36 2. N.J.S.2C:20 -2 is amended to read as follows:

37 2C:20-2. Consolidation of Theft Offenses; Grading; Provisions
38 Applicable to Theft Generally. a. Consolidation of Theft Offenses.
39 Conduct denominated theft in this chapter constitutes a single offense, 40 but each episode or transaction may be the subject of a separate 41 prosecution and conviction. A charge of theft may be supported by 42 evidence that it was committed in any manner that would be theft 43 under this chapter, notwithstanding the specification of a different 44 manner in the indictment or accusation, subject only to the power of 45 the court to ensure fair trial by granting a bill of particulars, discovery, 46 a continuance, or other appropriate relief where the conduct of the

- 1 defense would be prejudiced by lack of fair notice or by surprise.
- 2 b. Grading of theft offenses.
- 3 (1) Theft constitutes a crime of the second degree if:
- 4 (a) The amount involved is $75,000.00 or more;
- 5 (b) The property is taken by extortion;
- 6 (c) The property stolen is a controlled dangerous substance or
- 7 controlled substance analog as defined in N.J.S.2C:35-2 and the
- 8 quantity is in excess of one kilogram; or
- 9 (d) The property stolen is a person's benefits under federal or State
- 10 law, or from any other source, which the Department of Human
- 11 Services or an agency acting on its behalf has budgeted for the
- 12 person's health care and the amount involved is $75,000 or more.
- 13 (2) Theft constitutes a crime of the third degree if:
- 14 (a) The amount involved exceeds $500.00 but is less than
- 15 $75,000.00;
- 16 (b) The property stolen is a firearm, motor vehicle, vessel, boat,
- 17 horse or airplane;
- 18 (c) The property stolen is a controlled dangerous substance or
- 19 controlled substance analog as defined in N.J.S.2C:35-2 and the
- 20 amount involved is less than $75,000.00 or is undetermined and the
- 21 quantity is one kilogram or less;
- 22 (d) It is from the person of the victim;
- 23 (e) It is in breach of an obligation by a person in his capacity as a
- 24 fiduciary;
- 25 (f) It is by threat not amounting to extortion;
- 26 (g) It is of a public record, writing or instrument kept, filed or
- 27 deposited according to law with or in the keeping of any public office
- 28 or public servant;
- 29 (h) The property stolen is a person's benefits under federal or State
- 30 law, or from any other source, which the Department of Human
- 31 Services or an agency acting on its behalf has budgeted for the
- 32 person's health care and the amount involved is less than $75,000; [or]
- 33 (i) The property stolen is any real or personal property related to,
- 34 necessary for, or derived from research, regardless of value, including,
- 35 but not limited to, any sample, specimens and components thereof,
- 36 research subject, including any warm-blooded or cold-blooded animals
- 37 being used for research or intended for use in research, supplies,
- 38 records, data or test results, prototypes or equipment, as well as any
- 39 proprietary information or other type of information related to
- 40 research ;or
- 41 (j) The property stolen consists of an access device or a defaced
- 42 access device.
- 43 (3) Theft constitutes a crime of the fourth degree if the amount
- 44 involved is at least $200.00 but does not exceed $500.00. If the
- 45 amount involved was less than $200.00 the offense constitutes a
- 46 disorderly persons offense.

1 (4) The amount involved in a theft shall be determined by the trier 2 of fact. The amount shall include, but shall not be limited to, the 3 amount of any State tax avoided, evaded or otherwise unpaid, 4 improperly retained or disposed of. Amounts involved in thefts 5 committed pursuant to one scheme or course of conduct, whether 6 from the same person or several persons, may be aggregated in 7 determining the grade of the offense.

8 c. Claim of right. It is an affirmative defense to prosecution for 9 theft that the actor:

10 (1) Was unaware that the property or service was that of another;

11 (2) Acted under an honest claim of right to the property or service 12 involved or that he had a right to acquire or dispose of it as he did; or

13 (3) Took property exposed for sale, intending to purchase and pay 14 for it promptly, or reasonably believing that the owner, if present, 15 would have consented.

16 d. Theft from spouse. It is no defense that theft was from the 17 actor's spouse, except that misappropriation of household and personal 18 effects, or other property normally accessible to both spouses, is theft 19 only if it occurs after the parties have ceased living together.

20 (cf: P.L.1995, c.20, s.5)

21
22 ¹[3. N.J.S.2C:20-3 is amended to read as follows:

23 2C:20-3. Theft by Unlawful Taking or Disposition.

24 a. Movable property. A person is guilty of theft if he unlawfully 25 takes, or exercises unlawful control over, movable property of 26 another, including but not limited to an access device or a defaced 27 access device, with purpose to deprive him thereof.

28 b. Immovable property. A person is guilty of theft if he unlawfully 29 transfers any interest in immovable property of another with purpose 30 to benefit himself or another not entitled thereto.

31 (cf: P.L.1978, c.95, s.2C:20-3)]¹

32
33 ¹[4. N.J.S.2C:20-4 is amended to read as follows:

34 2C:20-4. Theft by Deception.

35 A person is guilty of theft if he purposely obtains property of 36 another by deception. A person deceives if he purposely:

37 a. Creates or reinforces a false impression, including false 38 impressions as to identity, law, value, intention or other state of mind; 39 but deception as to a person's intention to perform a promise shall not 40 be inferred from the fact alone that he did not subsequently perform 41 the promise;

42 b. Prevents another from acquiring information which would affect 43 his judgment of a transaction; or

44 c. Fails to correct a false impression which the deceiver previously 45 created or reinforced, or which the deceiver knows to be influencing 46 another to whom he stands in a fiduciary or confidential relationship.

1 The term "deceive" does not, however, include falsity as to matters 2 having no pecuniary significance, or puffing or exaggeration by 3 statements unlikely to deceive ordinary persons in the group 4 addressed.

6

7 ¹[5.] 3.¹ N.J.S.2C:20-7 is amended to read as follows:

8 2C:20-7. Receiving Stolen Property.

9 a. Receiving. A person is guilty of theft if he knowingly receives 10 or brings into this State movable property of another ¹[. including but 11 not limited to an access device or defaced access device.]¹ knowing 12 that it has been stolen, or believing that it is probably stolen. It is an 13 affirmative defense that the property was received with purpose to 14 restore it to the owner. "Receiving" means acquiring possession, 15 control or title, or lending on the security of the property.

16 b. Presumption of knowledge. The requisite knowledge or belief 17 is presumed in the case of a person who:

18 (1) Is found in possession or control of two or more items of 19 property stolen on two or more separate occasions; or 20 (2) Has received stolen property in another transaction within the 21 year preceding the transaction charged; or

22 (3) Being a person in the business of buying or selling property of 23 the sort received, acquires the property without having ascertained by 24 reasonable inquiry that the person from whom he obtained it had a 25 legal right to possess and dispose of it ;or

26 (4) Is found in possession of two or more ¹[access devices or]¹ 27 defaced access devices.

28 (cf: P.L.1981, c.290, s.19)

29

30 ¹[6.] 4.¹ N.J.S.2C:20-8 is amended to read as follows:

31 2C:20-8. Theft of Services.

32 a. A person is guilty of theft if he purposely obtains services which 33 he knows are available only for compensation, by deception or threat, 34 or by false token, slug, or other means, including but not limited to 35 mechanical or electronic devices or through fraudulent statements, to 36 avoid payment for the service. "Services" include labor or professional 37 service; transportation, telephone, telecommunications, electric, water, 38 gas, cable television, or other public service; accommodation in hotels, 39 restaurants or elsewhere; entertainment; admission to exhibitions; use 40 of vehicles or other movable property. Where compensation for 41 service is ordinarily paid immediately upon the rendering of such 42 service, as in the case of hotels and restaurants, absconding without 43 payment or offer to pay gives rise to a presumption that the service 44 was obtained by deception as to intention to pay.

45 b. A person commits theft if, having control over the disposition of 46 services of another, to which he is not entitled, he knowingly diverts

1 such services to his own benefit or to the benefit of another not 2 entitled thereto.

3 c. Any person who, without permission and for the purpose of 4 obtaining electric current, gas or water with intent to defraud any 5 vendor of electricity, gas or water or a person who is furnished by a 6 vendor with electric current, gas or water:

7 (1) Connects or causes to be connected by wire or any other device 8 with the wires, cables or conductors of any such vendor or any other 9 person; or

10 (2) Connects or disconnects the meters, pipes or conduits of such 11 vendor or any other person or in any other manner tampers or 12 interferes with such meters, pipes or conduits, or connects with such 13 meters, pipes or conduits by pipes, conduits or other instruments--is 14 guilty of a disorderly persons offense.

15 The existence of any of the conditions with reference to meters, 16 pipes, conduits or attachments, described in this subsection, is 17 presumptive evidence that the person to whom gas, electricity or water 18 is at the time being furnished by or through such meters, pipes, 19 conduits or attachments has, with intent to defraud, created or caused 20 to be created with reference to such meters, pipes, conduits or 21 attachments, the condition so existing; provided, however, that the 22 presumption shall not apply to any person so furnished with gas, 23 electricity or water for less than 31 days or until there has been at least 24 one meter reading.

25 A violation of this subsection shall be deemed to be a continuing 26 offense as long as the conditions described in this subsection exist.

27 d. Any person who, without permission or authority, connects or 28 causes to be connected by wires or other devices, any meter erected 29 or set up for the purpose of registering or recording the amount of 30 electric current supplied to any customer by any vendor of electricity 31 within this State, or changes or shunts the wiring leading to or from 32 any such meter, or by any device, appliance or means whatsoever 33 tampers with any such meter so that the meter will not measure or 34 record the full amount of electric current supplied to such customer, 35 is guilty of a disorderly persons offense.

36 The existence of any of the conditions with reference to meters or 37 attachments described in this subsection is presumptive evidence that 38 the person to whom electricity is at the time being furnished by or 39 through such meters or attachments has, with intent to defraud, 40 created or caused to be created with reference to such meters or 41 attachments, the condition so existing; provided, however, that the 42 presumption shall not apply to any person so furnished with electricity 43 for less than 31 days or until there has been at least one meter reading.

44 A violation of this subsection shall be deemed to be a continuing 45 offense as long as the conditions described in this subsection exist.

46 e. Any person who, with intent to obtain cable television service

1 without payment, in whole or in part, of the lawful charges therefor, 2 or with intent to deprive another of the lawful receipt of such service, 3 damages, cuts, tampers with, installs, taps or makes any connection 4 with, or who displaces, removes, injures or destroys any wire, cable, 5 conduit, apparatus or equipment of a cable television company
6 operating a CATV system; or who, without authority of a cable 7 television company, intentionally prevents, obstructs or delays, by any 8 means or contrivance, the sending, transmission, conveyance, 9 distribution or receipt of programming material carried by equipment
10 of the cable television company operating a CATV system, is a 11 disorderly person.

12 The existence of any of the conditions with reference to wires, 13 cables, conduits, apparatus or equipment described in this subsection 14 is presumptive evidence that the person to whom cable television 15 service is at the time being furnished has, with intent to obtain cable 16 television service without authorization or compensation or to 17 otherwise defraud, created or caused to be created the condition so 18 existing.

19 f. Any person who purposely or knowingly manufactures, 20 constructs, sells, offers for sale, distributes or installs any equipment, 21 device or instrument designed or intended to facilitate the interception,
22 decoding or receipt of any cable television service with intent to obtain 23 such service and avoid the lawful payment of the charges therefor to 24 the provider, in whole or in part, is a disorderly person.

25 Any communications paraphernalia prohibited under this subsection
26 shall be subject to forfeiture and may be seized by the State or any law 27 enforcement officer in accordance with the provisions of 28 N.J.S.2C:64-1 et seq.

29 g. Any person who purposely or knowingly maintains or possesses 30 any equipment, device or instrument of the type described in 31 subsection f. of this section or maintains or possesses any equipment, 32 device or instrument actually used to facilitate the interception,
33 decoding or receipt of any cable television service with intent to obtain 34 such service and avoid the lawful payment, in whole or in part, of the 35 charges therefor to the provider, is a disorderly person.

36 Any communications paraphernalia prohibited under this subsection
37 shall be subject to forfeiture and may be seized by the State or any law 38 enforcement officer in accordance with the provisions of 39 N.J.S.2C:64-1 et seq.

40 h. Any person who, with the intent of depriving a telephone 41 company of its lawful charges therefor, purposely or knowingly makes 42 use of any telecommunications service by means of the unauthorized 43 use of any electronic or mechanical device or connection, or by the 44 unauthorized use of billing information, or by the use of a computer, 45 computer equipment or computer software, or by the use of 46 misidentifying or misleading information given to a representative of

1 the telephone company is guilty of a [disorderly persons offense] crime 2 of the third degree.

3 The existence of any of the conditions with reference to electronic 4 or mechanical devices, computers, computer equipment or computer 5 software described in this subsection is presumptive evidence that the 6 person to whom telecommunications service is at the time being 7 furnished has, with intent to obtain telecommunications service 8 without authorization or compensation or to otherwise defraud, 9 created or caused to be created the condition so existing.

10 i. Any person who purposely or knowingly manufactures, 11 constructs, sells, offers for sale, distributes, installs, or otherwise

15 lawful payment of the charges therefor to the provider, in whole or in 16 part, is guilty of a [disorderly persons offense] crime of the third 17 degree.

18 Any communications paraphernalia, computer, computer equipment
19 or computer software prohibited under this subsection shall be subject
20 to forfeiture and may be seized by the State or any law enforcement
21 officer in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.2C:64-1 et seq.

22 j. Any person who purposely or knowingly maintains or possesses 23 any equipment, device, computer, computer equipment, computer 24 software or instrument of the type described in subsection i. of this 25 section, or maintains or possesses any equipment, device, computer, 26 computer equipment, computer software or instrument actually used 27 to facilitate the receipt of any telecommunications service with intent 28 to obtain such service and avoid the lawful payment, in whole or in 29 part, of the charges therefor to the provider, is guilty of a [disorderly 30 persons offense] crime of the third degree.

31 Any communications paraphernalia, computer, computer equipment
32 or computer software prohibited under this subsection shall be subject
33 to forfeiture and may be seized by the State or any law enforcement
34 officer in accordance with the provisions of N.J.S.2C:64-1 et seq.

35 k. In addition to any other disposition authorized by law, and 36 notwithstanding the provisions of N.J.S.2C:43-3, every person who 37 violates this section shall be sentenced to make restitution to the 38 vendor and to pay a minimum fine of $500.00 for each offense. In 39 determining the amount of restitution, the court shall consider the 40 costs expended by the vendor, including but not limited to the repair 41 and replacement of damaged equipment, the cost of the services 42 unlawfully obtained, investigation expenses, and attorney fees.

43 l. The presumptions of evidence applicable to offenses defined in 44 subsections c., d., e. and h. of this section shall also apply in any 45 prosecution for theft of services brought pursuant to the provisions of 46 subsection a. or b. of this section.
