STATEMENT

15 This bill amends the law exempting certain real estate licensees
16 from certain damages under the consumer fraud law. Specifically, 17 this bill broadens the current exemption for real estate brokers, 18 broker-salespersons, or salespersons from a right of recovery by 19 persons who suffer any ascertainable loss of money or property, real 20 or personal, by eliminating the current limitation with respect to the 21 right of recovery to punitive damages and attorney's fees.

22 Current law prevents a person from recovering punitive damages
23 or attorney fees from a real estate broker, broker-salesperson, or 24 salesperson for the communication of any false, misleading, or 25 deceptive information provided to the real estate broker, broker-
26 salesperson, or salesperson by or on behalf of the seller of real 27 estate located in New Jersey, if the real estate broker, broker-28 salesperson, or salesperson demonstrates that he had no actual 29 knowledge of the false, misleading, or deceptive character of the 30 information and made a reasonable and diligent inquiry to ascertain
31 whether the information is of a false, misleading, or deceptive
32 character.

33 This bill broadens the exemption to prohibit recovery of any 34 damages if those conditions are met. This bill further eliminates the 35 provision in the current restriction that requires that the 36 communication to real estate brokers, broker-salespersons, or 37 salespersons is made by or on behalf of the seller, and instead, it 38 provides that the communication need only be regarding the real 39 estate.
