

Due to the current Public Health Emergency and State of Emergency, access to the interior of the State Capitol Complex is limited to members of government, government employees/contractors, credentialed members of the press, and invited participants with business in the Complex. Tours, field trips, and large gatherings are canceled. The public is encouraged to submit written testimony electronically for committees. This testimony will be included in the record.