1 read as follows:

2 12. [(a)] a. The head of each State agency, or the principal officer

5 by the head of such department for the purposes hereinafter set forth, 6 shall within six months from the date of enactment, promulgate a code 7 of ethics to govern and guide the conduct of the members of the 8 Legislature, the State officers and employees or the special State 9 officers and employees in the agency to which said code is applicable.
10 Such code shall conform to the general standards hereinafter set forth 11 in this section, but it shall be formulated with respect to the particular 12 needs and problems of the agency to which said code is to apply.
13 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, the New Jersey 14 members to any interstate agency to which New Jersey is a party and 15 the officers and employees of any State agency which fails to 16 promulgate a code of ethics shall be deemed to be subject to a code of 17 ethics the provisions of which shall be paragraphs (1) through (6) of 18 subsection [(e)] e. of this section.

19 [(b)] b. A code of ethics formulated pursuant to this section to 20 govern and guide the conduct of the State officers and employees or 21 the special State officers and employees in any State agency in the 22 Executive Branch, or any portion of such a code, shall not be effective 23 unless it has first been approved by the Executive Commission on 24 Ethical Standards. When a proposed code is submitted to the [said]
25 commission it shall be accompanied by an opinion of the Attorney 26 General as to its compliance with the provisions of this act and any 27 other applicable provision of law. Nothing contained herein shall 28 prevent officers of State agencies in the Executive Branch from 29 consulting with the Attorney General or with the Executive 30 Commission on Ethical Standards at any time in connection with the 31 preparation or revision of such codes of ethics.

32 [(c)] c. A code of ethics formulated pursuant to this section to 33 govern and guide the conduct of the members of the Legislature, State 34 officers and employees or special State officers and employees in any 35 State agency in the Legislative Branch, or any portion of such code, 36 shall not be effective unless it has first been approved by the 37 Legislature by concurrent resolution. When a proposed code is 38 submitted to the Legislature for approval it shall be accompanied by 39 an opinion of the chief counsel as to its compliance with the provisions 40 of this act and any other applicable provisions of law. Nothing 41 contained herein shall prevent officers of State agencies in the 42 Legislative Branch from consulting with the Chief Legislative Counsel 43 or the Joint Legislative Committee on Ethical Standards at any time in 44 connection with the preparation or revision of such codes of ethics.

45 [(d)] d. Violations of a code of ethics promulgated pursuant to 1 this section shall be cause for removal, suspension, demotion or other 2 disciplinary action by the State officer or agency having the power of 3 removal or discipline. When a person who is in the classified civil 4 service is charged with a violation of such a code of ethics, the 5 procedure leading to such removal or discipline shall be governed by 6 any applicable provisions of the Civil Service Law and the Rules of the 7 Department of [Civil Service] Personnel. No action for removal or 8 discipline shall be taken under this subsection except upon the referral 9 or with the approval of the Executive Commission on Ethical 10 Standards or the Joint Legislative Committee on Ethical Standards, 11 whichever is authorized to exercise jurisdiction with respect to the 12 complaint upon which such action for removal or discipline is to be 13 taken.

14 [(e)] e. A code of ethics for officers and employees of a State 15 agency shall conform to the following general standards:

16 (1) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 17 employee should have any interest, financial or otherwise, direct or 18 indirect, or engage in any business or transaction or professional 19 activity, which is in substantial conflict with the proper discharge of 20 his duties in the public interest.

21 (2) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 22 employee should engage in any particular business, profession, trade 23 or occupation which is subject to licensing or regulation by a specific 24 agency of State Government without promptly filing notice of such 25 activity with the Executive Commission on Ethical Standards, if he is 26 an officer or employee in the Executive Branch, or with the Joint 27 Legislative Committee on Ethical Standards, if he is an officer or 28 employee in the Legislative Branch. A State officer or employee or a 29 special State officer or employee who possesses a license issued by a 30 State agency which entitles the officer or employee to engage in a 31 particular business, profession, trade or occupation shall file notice of 32 that fact with the Executive Commission or the Joint Committee, as 33 appropriate.

34 (3) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 35 employee should use or attempt to use his official position, or direct, 36 authorize or knowingly permit another to use an official position, to 37 secure unwarranted privileges or advantages for [himself or others] 38 any person.

39 (4) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 40 employee should act in his official capacity in any matter wherein he 41 has a direct or indirect personal financial interest that might reasonably 42 be expected to impair his objectivity or independence of judgment.

43 (5) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 44 employee should undertake any employment or service, whether 45 compensated or not, which might reasonably be expected to impair his

1 objectivity and independence of judgment in the exercise of his official 2 duties.

3 (6) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 4 employee should accept any gift, favor, service or other thing of value 5 under circumstances from which it might be reasonably inferred that 6 such gift, service or other thing of value was given or offered for the 7 purpose of influencing him in the discharge of his official duties.

8 (7) No State officer or employee or special State officer or 9 employee should knowingly act in any way that might reasonably be 10 expected to create an impression or suspicion among the public having 11 knowledge of his acts that he may be engaged in conduct violative of 12 his trust as a State officer or employee or special State officer or 13 employee.

14 (8) Rules of conduct adopted pursuant to these principles should 15 recognize that under our democratic form of government public 16 officials and employees should be drawn from all of our society, that 17 citizens who serve in government cannot and should not be expected 18 to be without any personal interest in the decisions and policies of 19 government; that citizens who are government officials and employees 20 have a right to private interests of a personal, financial and economic 21 nature; that standards of conduct should separate those conflicts of 22 interest which are unavoidable in a free society from those conflicts of 23 interest which are substantial and material, or which bring government 24 into disrepute.

25 [(f)] f. The code of ethics for members of the Legislature shall 26 conform to subsection [(e)] e. hereof as nearly as may be possible.

2 interfere with the responsibilities of the filing employee or filing officer 3 and will not give rise to a present or potential conflict of interest or a 4 present or potential appearance of a conflict of interest.

5 e. A filing employee or filing officer may only maintain an interest 6 in a closely held business entity covered by this section while and until 7 the commission makes a final determination on the status of such 33 disposition set forth in sections 11 and 13 of this act. The commission 34 may adopt rules and regulations governing the disposition of such 35 interests pending compliance with the procedures for disclosure and 36 disposition set forth in this act. These rules and regulations may 37 provide a reasonable period of time for divestiture of an interest, 38 considering the nature of the filing employee's or filing officer's duties 39 and the nature and marketability of the interest.

40 41 13. (New section) All required divestiture shall be subject to the 13 trustee improbable or impractical; these investments or assets would 14 include, but not be limited to, businesses, real estate, security interests 15 in personal property and mortgages;

16 b. the trust shall contain a clear statement of its purpose, namely, 17 to remove from the grantor control and knowledge of investment of 20 employee's private business or financial interests will be eliminated;

21 c. the trust shall be irrevocable, and shall be terminated only upon 22 the death of the filing officer or employee or upon termination from 30 period of the trust with authority to compromise the grantor's tax 31 liability; or submit to the grantor, for income tax purposes, a 32 certification of income paid without identifying the assets producing 33 such income;

34 f. among its other powers, the trustee shall have authority to 35 determine whether any of the assets originally transferred to the 44 h. the grantor shall retain no control over the trustee nor shall the 45 grantor be permitted to make any recommendations or suggestions as

1 to the trust property;

2 i. the trustee shall be a commercial trustee and not a natural 3 person;

4 j. the principal benefit to be retained by the grantor shall be the 5 right to receive income from the assets transferred to the trust;

6 k. the trust shall not become effective until submitted and 7 approved by the Executive Commission on Ethical Standards; and 8 l. the trust agreement shall provide that the trustee will give the 9 Executive Commission on Ethical Standards access to any records or 10 information related to the trust which is necessary for the performance 11 of the commission's duties.

13 15. (New section) A copy of the executed blind trust agreement 14 shall be filed with the Executive Commission on Ethical Standards and 15 with the head of the department in which the filing officer or employee 16 holds office or employment. Attached to such copy shall be a brief

28 information of the government;

29 b. make, present, offer for filing, or use any record, document or 30 thing, or cause or permit another public servant to do so, knowing it 31 to be false, and with purpose that it be taken as a genuine part of 32 information or records referred to in subsection a. of this section; or 33 c. purposely and unlawfully destroy, conceal, remove, mutilate, or 34 otherwise impair the verity or availability of any such record, 35 document or thing, or purposely and unlawfully cause or permit 36 another public servant to do so.

37

38 17. (New section) The first annual report submitted by the
