STATEMENT

16 N.J.S.A.2A:82-46 presently provides that certain reports, 17 statements, photographs, court documents, complaints or any other 18 public record which the states the name, address or otherwise 19 identifies victims of certain sexual offenses shall be confidential if the 20 victim is under the age of 18. This bill would eliminate reference in 21 N.J.S.A.2A:82-46 to victims under 18 years of age and thus make the 22 provisions concerning confidentiality applicable to all victims of sexual 23 offense regardless of age.

24 Also presently under the provisions of 2A:82-46, a person who 25 purposely discloses or releases any document concerning the juvenile 26 victim of a sexual offense is guilty of a disorderly persons offense.
27 The bill would change the requisite intent requirement for this offense 28 from "purposely" to "knowingly."
