clearly and conspicuously in 29 writing and a copy of the rental-purchase agreement shall be provided 30 to the consumer at the time the agreement is consummated. The 31 disclosures required pursuant to section 5 of this act shall be made on 32 the face of the contract above the line for the consumer's signature.

33 d. If a disclosure becomes inaccurate as the result of any act, 34 occurrence or agreement by the consumer after delivery of the 35 required disclosures, the resulting inaccuracy is not a violation of this 36 act.

37

38 5. a. For each rental-purchase agreement, the merchant shall 39 disclose in the agreement the following items, as applicable:

40 (1) the total number, total dollar amount and timing of all payments
41 necessary to acquire ownership of the property;

42 (2) a statement that the consumer will not own the property until 43 the consumer has made the total dollar amount of payments necessary
44 to acquire ownership;

45 (3) a statement that the consumer is responsible for the fair market 46 value of the property if, and as of the time, it is stolen, damaged or

1 destroyed;

2 (4) a brief description of the rented property, sufficient to identify 3 the property to the consumer and the merchant, including an 4 identification number, if applicable, and a statement indicating whether 5 the property is new or used, but a statement that indicates new 6 property is used is not a violation of this act;

7 (5) the cash price of the property;

8 (6) the total of initial payments paid or required at or before 9 consummation of the rental-purchase agreement or delivery of the 10 property, whichever is later;

11 (7) a statement that the total dollar amount of payments does not 12 include other charges that a consumer may incur, such as late payment, 13 default, pickup and reinstatement fees, which charges shall be 14 separately disclosed in the rental-purchase agreement;

15 (8) a statement clearly summarizing the terms of the consumer's 16 option to purchase, including a statement that the consumer has the 17 right to exercise an early purchase option and the price, formula or 18 method for determining the price at which the property may be so
19 purchased;

20 (9) a statement identifying the party responsible for maintaining or 21 servicing the property while it is being rented, together with a
22 description of that responsibility, and a statement that if any part of a 23 manufacturer's express warranty covers the rental property at the time 24 the consumer acquires ownership of the property, it shall be 25 transferred to the consumer, if allowed by the terms of the warranty;

26 (10) the date of the consummation of the agreement and the 27 identities of the merchant and the consumer;

28 (11) a statement that the consumer may terminate the agreement
29 without penalty by voluntarily surrendering or returning the property
30 in good repair upon expiration of any rental term along with any past 31 due rental payments; and

32 (12) notice of the right to reinstate a rental-purchase agreement
33 pursuant to section 7 of this act, which notice shall include the 34 provisions of section 7 of this act.

35 b. With respect to matters specifically governed by the federal 36 Consumer Credit Protection Act (15 U.S.C. §1601 et seq.),
37 compliance with that act shall be deemed to satisfy the disclosure
38 requirements of this section.

39

40 6. A rental-purchase agreement may not contain a provision:

41 a. Requiring a confession of judgment;

42 b. Requiring a garnishment of wages;

43 c. Permitting the merchant a security interest in or other claim to 44 a property interest in any property except property delivered by the 45 merchant pursuant to the rental-purchase agreement;

46 d. Authorizing a merchant or an agent of the merchant to commit

- 1 a breach of the peace during repossession of the property;
- 2 e. Waiving a defense, counterclaim, or right the renter may have 3 against the merchant or an agent of the merchant;
- 4 f. Requiring a balloon payment in addition to regular rental
5 payments in order to acquire ownership of the property, or requiring 6 rental payments totaling more than the cost to acquire ownership, as 7 disclosed in the rental-purchase agreement; or
- 8 g. Requiring purchase of insurance from the merchant to cover the 9 property.
- 10
- 11 7. a. A consumer who fails to make a timely rental payment may 12 reinstate a rental-purchase agreement without losing any rights or 13 options which exist under the agreement, if the following apply:
- 14 (1) subsequent to having failed to make a timely rental payment, 15 the consumer promptly returns or surrenders the property upon the 16 merchant's request; and
- 17 (2) not more than 60 days have passed since the property was 18 returned to the merchant; except that if the consumer has paid 60
19 percent or more of the total of payments necessary to acquire 20 ownership of the property, then the reinstatement period shall be 21 extended to 180 days.
- 22 b. As a condition of reinstatement under this section, the merchant
23 may require the payment of all past due rental charges, any applicable 24 late fee, plus a reinstatement fee not to exceed $5.
- 25 c. Nothing in this section shall prevent a merchant from 26 attempting to repossess property during the reinstatement period, but 27 that repossession shall not affect the consumer's rights to reinstate.
28 Upon reinstatement, the merchant shall provide the consumer with the 29 same property or substitute property of comparable quality and 30 condition.
- 31
- 32 8. a. No merchant shall offer a rental-purchase agreement in 33 which 50 percent of all rental payments necessary to acquire 34 ownership of the rented property exceeds the cash price of the rented 35 property. When 50 percent of all rental payments made by a consumer
36 equals the cash price of the property disclosed to the consumer
37 pursuant to paragraph (5) of subsection a. of section 5 of this act, the 38 consumer shall acquire ownership of the rented property and the 39 rental-purchase agreement shall terminate.
- 40 b. At any time after tendering an initial rental payment, a 41 consumer may acquire ownership of the property that is the subject of 42 the rental-purchase agreement by tendering the amount by which the 43 cash price of the rented property exceeds 50 percent of all rental
44 payments previously made by the consumer.
- 45
- 46 9. A merchant shall provide the consumer a written receipt for

1 each payment made by cash or money order, upon request by the 2 consumer.

3

4 10. a. A renegotiation shall occur when an existing rental-purchase
5 agreement is satisfied and replaced by a new agreement undertaken by 6 the same merchant and consumer. A renegotiation shall be considered
7 a new agreement requiring new disclosures pursuant to this act.
8 However, events such as the following shall not be treated as 9 renegotiation:

10 (1) the addition or return of property in a multiple-item agreement
11 or the substitution of the rental property, if in either case the average
12 payment allocable to a payment period is not changed by more than 25
13 percent;

14 (2) a deferral or extension of one or more periodic payments, or 15 portions of a periodic payment;

16 (3) a reduction in charges in the agreement; and

17 (4) an agreement involved in a court proceeding.

18 b. No new disclosures are required for any extension of a
19 rental-purchase agreement.

20

21 11. a. If an advertisement for a rental-purchase agreement refers 22 to or states the dollar amount of any payment and right to acquire 23 ownership for any one specific item, the advertisement shall also 24 clearly and conspicuously state the following items, as applicable:

25 (1) that the transaction advertised is a rental-purchase agreement;

26 (2) the total number and total dollar amount of payments necessary
27 to acquire ownership; and

28 (3) that the consumer does not acquire ownership rights if the total 29 dollar amount of payments necessary to acquire ownership is not paid.

30 b. Any personal property displayed or offered under a 31 rental-purchase agreement shall bear a tag which clearly and 32 conspicuously states:

33 (1) the cash price of the property;

34 (2) the dollar amount of the periodic payment;

35 (3) the total dollar amount that must be paid in order to acquire 36 ownership of the property under a rental-purchase agreement; and 37 (4) that the property is new or used.

38 c. An owner or agent of the medium in which an advertisement
39 for a rental-purchase agreement appears or through which it is 40 disseminated shall not be liable pursuant to this section.

41 d. The provisions of subsection a. of this section shall not apply 42 to an advertisement which does not refer to or state the amount of any 43 payment, or which is published in the yellow pages of a telephone
44 directory or in any similar directory of business.

45

46 12. a. Notwithstanding any provision of subsection b. of this

1 section to the contrary, a merchant who fails to comply with the 2 requirements of this act shall be liable to the consumer in an amount 3 equal to the greater of:

4 (1) the actual damages sustained by the consumer as a result of the 5 merchant's failure to comply with this act; or

6 (2) twenty-five percent of the total of payments necessary to 7 acquire ownership, but not less than $100 nor more than $1,000.

8 That merchant shall also be liable to the consumer for the costs of 9 the action and reasonable attorneys' fees, as determined by the court.

10 b. No consumer shall offset any amount for which a merchant is 11 potentially liable under subsection a. of this section against any amount
12 owed by the consumer, unless the amount of the merchant's liability
13 has been determined by judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction
14 in an action in which the merchant was a party. This subsection b.
15 does not bar a consumer then in default on an obligation from 16 asserting a violation of this act as an original action, or as a defense or 17 counterclaim to an action brought by a merchant against the consumer.

18 c. No action under this section shall be brought in any court of 19 competent jurisdiction more than two years after the date the 20 consumer made his last rental payment, or more than two years after 21 the date of the occurrence of a violation that is the subject of the suit, 22 whichever is later.

23

24 13. This act shall take effect on the 180th day after enactment.

27

STATEMENT

28

29 This bill defines and regulates rental-purchase agreements involving 30 personal property used for personal, family or household purposes.

31 The bill provides that rental-purchase agreements are not to be 32 treated as retail installment contracts, retail charge accounts, credit
33 sales, or consumer leases.

34 The bill specifies disclosures required and prohibits the inclusion of 35 certain provisions in rental-purchase agreements; provides for the 36 reinstatement of the rental-purchase agreement after failure of the 37 consumer to make a timely payment; provides an early purchase option
38 after initial payment; and provides the conditions under which a 39 consumer, who has suffered loss due to a violation of any provision of 40 the act by a merchant, may seek to recover certain costs.

41 The bill further defines what a rental-purchase agreement is by 42 excluding credit sales and consumer rentals or leases as defined in 43 federal law or regulation and provides that, for those rental or 44 lease-purchase agreements specifically subject to the provisions of the 45 federal Consumer Credit Protection Act, compliance with the

1 disclosure requirements of that act satisfies disclosure requirements of 2 the bill.
